OUR EXCHANGE LIST.

THE GALAXY, published by Sheldon Bros., New York, is one of the most readable of the northern magazines, and is elegantly printed. It contains more matter than any other of like price, and of good character. The December number already received. Price $4 per annum.

BEECHER'S MAGAZINE, an illustrated dollar monthly, is received for November, and gives a variety of very interesting articles. It is altogether quite up to the mark in original and progressive matter. For subscription send J. A. Beecher, Trenton, N. J., letter with $1 enclosed.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA, for December, is sparkling as ever. Provident fathers and mothers, who wish to cultivate the mental appetites of their children and provide for their amusement, will find a rich feast for boys and girls in each successive issue of Young America. The December number, besides its usual array of entertaining stories engravings, puzzles, music, poems, etc., has a complete suit of a full-size pattern for a doll. Extraordinary premiums are offered to each subscriber, one of which is a fine $5 chromo; or, for two subscriptions, a fine $10 chromo, and splendid premiums for clubs. Yearly, $1 50. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, New York.

The December No. of Demorest's Monthly Magazine, besides giving the words and music of Mdlle. Nilsson's favorite song (Spring and Autumn), and the usual display of the only reliable fashions, useful information, and other rare novelties, gives Mme Demorest's Mammoth Bulletin Plate of Fashions, price 50 cents, as a supplement, all for 25 cents, post free. The premiums offered by this model Magazine for yearly subscriber are unparalleled. A $5 chromo, equal in beauty to a fine oil-painting, size 10x13, is given to each subscriber; while for a club of two, or a two years' subscription, is given the best $15 chromo, "Hiawatha's Wooing," after Jerome Thompson, being $18 in value for only $6 in money, with other splendid premiums equally desirable. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 838 Broadway, New York.

The November number of Brainard's Musical Monthly is on our table, filled as usual with valuable and interesting musical literature, consisting of Sketches, Stories, Hints, Suggestions, News, Gossip, and Intelligence from all parts of the world. The present number also contains the following choice new music, the cost of which in sheet form would be $1 10: "Peaceful Dreams," a beautiful piano piece by Karl Metz; "We'd better bide a wee," an exquisite Scotch song by Claribel; "O'er set the Church bell ringing," song, by Dolores, and "Memory's Refrain," a 7-8 quartette by F. H. Pease. The publishers offer the November and December numbers free to all subscribing this month. Terms, $1,00 per year; specimen copies, ten cents. Address S. Brainard & Sons, Publishers, Cleveland, Ohio.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR DECEMBER — The first in the field for December is Ballou's Magazine, and an examination of it shows that it is a model number in every respect. The engravings are excellent, the descriptions ingenious and eloquent, while the stories are remarkable for their interest and great originality. Mrs. Edson finishes her continued story, and Horatio Alger, Jr., concludes his "Sink or Swim" in a satisfactory manner, as the juveniles will learn when they read it. Macy has furnished a sea story in his own peculiar vein. Stephens gives us "An Evening with a Catamount." Darling tells us "Why our Wedding was Postponed," in his most comical manner, and then there is a Christmas story, full of humanity and goodness, and three or four love stories which will bear perusal half a dozen times, and "Lost and Found" is a regular California tale, by a new aspirant for fame in the columns of Ballou. In addition to this there are many articles worth reading, in the shape of sketches, poetry, etc., etc., and all for the sum of 15 cents per copy, or $1 50 per year. The December number closes Vol. 32. The New Year will commence with many rare novelties, so don't delay in making up your clubs or purchasing at the periodical depots. Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress street, Boston, are the publishers.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR DECEMBER.—We have heard enthusiastic readers declare that this holiday number was the best that has ever been issued, and when we look at the varied and superb embellishments and the captivating stories, we are inclined to think it is so. The steel-plate, "Olive Plants," is a pretty domestic scene; the beautiful frontispiece, "Sorrow Under the Sun," is a romance in itself—such a world of expression is in the face of the girl leaning from the window-sill; the colored Pattern for a Slipper" furnishes just the design for a holiday present; and the colored Fashion Plate, as usual, is unsurpassed. Nothing of the kind can compare with this in all a fashion plate should be. We like the wood-cut—"An Idyl on the Ice," and the patterns for dresses, winter wraps, &c., are uncommonly elegant. The music is "Alone and from Home." The literary matter, in prose and poetry, places this magazine at the head of its class, and the editorial department, with many readers, is the special attraction. Great inducements are offered to new subscribers. All new subscribers for 1871, who subscribe by the first of January, shall receive the December number free—making Thirteen Months in all! Price $2 50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). Four copies, $6. Five copies (and one gratis), $8. "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post" (and one engraving), $4.00. Published by Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia. Sample copies sent gratis.

IMPOSSIBLE TO CHOKE.

IN THIS PLOW THE FARMERS HAVE THREE INVALUABLE IMPLEMENTS AT THE PRICE OF ONE PLOW, ROW OPENER AND COULTER.

What Mr. Stringfellow, of Chester, S. C., writes:

I bought the first Monitor Plow that came in this section, and cannot now do without them.

What Mr. Ellis, of Griffin, Geo., says:

MESSRS. PALMER & TURPIN.—I received through Mr. Rev. P. Johnson, of Griffin, one of your Monitor Plows, which I regard as a decided improvement over any Plow I have ever seen or used, and I regard it as most admirably adapted to the Cultivation of the soil of the South, and most cordially recommend them to the Southern Premier, as the best and cheapest plow yet offered them.

JAMES T. ELLIS.

What Mr. Rabb, of Winnsboro', S. C. says:

MESSRS. PALMER & TURPIN:

I have already spoken in favorable terms of your Monitor Plow, but I must be permitted again to express my high appreciation of its merits. I tried it a few days since on a very tough, clammy lot, which I was apprehensive I could not plow, and to my surprise it did what no other Plow could have done, going into it and tearing it up far beyond my expectations. ## Attend to Your Children's Teeth

We are so often called on to extract the first Molars or Jaw Teeth for children, and to regulate or strengthen the front teeth, which become crooked from neglect, that we think it advisable to call the attention of parents to the subject; so that the back teeth may be filled and the front teeth pushed while children are cutting their second set, so as to prevent their coming irregular. Children shed, or lose but ten teeth from the upper jaw, and ten from the lower jaw, and the Molars, or jaw teeth, which they cut back of these belong to their adult or grown set. Many persons say they were not aware of this fact. Now notice and act accordingly. Charges very moderate. Terms Cash. R. S. WHALEY,

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends; and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sick
