MILITIA EXHIBIT ACTIVE INTEREST

OFFICERS AND MEN STUDY THEIR DUTIES CLOSELY

NEW SCHOOL OPENS

Noncommissioned Officers Receive Instruction in Military Science —Visit Styx Camp

While the immediate probability of the State militia being called out for active service has greatly lessened, realization of the need of constant preparedness has awakened latent interest and the different organizations have been extremely active during the past month. Schools for the instruction of both officers and men have been opened and the attendance has shown the intense interest of all in preparation for any emergency.

A non-commissioned officer's school for the four Columbia companies has been established to meet weekly, and the school for officers that has been going on for the past six months has been especially active. A day has been spent at the camp at Styx, where practical instruction was given in making sketches, estimating distances, etc., and also other information necessary to be known by the officers when on active duty.

Those organizations lacking the proper number of officers have filled most of the vacancies and the following commissions have recently been issued: Lieutenant G. E. Sligh, Company K, Second Infantry; captain B. P. Smith, Company I, First Infantry; lieutenant A. H. Hayden, medical corps; captain [illegible], Company [illegible], Third Infantry; captain S. S. Olson, Company E, Second infantry; captain Daniel Miller, quartermaster corps.

A number of newly elected officers are now up for examination.

The requirements of the war department for the acceptance of companies and other organizations being based on a strength of 58 men, the companies have been quietly recruiting to this number, and as they still have to recruit to war strength of 150 men after being accepted, opportunity has been given to others that may desire to do so to receive instruction at this time instead of having to wait until they have become regular members of the companies. The minimum peace strength of the companies allowed is 58 men.

Under date of April 25, the war department sent out a circular letter to the different states calling attention to the new requirements of organizations if called into service, and the instructions have been sent out to the various officers. The chief changes affecting the militia are: The increase of war strength company from 105 men to 150 men, the establishment of three extra organizations to be known as "headquarters company" composed of the band, the non-commissioned staff and the mounted orderly section of 20 men, the "machine gun company," composed of 48 men detailed from the companies and "the supply company" composed of 32 men who were also detailed for this organization. The number of wagons and teams have been slightly increased, and with the new war strength the total for a regiment would be 72 wagons, 1,860 men and 56 officers.

It has been [illegible] that an effort would be made in Columbia [illegible] department to call for a provisional regiment from the militia, but the high military officers point out that such a procedure would not be in accordance with the past efforts of the government to encourage unit organization and mutual cooperation between officers of the same regiments and also would not be in accord with the spirit of the volunteer army bill which provides for the acceptance of an entire regiment, which, three fourths of the enlisted personnel volunteer, and such an action by the war department would absolutely discourage not only the higher officers who are working to establish an increased war force, but would not be acceptable to the men composing the regiments which have selected the officers they want as the commanding officers.

BARN BURNED

Townville, May 15.—The barn of Mr. Simon Holcomb was destroyed by fire today at noon. It was a total loss to Mr. Holcomb as the workers at dinner when the fire was discovered the roof was about to fall in. The origin of the fire is not known and as no one had been about the barn since early in the morning it is supposed it was caused from rats. There was a narrow escape for both the house of Mr. Holcomb and his mother's also. The wind was blowing hard at the time the fire was at its height and it blew in the opposite direction, thus preventing the spread of the flames.

COURT ADJOURNED FOR SATURDAY AFTERNOON

NO SESSIONS WERE HELD BY CRIMINAL COURT

BOY IS ACQUITTED

Sam Hopkins Acquitted Yesterday Afternoon on Charge of Violating Liquor Laws

No session of the court of general sessions for Anderson county was held yesterday afternoon, Judge Prince declaring that many of the jurors and witnesses had business to attend to at their homes. Notice was given that the court would convene promptly tomorrow morning.

Little business was transacted during the forenoon session of the court. The jury was given the case yesterday morning of Irvin Brown, charged with murder and after a short deliberation returned a verdict of not guilty. Brown is a little negro about 14 years of age and he was charged with the murder of Gladys Simons, a negro girl about 9 years of age. According to the statements offered in regard to the affair the boys and girl were out walking together and when she caught hold of his coat he turned and shot her. The boy swore on the witness stand that he did not know the gun was loaded.

Shortly before the noon hour the case of Sam Hopkins, charged with violating the dispensary laws, went to the jury and in this case a verdict of not guilty was returned.

This completed the day's business and adjournment was had.

VIEWERS WILL SEE THE SWAMP

Rocky River Lands Are To Be Inspected Tomorrow and Drainage Report Made

The board of viewers appointed some time ago to inspect the Rocky River swamp lands and report upon the feasibility of draining same, will go to Rocky River Tuesday morning to look at the land and in a few days will file their report with Clerk of Court Pearman. The board is composed of Oliver Bolt, George W. Laboon and W. A. Sanders. Mr. Sanders is already familiar with the entire proposition, having made a survey of all the land and he says that the proposition is not only feasible but that it should have been done long ago.

This board of viewers will make report to Mr. Pearman and if they say that the land can be drained and reclaimed for agricultural purposes Mr. Pearman will order that a drainage district be formed and bonds voted for doing the work, whereupon the undertaking will be begun. On the other hand, should the viewers make an unfavorable report the entire proposition will be dropped.

This will mean a great step for Anderson county and will mean thousands and thousands of dollars to Anderson farmers if the drainage work is undertaken and there is little doubt but that it will be. It is expected that the viewers will file their report with Mr. Pearman before the end of the week.

TOMMIE STOUCH COMING MONDAY

Veteran Leaguer Will Visit Anderson Tomorrow in Effort To Organize the League

Tommie Stouch of Greenville, one of the veteran baseball managers of this section and known all over the state will come to Anderson sometime tomorrow and endeavor to awaken some interest here in the proposed four-club amateur organization, according to a statement made by him last night. Mr. Stouch was invited to come over and it is understood that he agreed at once, saying that he was willing to do anything possible to get the league on foot.

Whether or not the amateur league can be organized and successfully conducted remains to be seen. There is some interest in Anderson but whether or not this interest will stand up under an application for some cash subscriptions is doubtful.

It is said that both Spartanburg and Greenville have looked upon the proposition with favor, while Greenwood already has a team in the field and ready to play ball.

When Mr. Stouch reaches Anderson tomorrow it will be squarely up to the fans to say whether or not they want baseball here and are willing to pay for it. If the league can once get a good start it is probable that it will be made a paying proposition.

COOPER WOULD ENFORCE LAW AGAINST RACING

Candidate for Governor States His Position on Race Track Gambling In Charleston.

Greenwood Journal.

Solicitor R. A. Cooper, candidate for governor in the primaries this summer, will enforce the law against race track gambling if elected. Answering a letter from the editor of The Daily Journal, Mr. Cooper writes as follows:

"I have your favor of the 11th inst., in which you ask: 'Would you object to telling me how you stand on the accursed race track gambling in Charleston?' In reply, I beg to say that if I am elected governor, as the law stands, I would not permit the races to go on if I had to order out the entire militia to prevent it. I would enforce the law, as I think all other laws should be enforced. I expect to give you a statement in a few days in which I will make this and other matters clear.

"Yours very truly, R. A. Cooper."

COLLEGE DEBATE HERE TOMORROW EVENING

FURMAN-WOFFORD CONTEST FOR HONORS AT THE COLLEGE

Interesting Question to Be Argued By Two of State's Foremost Institutions

The event of the coming week for Anderson will be the debate to take place tomorrow night in the Anderson college auditorium when speakers representing Furman University of Greenville and Wofford college of Spartanburg will hold an intercollegiate debate. The speakers are said to be four of the ablest among all the student bodies of the state and college auditorium will be packed tomorrow night to accomodate the tremendous crowd.

Anderson people have not yet been advised as to who will represent Wofford in the debate but W. F. Cox, Jr., and J. H. Simpson will be the Furman speakers. Mr. Cox is an Anderson boy, a son of Judge Cox, and he will have the support of the local people. They expect him to make a brilliant showing and he is said to be an excellent speaker, using forceful logic and presenting convincing facts. The other speaker for Furman, Mr. Simpson, is a Laurens boy, and is related to several Anderson county people.

The subject for the debate will be, Resolved: That the Labor Unions of the United States are Justified in Demanding Closed Shops, and the affirmative will be represented by Furman while Wofford will have the negative side of the question.

The judges for the affair have not yet been appointed but with that exception all plans are made and everything is ready for the event to start tomorrow evening, promptly at 8:30 o'clock in the college auditorium.

BRISSEY NOT TO MAKE THE RACE

Has Decided That He Cannot Listen to Appeal From Many Friends and Will Not Run

W. L. Brissey, has been mentioned on every side and among all classes as a candidate for Mayor of Anderson, announced yesterday that he would not make the race. Mr. Brissey has had the matter under consideration for some time, and while everyone realized that it would require a great business sacrifice on his part for him to make the race, almost all the voters believed that he would be in the running. Mr. Brissey has many friends and his announcement yesterday that he would not run occasioned a good deal of disappointment.

The only political announcement made in the city during the day was by Keys Gilmer to the effect that he would be a candidate to succeed himself as alderman from ward four. Mr. Gilmer was seated at the last meeting of council.

Announcement is made that the gymnasium department of the University of Pittsburgh under special course in its education for the summer term which opens next month. The University of Pittsburgh and the University of Pennsylvania are almost the only universities in the country which hold summer sessions. Courses out of doors, such as baseball, soccer football, running, jumping, sprint, tennis and handling in the open.

This from Chicago: Speaking of team who is not a finished player by any means but a brilliant in team work, Fred Starke is not in favor of the men who are forever loafing behind the bat and on the bases. He says that should stay in one place. Evidently, says Clarke, "He's just like anything else, you are rotten enough, and then need to stay in one position all the time to develop in all the branches."

Manager Dunn of the Baltimore International has disposed of two of his players, William Morrison, last year in the Helena, Ohio, Carolina League and Frank Jordan to the Wilmington, Del., Tri-State League Club.
