Council Chamber,

OCTOBER, 3. 1855.

ORDERED, that the Ninth, and Sixteenth, Sections of an Ordinance lately restored, be published in the Camden Journal.

SEC. 9. That the Bars or Stands in Taverns and the doors of each Store where liquor is sold, shall be closed on Sunday, and it shall not be lawful to sell liquors of any description on any part of the premises of said taverns or stores on that day.

SEC. 16. And be it further ordained that no slaves, or persons of color whether bond or free, shall be permitted to assemble or loiter in or about any liquor store, or store where liquor is kept, whether such store is licensed or not, or in and about the door thereof, or be allowed to sit down and remain there any longer than while actually engaged in purchasing such articles as they may be lawfully authorized to procure. Nor, shall any such slave or free person of color be allowed to enter or remain in any inner room or on the premises connected with such store, under a penalty of not more than twenty lashes, to be inflicted by order of the Intendant or any Warden, and the owner or keeper of such store, whether he or she shall have license or not, shall forfeit and pay a sum not less than five, nore more than twenty dollars, in every case where such negroes or free persons of color shall be found assembled in his or her store, or at the door thereof, or shall be found sitting down therein or violating any of the provisions of this section of this Ordinance, contrary to the true intent and meaning thereof; and every such slave or free person of color not having a written permit from his master or guardian, may be taken up and lodged in the guard house, and shall be dealt with in the same manner as slaves or persons of color found out after Bell-ring without a ticket and it shall be lawful for the Intendant or any Warden or Town Marshal, or any of the town Guard to enter in at all times into such liquor stores, and to examine the same and to arrest any slave or free persons of color found therein without a ticket; and if any person shall refuse admittance, resist or oppose assault or insult any such officer while in the execution of any of the duties imposed by this Ordinance, such offender, if a white person, shall forfeit and pay a fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than fifty dollars; and if the offender be a slave or free person of color, he or she shall receive any number of lashes which may be adjudged by the Intendant or any Warden, not exceeding thirty-nine lashes at any one time.
