Having a Most Thorough, Competent and Experienced Purchaser CONTINUALLY IN THE NORTHERN MARKETS, WHO DEVOTES HIS ENTIRE LABORS TO THE SELECTION OF OUR SUPPLIES

PURCHASING EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH!

and attending all Leading, and Auction Sales, where Bargains are to be found, we can confidently assure the public a saving of at least

TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT.

This is perfectly reasonable, and compatible with common sense and all MERCANTILE EXPERIENCE. If the public will simply bear in mind a few of the leading facilities which we have of obtaining GOODS, and the principal points by which our Business is governed:—in the first place, we make no Bad Debts, as our business

IS STRICTLY CASH!

and consequently have not to make up such losses on Good Cash Paying Customers. Secondly, recollect the great leading fact of keeping Money always Turning Over; we remit to our purchaser, and receive from him

WEEKLY SUPPLIES,

therefore turning our money over at least twenty-five times a year,

REALIZING MORE

AT THE END OF THE SEASON, EVEN AT THE

Small Profits of Five Per Cent.,

than if we were to make fifty per cent., on a stock purchassd twice a year, besides the losses incurred from having to buy so largely at one time, incurring the risk of Changing Styles, &c. THEN THE GREAT ADVANTAGE of having a thorough Judge continually in market, who is always posted to a shade, in the rise or fall of DRY GOODS. If these few plain truths are properly weighed, it will be readily perceived the great advantage in purchasing from such fresh supplies, at
