Edgefield Advertiser

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

J. A. Timmerman and L. E. Jackson have just received a car load of corn each for sale to farmers.

B. F. Glanton the old war horse of the west side was in town on Monday of this week, the first time in ten months.

An Epworth League society has been organized in our Methodist church, for the benefit of the young people.

Col. Pope Hagood was in town on Saturday. The Colonel still buys his unbleached goods from the Edgefield Cotton Factory.

Ice will be cheap this summer from all indications. It is presumed our popular ice dealer, Mr. M. A. Taylor, has already put in his orders for numberless car loads.

Mrs. Benj. Crooker of our town has removed to Due West, Abbeville county, where she will permanently reside. She will be greatly missed by her relatives and friends.

Rev. G. G Mayes leaves on town on Thursday to attend the meeting of Presbytery which meets at Mt. Lebanon church in Abbeville county on April 7th instant.

By common consent all our village churches were closed on Sunday night last and their respective congregations went to hear the gifted Dr. Thornwell at the Presbyterian church.

Ship your hides, furs, wool, cotton, &c., to Crawford & Co. 510 and 512 Reynolds St. Augusta Ga., if you wish the best prices. This firm also buys old metal of all kinds. Write to them for prices.

The weather continues so unfavorable that it don't seem possible to make a big crop of cotton in Edgefield county this year. Many farmers have not yet run a furrow, and very few, if any, are up with their preparations for planting either cotton or corn.

Miss Lula Lake of Johnston has been visiting friends in town. She will attend the Reunion of Confederate Veterans which meets in Charleston in May, as Maid of Honor for South Carolina. Miss Mamie Carwile also goes as Sponsor for this State.

[illegible] egg hunt in the old Academy [illegible] on Monday. President Bailey, Miss Sudie Davis, and Miss Em Williams of the Faculty were with the little ones and seemed to enjoy it as much as they did.

Col. Jim Tillman is to apply for bail for the persons charged with shooting the two negro boys to death in our town some days since. This application, we understand, will be held before Judge Watts. LATER -Bail has been granted in the sum of $1,500 each to the five persons charged as aforesaid.

The Augusta merchants have decided to give a Merry Makers' Week, to begin May 15th. The railroads have promised low rates to visitors, and street shows, fire works, and other attractions have been arranged for, and will doubtless draw large crowds of country folk upon pleasure bent.

We call attention to Mr. L. E. Jackson's advertisement in this issue of the ADVERTISER. Mr. Jackson's card is full of good things in the eating line, his fancy groceries are especially good things, and he deserves in this line, and is receiving, a generous patronage. You don't have to go to Charleston or Augusta for tid-bits and delicacies, call on L. E. Jackson.

Dr. Rushton's speech in presenting the portrait of Dr. Henry Campbell Doughty to the Medical college, attracted much complimentary comment. A lady of discriminating judgment and literary attainments, declared: "That man is a born orator."—Augusta Chronicle.

We wonder if that Dr. Rushton is not an Edgefield Rushton. We are all born orators when we are not born editors.

Baptist Executive Board.

The members of the Executive Board of the Edgefield Baptist Association, are earnestly requested to meet in the Baptist church, at Edgefield, at 10 A. M., on Thursday, the 13th day of the present month.

Brethren L. R. Gwaltney, J. P. Mealing, P. P. Blalock, J. C. Morgan, and R. E. Broadwater constitute said board. A full and prompt attendance is very important.

O. SHEPPARD, Chairman.

J. Willie Levy.

This is a new clothing establishment in Augusta, Ga., at 844 Broad street, right in the heart of the city, the centre of business and trade. J. Willie Levy is a son of the late I. C. Levy, and is a veritable chip of the old block, a courteous and high toned gentleman His clothing is up-to-date and offered at the most reasonable figures, considering the quality and style, which are strictly first class. He has men's and boys suits to suit all tastes, and all purses, plethoric or flabby. Don't forget J. Willie Levy, 844 Broad street.

Up-to-date Chattel Mortgages. Liens Titles to Real Estate, etc., for sale at this office. Do not ask us for "Billy Sales," we do not keep them now. They are no good, having been relegated to the limbo of the dusty and musty past, or rather to the "LIMBUS FATUORUM"—paradise of fools.

Resolutions of Censure.

At a meeting of the citizens of Elmwood township, the following preamble and resolutions was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, On the night of January 3rd, last, Edmond Weaver, Allen Jones and Abner Harris did wantonly, and feloniously break into and rob the store and Post Office kept by our fellow citizen Mr. Jas. T. Ouzts Jr.

Whereas, These aforesaid parties, after having been duly apprehended, tried, and convicted of the crime of burglary and larceny at the recent term of court held at Edgefield Court House; and they having been sentenced by Judge Watts to three years imprisonment at hard labor on the chain gang; after having had a fair impartial trial before a jury composed of twelve (12) worthy, representative citizens, (the overwhelming preponderance of the evidence unmistakably proving their guilt,) and

Whereas, Pending a motion for a new trial besore the Supreme Court on the flimsy pretext that some of the panel of jurors were constitutionally disqualified; and while under sentence, they; Abner Harris and Allen Jones, have by some "Hocuspocus," technicality, or subterfuge been bailed, and taken from the custody of the Sheriff, and turned aloose on our community to perhaps recommit their nefarious and infamous crimes, in utter disregard and defiance of the wishes, interest, and wellfare of the law abiding good citizens of Elmwood township, who at no small sacrifice of time and trouble, have caused these guilty parties to be apprehended and brought to the bar of justice, and there convicted of this flagrant outrage. Therefore, be it

Resolved, by the citizens of Elmwood towdship, in mass meeting assembled, that we enter our solemn and indignant protest against this palpapable subversion of the law, and the ends of justice having been circumvented resultant from the course of the bondsmen of Abner and Allen Jones, which virtually nullifies the verdict of the jury, the sentence of the court, as well as the will of the people.

We, therefore deem it our imperative duty as good law abiding citizens anxious to stamp out robbery and all other forms of crime, determined to preserve and uphold law and order in this community, and protect our homes and property against the midnight marauder at all hazards. We, therefore declare and desire to put on record our emphatic disapproval and condemnation of these aforesaid bondsmen, which we regard as a blow, at, and extremely detrimental to the good order, safely, and welfare of our people, and calculated to encourage dishonesty amoug the colored race, as well as to paralyze the strong arm of the law in meting out justice and punishment to guilty culprits. And we further more call the attention of these bondsmen to the fact: that, our county has already incured a heavy expense in trying this case which will be doubled if a new trial is granted; thus entailing a hardship upon our taxpay- [illegible] of prisoners [illegible]

We, desire to say in conclusion that the thanks of the citizens of Elmwood township are due, and hereby tendered to Solicitor Thurmond, and Hon. S. McG. Simkins for the satisfactory, able, and vigorous manner with which they conducted the prosecution of this case. And also be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to their boundsmen, and also sent to each of the county papers for publication.
