UNCLE DAVE'S LETTER.

Our country is known throughout the world as a Christian Nation, for the majority of our people are followers or professed followers of Christ. If there is one thing that our Lord teaches most explicitly, and with tremendous power, it is that we should not resist evil with evil or fight hate with hate or wrong with wrong.

He tells us, without any ifs or buts, that while it was held in the old time to be proper to love your neighbor and hate your enemy, those who take Him for their teacher must love their enemies. This, I say, is the plain teaching of Christ. Strange as it may seem to us, Christendom has not as yet embraced these teachings of the Master. During her entire history she has been at liberty to hate Jew, Moor and heretic, and her march down the ages has been specially marked with bloodshed. In name, accepting the teaching of Jesus; in fact, finding all sorts of excuses, or reasons for evading that authority.

In view of these facts, it is no wonder our president hesitated to declare war with Mexico. This neighboring republic is afflicted with internal strife; is poor in numbers and productive industries; lacking in widespread knowledge and public institutions, the possession of which makes our country one of the greatest of nations.

We must remember that among the nations Mexico has failed to make good.

It was colonized a country before our Republic by the noblest spirits of Spain in her Augustan age, and possesses all the advantages of climate, soil and production enjoyed by our country; yet, side by side, these two nations have moved down the stream of time the one cursed with poverty, ignorance and superstition, led by bandits fighting among themselves for leadership, while the other ranks with the world's greatest powers.

We cannot afford to urge war with Mexico, because a self-constituted bandit has insulted our flag. I depreciate with all the power of my soul the spirit manifested in the cry, "Remember the insult to our flag."

The real sufferers in Mexico have nothing to do with the insult to our flag. The great trouble with this rough and brutal method called war is that the right people rarely get killed. Though the Mexicans may be misguided and fighting against the best interests of their country, yet they may be in a condition to call out not righteous anger on our part, but rather tenderest pity and care. Since we cannot win glory in the more fact of whipping so small and weak an enemy, let us win higher glory that comes from a noble and humane spirit in the conflict, not only for the welfare of America, but for the higher and nobler welfare of Mexico.

We must show to all the world that this great nation with one hundred million people and unbounded resources is not seeking revenge, nor Mexican possessions, but that we have entered this conflict to preserve the lives and property of our own people and those of other nations who settle in Mexico, and to establish the principles of right, truth and justice for all through the coming years.

It is the narrow man who makes all our trouble. It is this narrowness which is creeping into our religious life, making us fanatcs. It is this element that makes the crank.

Too many modern preachers know men better than they know God. Some few may know God better than they know men.

Knowledge of both is essential to the highest success.

Too many of us see the world only through a narrow slit.

Many of us can get down on our knees and look through the keyhole with both eyes wide open. The world needs to-day broad minded men and women.

We need today patriots who, by wise legislation and the enforcement of just law shall protect our youth from greedy vice, our commerce from selfish monopoly and our courts from partialities and bribes.

The man leaning on a hoe makes a good picture, but he ain't much account in the cotton patch.

You can never tell how good a man is by the way his dog loves him, nor by the way his wife brags on him in company.

Tal Phillips says that his garden spot always looks the best to him, when the ground is dry and hard, so that there is no excuse for his wife to expect him to work it.

Oh! this world is very funny,
For no matter how much money
Man is making he will spend it,
And be hard up all the time.
It is worry, fret and borrow,
Trust today and pay tomorrow,
And he makes his life a burden
When it should be bliss sublime.

It was Henry Ward Beecher who said "a weed is only a vegetable for which we have not yet found a use."

Some folks never make up their minds; they just use them in a tumbled up condition all the time.

This is a busy season for the farmers. But, my friend, you will be a loser, and probably a rather heavy loser, if you keep so everlastingly busy that you fail to take time to read this paper through every day.

Sometimes when a man puts his hand on your shoulder, it is a signal for you to put your hand on your pocketbook.

PENDLETON NOTES

Pendleton, June 12.—Tuesday afternoon Mrs. B. H. Sadler and Miss Lizzie Stribling delightfully entertained in honor of Miss Bessie Hunter, one of the brides elect. The guest were received by Mrs. Sadler and Miss Stribling and ushered to the punch bowl where Misses Brown, and Eskew gracefully served. The sparcious and well shaded pizzas were used for this entertainment. In the dining room Misses Louise and Pauline Hunter, and Thelma Whitner served a most delightful salad course, followed by sweets. On leaving the dining room dainty and suggestive souvenirs were pinned on by Misses Katherine Campbell and Willie Robinson. After refreshments the guest were asked to the "Halls of Mystery" where the bride would untangle the spider web, at the end she found a huge basket filled with handsome presents.

Those who attended Mrs. Sadlers and Miss Striblings entertainment from a distance were, Misses Isabel, Lila Stribling, Brown and Nelson, from Anderson.

Miss Dorothy Russell who has been in college at BessieQlift is visiting her friends here, enroute to Clinton, where she will go for the summer.

Mrs. L. A. Sitton is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Sitton at Anteon.

Miss Bessie Hunter was again the guest of honor, when on Thursday afternoon Mrs. E. N. Sutton entertained the Fortnightly Club at her beautiful home. Mrs. Sitton was assisted in entertaining by Misses McPhail, Russell and Mrs. L. A. Sitton.

Miss Irene Brown served punch throughout the afternoon. After Showering the bride the guest were invited into the dining room where an elaborate salad course was served. The unique center piece attracted much attention being a splendid imitation of a bride constructed of kitchen utensils.

Miss Sitton has a her house guest Miss Irene Brown of Grimes, Miss Dorothy Russell and Miss McPhail.

Prof. and Mrs. R. C. Sharp and son Harold of Reinhardt College, Mrs. W. T. Sherad, and Mr. H. F. Sharp of Rome, Ga., have been the guest of their uncle Dr. Sharp for the past week.

Prof. and Mrs. Adams of Rome, Ga., are visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Adams. For a number of years Prof. Adams has been principal of the Berry school at Rome.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Miss Louise Sloan to Mr. Bonneau Harris, Jr., to take place the 24th. this month.

J. J. Sitton, Jr., John Prescott, Marion Saith and John Russell who have been in School at Clemson are at home for the holidays.

Miss Grace Randall of Sumter is the guest of Miss Bessie Hunter.

VACATION WITHOUT PAY

St. Louis, June 11.—The employees and officers from office boy to president of the St. Louis, Southwestern Railway (Cotton Belt) with the exception of the employes of the transportation and mechanical departments, will be forced to take a three days vacation without pay during the month of June. This is due, Vice President Nelson announced today, to poor business. Conservative estimates figure the saving to the road at $12,000 during the month. The three day furlough was decided on as a better procedure than to cut down the number of employes.

TWO ANSWERED THE LAST CALL

Mrs. Barton Died in Hartwell, Ga., and Mrs. Bonds Succumbs In Anderson County Hospital

(From Fridays Daily.)

Anderson was saddened yesterday by the news of two deaths, both of which occurred yesterday morning.

A telegram was received here telling of the death of Mrs. D. J. Barton, which occurred at her home in Hartwell, Ga. Mrs. Barton was the wife of Dr. D. Barton and before her marriage was Miss Rosa Platt of the Level Land section. Her mother still lives in that section and Mrs. D. N. Wyatt and Miss Myrtle Barton, other relatives, live in Anderson. Mrs. Barton is survived by her husband and two sons, Max, four years of age and a three-weeks old baby. The interment is to take place this morning at 10 o'clock in Hartwell.

Mrs. Boozer Bonds died early yesterday in the Anderson County hospital following an operation. Mrs. Bonds was brought from her home at Lowndesville several days ago and the operation performed, from which she failed to recover. She is survived by her husband and several children. The body was taken to Lowndesville on the 3:35 train for interment in the Lowndesville cemetery.

SCOUTS TO RUN.

Letter to be Carried from Charlotte to Rock Hill.

Fort Mill, June 12.—C. W. Blakey, secretary of the Rock Hill Y. M. C. A. is in Fort Mill today making preliminary arrangements for a relay foot race from Charlotte, N. C., to Rock Hill on July 4th, in which the Boy Scouts of Charlotte, Rock Hill and Fort Mill will be required to carry a letter by relays of one-quarter mile each from the mayor of Charlotte to the mayor of Rock Hill. The distance to be covered is about 37 miles, hence about 108 boys will be required to make the run. Assistant Scoutmaster F. Murray Mack is heartily in favor of the project and will doubtless take care of the Fort Mill end of the project without trouble.

SINBAD WRITES

(By W. P. Beard.)

Politics is moving some—at least that is what I gather in traveling through the fourth district at this particular time.

Over here they have three candidates for congress. The encumbent, Jos. T. Johnstone, Thos. C. Duncan and Sam J. Nicholls. All are men of ability and of some prominence and each has a good following of strong friends scattered throughout the four counties who will do Trojan work for their favorite this summer. Beach one is on good terms with the governor, though Mr. Nicholls is called "the Blease candidate" and six weeks ago he seemed to have a walk-over, but the kaldeoscopic changes in the gubernatorial race, is actually felt in the congressional race.

It now looks like Johnstone will be in the second race with either Duncan or Nicholls, and if Duncan, so say many politicians, the next congressman will be Duncan. In case it is Nicholls and Johnstone the prophets say Duncan's freinds will go to Johnstone, expecting to beat him next time. In case Duncan goes in the second race with either, it is thought that the friends of either of the other two would support Duncan.

Clinzcales at Spartanburg, Browning at Union and Cooper and Irby at Laurens all running for governor adds further to the complication.

They say that many of Mr. Irby's friends are talking out in meeting just now about Blease candidates calling to the friends of the opposing candidates and think that Mr. Nicholls friends should support Mr. Irby for governor openly, if they expect Irby's friends to support Nicholls, Irby being the only Blease candidate for governor in this district. On the other hand the friends of Messrs Cooper, Clinkscales and Browning are saying that Sam Nicholls must stay hands off in the gubernatorial race if he expects to get to congress.

To further complicate matters, many strong Blease men are supporting all three anti-Blease men for governor on personal grounds and Messrs Johnstone and Duncan both have ardent supporters in the Blease ranks, while some influential anti-Blease men are supporting Nicholls. They say Mendel Smith is being supported by a great many Blease men also, especially in Union county, and the double and twisted, double-back-action and easily reversible John G. Richards, has made some alliances among the Bleasites up this way that will surely bring down the wrath of the Irby clansmen upon both Richards and Nicholls in the second primary, according to local politicians, who seem to understand the situation that while John Cannon was alive he held things together, but there is no one to take his place and we are splitting up now in Many Bleasites say that John Cannon's death will lose Governor Blease 200 or 300 votes in Laurens county. I don't know but that is what I hear over this way, and frankly I hope they are all wrong. There is strong talk in Greenville of B. A. Morgan entering the senatorial race. I heard last fall that "a strong Greenville lawyer" would run for the senate and published it in the Columbia Record, but did not have his name. It seems now that Mr. Morgan is the man that intends to enter. In that case W. P. Pollock of Cheraw will certainly enter also, and with four good speakers in the senatorial race it becomes more doubtful than ever as to the issue.

There is no doubt but that Senator Smith will take some of the former vote from Governor Blease while the Governor will make that up from a town vote that loves Smith less than they do Blease.

Mr. Morgan's freinds think that he can get enough of the element not satisfied with either Blease or Smith to put him in the second race with one of the two, in which event the followers of either would elect him. Mr. Pollock is depending on that also.

They both may be right or they both may be wrong, but anyway it is certain that if either or both of these neutral candidates enter, it will make a second race between two of them.

Everybody over this way is waiting to see what "Ben Tillman will say next," and by the way, anybody who discounts Ben Tillman's influence is due to receive a shock. The old man is a pretty lively corpse and is a very strong factor in politics yet. It is being told that Richards had his consent to form an alliance with Blease, so Blease could help Richards and Tillman help Blease on the quiet. I don't know how much truth there is in it, but I understand that Richards' friends are telling it. It is also reported that Richards made the statement in the caucus in the Governor's office on the first of June that he had written Senator Tillman of his intention to come out for Blease and that he was agreeable to Tillman, and that he gave them to understand that it was alright with Tillman. I don't know, but that is what people are saying. Whether true or not it is news, so I give it for what it is worth. It will perhaps make interesting reading if it is correct.

The Newberry Herald and News, editorially criticising Governor Blease for the Blease rucus at Williamston is attracting unusual attention over the way on account of that paper's application with the governor and people are wondering now whether editorial means a break with Governor or just a [illegible] who sees down some. Some think Mr. [illegible] a good opportunity to "get [illegible] der," while others say that it is only a grand-stand play to show its partial ity now to strengthen their position for more effective work later.

These opinions are incomplete and conflicting, depending largely on how the speakers feel about the course all this talk brings up in Mr. B. H. Avil played in the investigation and many and [illegible] ing are [illegible] drawn.
