JEFFORDS RESENTENCED.

To Be Electrocuted at State Penitentiary December 22.

Columbia, Nov. 27.—F. M. Jeffords, convicted of the murder last spring of J. C. Arnette, his partner in a gasoline filling station, today was sentenced in Criminal Court here to be electrocuted at the State penitentiary on December 22. A motion by counsel for Jeffords, whose conviction recently was affirmed by the Supreme Court for a further stay of execution, was denied a few minutes before sentence was passed.

Ira Harrison, also under death sentence for the murder of Arnette, was not brought into court today, his attorneys having secured a stay of execution from the Supreme Court pending further appeal, following affirming of the sentence. Glenn Treece, the third of the alleged slayers of Arnette, is serving a life sentence in the penitentiary.

Fifty thousand dollars for a single strawberry plant was paid Tuesday by Frank E. Beatty, president of the R. E. Kellogg company, fruit growers, at Three Rivers, Michigan. The plant is to be known as the "Rock Hill" in honor of its breeder, Harlow Rockhill, of Conrad, Iowa. The plant bears in early summer and begins again in the late summer, bearing continuously until frost comes. "We are paying the price not from the idea of making a profit, but as an incentive to growers and breeders of plants to develop new varieties," said Mr. Beatty.
