RULES OF CONTEST

Read Carefully.

1. This contest begins Jan. 13, 1914, and closes March 12, 1914, at 9 p. m.
2. The Anderson Daily Intelligencer will publish from time to time the standing of the contestants.
3. Any Lady mrraied or Single is eligible to enter this contest.
4. The right is retained to alter the rules as occasion may require or settle all questions that may arise.
5. No one who is in way connected with the Anderson Daily Intelligencer can enter the contest.
6. All territory within the corporate limits of Anderson will be known as District No. 1. All territory outside the corporate limits of Anderson will be known as District No. 2.
7. On March 12th, the closing day of this contest a committee of three well known business or professional men of the city not interested in the contest will be appointed to count the votes and award the prizes. This assures every candidate that their interests will be well looked after by local men (the names of the men appointed will appear in the Anderson Intelligencer before the close of the contest.)
8. In case of a tie vote at the end of the contest, the cash value of the prize will be equally divided. No two candidates will be permitted to double up. If you drop out you lose all. Votes are absolutely not transferable.
9. Subscriptions may be taken to start any time.
10. You may take subscriptions from any place in the United States or Canada without increase of the regular subscription rates. Because you are a contestant in District No. 1, or No. 2, you are by no means limited to that district as a field of endeavor.
11. The votes scheduled will remain exactly the same throughout the entire contest. Turn in your subscriptions and we will give a special vote coupon which can be voted at any time before the close of the contest, except that no contestant will be allowed in any one day to vote over 2,000 ahead of the leader of the day before. All ballots over and above must be held in reserve. Starting with the last week of the contest this rule will be withdrawn and the reserve vote can be voted at will.
12. All books and records concerning the contest will be thrown open to the public immediately after the close of the contest. Every one gets a square deal and WE WANT THEM TO KNOW IT.

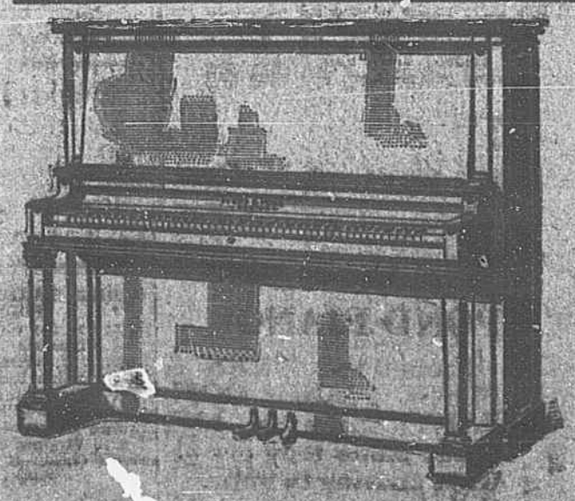
DISTRICT PRIZE



IVERS & POND PIANO

First Prize District No. 2
Value $450.00

These instruments represent the highest standard ever attained in artistic piano building. The most costly materials that the world affords and the most expert labor only are used in their construction. Thus IVERS & POND PIANOS can be depended upon to give the finest effects in tone quality, ease and precesion of action, touch, etc., while in durability and freedom from repair necessities they are unequaled. Requiring each year less than half the number of yearly tunings of the average "ocmmercial" piano their economy for maintenance expenses will strongly appeal to the prudent buyer. These pianos are filled with practical, up-to-date improvements, many oithem patented, to increase the volume and purity of tone quality, to resist the harmful effects of climate changes, etc.

Fully Guaranteed by the makers and by the C. A. Reed Piano & Organ Co. They want you to call and let them tell you all about this piano.

Value $450.00

This instrument is one of the most popular of the Lester styles. The simplicity of its design is highly artistic and has found favor with those who do not desire a carved case. The mouldings, bases of pilasters and the double trusses are solid Mahogany or hard Indiana white quartered Oak; the pilasters are beautifully vineered to match the case. The veneering inside and out, is of the finest nature figured Mahogany or Oak, double and cross-banded. The panels across the back, top and bottom are veneered in Mahogany or Oak, and the massive hardwood posts, in their natural color, are varnished. This piano is a full-sized Upright Grand, 4 feet 10 inches high, 5 feet 5 inches wide, and 2 feet 3 inches deep. veneered noo(laC htoht ra do llunn
