Mullinax Sells Uniforms.
The J. A. Mullinax Tailoring House, of which Mr. U. G. Salla is manager, was awarded the contract for the new uniforms for the motormen and conductors of the local street railway system. This is one of the most up-to-date tailoring establishments in the city.

Escaped Gang and Caught Stealing.
Roy Watson, colored, who was sent out to work on the streets recently for 60 days, and who made his escape last week, was arrested yesterday afternoon on charges of stealing 11 pounds of meat from a local broker. The negro was given a long, long chase by Private Foster, the marathon starting at a warehouse in the city and winding up in the village of the Anderson Mill. The negro will be given a hearing today in recorder's court.

Receipts of Cotton For Two Seasons.
According to information given out from the Standard Warehouse platform, the receipts of cotton up to last Saturday night for this year were 29,305. The receipts for the corresponding period of last year were 21,711. This is a difference in favor of last season of 1,466 bales.

Maj. McCully Buys In North Anderson.
Maj. P. K. McCully, Jr., has purchased the house in North Anderson recently vacated by Mr. W. W. Smoak, former editor and manager of the Intelligencer, who returned Saturday to Walterboro, his old home, to take active charge of his newspaper, the Press and Standard. The property was sold to Maj. McCully by Mr. John Linley, one of the most wide-awake real estate men in the Carolinas.

The property is most desirable, being in the highest part of North Anderson, and the dwelling is one of the prettiest in that beautiful settlement.

Four Plead GUILTY Gambling.
In recorder's court yesterday four negroes, Eugene Thornton, Jule Warulick, Forrest Moore and Jim Gosby, pleaded guilty to charges of gambling and were sentenced to pay fines of $25 each. The negroes were arrested Sunday afternoon on Quarry street by Captain of the Police Bell and Privates Driskell, Sanders and Payne.

Fords Selling Rapidly Lately.
Fords have been in big demand lately and the local representative, Archie L. Todd, has had his hands full waiting on buyers. Within the past few days he has placed some five or six of these machines, among the local purchasers being Messrs. L. P. Smith and Theo. B. Fant, both of whom bought touring cars.

Gen. C. A. Reed Out Again.
The many friends of Gen. C. A. Reed will be glad to know that he is able to be out again, after his illness from rheumatism. The recent reunion of the Confederate veterans at Columbia is the first that Mr. Reed has missed in many years. He says that he feels fine, and that nothing except another spell of sickness can keep him away from the reunion at Richmond. Gen. Reed was unanimously elected commander of the third brigade at the reunion of the State veterans at Columbia.

Mr. Breazeale Gets Appointment.
Mr. W. E. Breazeale of this city has been appointed and has received his commission from the federal government as special agent for collecting manufacturing statistics in Anderson, Oconee, and parts of Greenwood and Edgefield Counties. The appointment at present is only temporary, but friends of Mr. Breazeale hope that it will lead to a permanent one. The appointment was secured through the influence of Congressman Wyatt Aiken.

Trouble Never Comes Singly.
Mr. P. C. Hall, of this city has recently had the fact that "troubles come not single file but in battalions" very forcefully demonstrated to him. He came to Anderson on Saturday and drew quite a sum of money from one of the local banks, with which to pay the hands on his farm. He placed the money in his pocket and when reaching home, tried to find the money, but found it not. Where he lost the money, he has not the slightest idea. Mr. Hall's son, O. L. Hall, was also in the city on Saturday and while here he suffered a severe attack of pleurisy. His condition for a while was very serious, but now he is much better and is on the road to recovery.

Positive Relief For Constipation

The progress of modern medical science is, perhaps, no more forcefully evident than in the simplifying of many of the old time remedies of past generations. For instance, the harsh cathartics and violent purgatives used by our forefathers to relieve constipation are now known to be not only unnecessary but really harmful. Constipation can be more effectively relieved without the discomfort and pain these old-time remedies occasion. A combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is most effective, yet mild and pleasant. It is absolutely free from opiates and narcotics and equally as desirable a remedy for the tiniest babe as for rugged manhood. A free trial bottle can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 412 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

He Tried to Make His Fiancee Shoot Him

Arthur Hearn Cowl.

The strange tragedy by which Arthur Hearn Cowl, grandson of the late James A. Hearn, millionaire New York department store owner, met his death has aroused widespread interest. The young man tried to have his fiancee, Miss Emil Wheeler of Bridgeport, Conn., shoot him by pulling a ribbon which he had attached to a revolver concealed beneath his coat. He asked her to take the ribbon and turn her head. She did so and pulled without result. He asked her to pull again and then there was a loud report. The investigators have come to the conclusion that the pull of the ribbon was not strong enough to snap the trigger of the rusty revolver, but that the young man pulled it himself with his finger. Miss Wheeler was hysterical after the tragedy and could not tell much about it. She felt she had caused the death of the young man, and it was said that to relieve her mind of that an inquest would be held to prove otherwise. The young man had been sick for some years, and had recently returned from a trip to Bermuda where he was apparently benefited.
