To the Sufferers in the Late War.

THE undersigned designs compiling a book of OUTRAGES committed by United States soldiers, during the late war. For this purpose he solicits information from all, with dates and localities, and, when possible, the name and rank of the perpetrator. It is confidently believed we can, with much advantage to ourselves and cause, compare notes with our Northern friends in regard to the merits and conduct of the war.

In this work we promise to abstain from an indulgence in such base and slanderous language and insinuation as may be found on almost every page of Prison Life in the South, The Story of the Great March, &c.

As a member of the press, we ask brother editors to give this notice one or more prominent insertions, with such comments as they may deem proper, and, as a late Confederate soldier, we ask of all, such reliable facts and information as they may possess. Nothing but well authenticated facts are desired.

HEADQUARTERS,
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
CHARLESTON, S. C., June 29, 1866.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 9.

I. The Bvt. Major General Commanding, has noticed with deep regret the disposition, on the part of freedmen in the vicinity of Charleston, and along the coast, to disregard their agreements on plantations, to the neglect of the crops, and to either lay idling about their houses, roam at large over the country, or congregate in Charleston and other towns. This total disregard of all obligations to keep their contracts in good faith, will cause an entire failure of crops in the State, and the result must be destitution and starvation. The increasing amount of theft, drunkenness and vagrancy demands that the most prompt and severe measures be taken by all officers to check the evil.

II. It is ordered that all men or women who leave the plantation on which they are employed to labor, either by the month, for share of the crops, or as renters of land, and thereby neglect their growing crops, be at once arrested as vagrants, and put to work on the public roads, as provided for by Par. XII., G. O., No. 1., Headquarters, Department of South Carolina.

All planters who have freedmen employed on their plantations, who do not, at this important season of the year give their entire time to the growing crops, are authorized if, after reading this Order to them, and they neglect or refuse to obey it, to report them at once to the officer in command of the District, who will cause them to be taken from the plantation as vagrants and put to work on the public roads. Their children, if any, will be bound to such persons as will take care of them, and learn them habits of industry.

III. A prison will be establiished for all persons of color convicted of such crimes as are not punishable by death, on one of the islands, where employment can be furnished, and all convicts will be compelled to labor from sunrise until sunset, under the control of such guards as will insure their safety. Any person convicted of selling spirituous liquors to a freedman without a permit from some officer having control, will be fined in any sum, not less than twenty-five dollars ($25) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for every offence of which he may be convicted.

IV. Commanding officers will have this Order read in the several colored churches in their vicinity, in order that it may become generally understood. By command of Bvt. Maj. Gen. R. K. SCOTT.

H. W. SMITH, Bvt. Lt. Col. and A. A. G.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS.

BEING fully conscious of the impoverished condition of the country, and knowing that many of our best citizens are unable to meet their liabilities, if forced to do so, without an entire sacrifice of everything left them out of the vortex through which they had passed, I desire to make the most liberal arrangements within my power, with all who are indebted to me. I therefore propose, to allow all persons indebted to me, (and disposed to accept the proposition) four years to pay their indebtedness to me, by paying me regularly, in four equal, annual instalments. This arrangement will give ample time, and afford every opportunity to those indebted to me, to make the means necessary for the liquidation of their debts.

All those indebted to me, will find it greatly to their interest, to call and settle with me, as I promise I will not sue any parties who accept of the above proposition, and enter into a settlement on the terms proposed.

SAMUEL BROWN, JR.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the late firm of ENGLAND & BEWLEY prior to the war, are hereby notified that the undersigned has received instructions from his former partner to settle up the business without delay. Knowing the distressed condition of the country at this time, the undersigned is unwilling to press the claims without due and timely notice to those indebted, and takes this method of informing all parties that it is absolutely necessary to make arrangements at once for the liquidation of all Notes and Accounts due the late firm. It is probable that there are small demands against many persons who have forgotten the same, and it is therefore incumbent upon our former customers to investigate the facts, that they may be governed accordingly.

The Books and Notes may be found with the undersigned, who is prepared to make settlements with all who may call upon him. Liberal prices allowed for country produce in liquidation.

W. C. BEWLEY.

P. S.—The widows of soldiers who have fallen in the late war, can settle now at fifty cents in the dollar, and soldiers who lost everything can make liberal settlements by calling at once. W. C. B.
