RECEIPTS AND EXPORTS OF GOLD.—The annual return of the United States Mint shows that the gold deposites of the present year have been $51,059,23 against $48,929,405 for 1851. The export of specie at New-York for the last year is however only $25,066,25 against $43,743,209 for 1851; thus showing the excess of gold left in the country during the year to be $25,963,041, and a total for the two years of $29,139,041, and a total for the two years of $29,139,239.

High Price of Negroes.—We extract the following from the Lancaster Ledger of the 5th inst;

We attended the sale of negroes belonging to the estate of the late S. Beckham, on the 22d of last month, and were somewhat astonished at the high prices paid for negroes.

Negro men brought from eight hundred to a thousand dollars; the greater number at or near the latter price. One, (a blacksmith,) brought $1,435.

At a hiring which took place here on 1st inst., field hands averaged from $110 to $130, and a blacksmith $220 for one year.

A negro woman we had occasion to purchase the other day, cost us $1,000.

We learn from the Winsboro Register that on Monday the 3d inst., a large sale of negroes was made by the Commissioner in Equity for Fairfield district, principally the property of Jacob Gibson, decd. The negroes were only tolerable likely, and averaged about $620 each. The sales were made on credit of 12 months. In one instance a likely field hand sold for the round sum of sixteen hundred and thirty dollars. The purchase, however, were principally made by the distributors of the Estate.

ANOTHER EDITOR GONE!—Mr. A. J. Battle, junior editor of the Caddo Gazette, was married on the 16th inst, to Miss Mary J. Persons. We gather the above facts from a long and mournful notice of the affair in the Southwestern, the editor of which paper says that poor Battle possessed many fine social qualities, which had endeared him to a host of friends. Thus they go. One by one they drop into the sea of matrimony and are heard of no more.—N. Or. Picayune.

INTERESTING TO ADVERTISERS.—A case was decided in the Supreme Court of New-York last week which is of interest to advertisers. The suit was brought by the proprietors of the Courier and Enquirer against Henry Ibbotson, for three hundred dollars for advertising; the jury rendered a verdict for plaintiff of three hundred and eighteen dollars and eighty-nine cents, the amount claimed with interest. It appears that, when the advertisement was taken to the Courier office, there was some misunderstanding respecting the number of insertions. It was, however, put in, headed and displayed, and remained so for one hundred and fifty days, at two dollars for each insertion. The defence set up was chiefly that Mr. Ibbotson's orders in respect to the advertisement were not carried out. However, he took the Courier and Enquirer daily, and, as was presumed by the court, saw the advertisement in question, and should have notified the editor to alter or discontinue it. The court ruled that he should have given this notice, and that have expected to enjoy the benefit of the advertisement without paying for it.

PLEASURES OF THE TROPICS.—A MAN NEARLY BLED TO DEATH BY A VAMPIRE BAT.—"On Wednesday morning last," says the Panama Echo, of the 18th ult., "the barkeeper of the Pavilion Hotel Taboga—not appearing at the usual hour, Capt. McKinney, the proprietor of the house, proceeded to his room to call him, when to his astonishment and horror, he found him insensible and bathed in blood; after the usual restoratives were applied, the barkeeper stated, that on the previous evening, after retiring, he remembered experiencing the most delightful sensations, as of fanning, which soon put him into a deep sleep, and he had no consciousness of the attack made upon him until the morning. The only wounds by the bat, were two small spots on each of the great toes."—Courier.

A REMARKABLE MAN.—A gentleman writing from Monaghan county, Ireland, to an acquaintance of ours in this district, gives a remarkable instance of longevity. Owen Duffy, when one hundred and sixteen years old, lost his second wife; he subsequently married a third, by whom he has a son and daughter. His youngest son is two years old, his eldest ninety. He is now one hundred and twenty-two years of age, and retains in much vigor, the use of his mental and corporeal faculties. He walks frequently to the county town, a distance of some eight miles. This statement may be relied on as strictly true.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Hundreds of our citizens complain of debility and languor of the system, derangement of the liver and stomach, want of appetite, &c.; they are frequently the result of too close application, and a thousand other causes we cannot here name; but we would say to all afflicted, do as we have done—get a bottle or two of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, and our word for it you will be cured. We recommend this medicine, knowing from experience that it is much superior to the generality of patent medicines. We would say to our readers, purchased none unless prepared by Dr. C. M. NOTICE TO THE 44TH Regiment.

AT a Court Martial held for the 44th Regiment South Carolina Militia, on the 24th September last, the following resolutions were adopted, viz:

1st. Resolved, That, in the opinion of this Court, inability to perform military duty can be proved before a Court Martial only by the oath of the party charged with default, or by the testimony of some other competent witness. That a mere certificate, not under oath, whether by the surgeon of the Regiment, or by any other officer, is not such testimony, and cannot be received by a Court Martial in disproof of such charge of default.

2d. Resolved, That the above resolution be submitted to the Colonel for his approval.

PROSPECTUS OF THE

Southern Agriculturist,

A JOURNAL OF RURAL AFFAIRS, MECHANICS, MANUFACTURE, POMOLOGY AND HORTICULTURE.

EDITED BY A. G. SUMMER.

WM. SUMMER, Horticulture and Pomological Editor.

The subscriber will publish at Laurensville, S. C., on the 20th January, 1853, the first number of a new Agricultural Journal, the Editorial management of which will be under the charge of COL. A. G. SUMMER.

Who will be assisted in the Horticultural and Pomological Department by MR. WM. SUMMER, of Pomaria.

It will be printed on fine paper with new Brevier Type—large octavo double column, and will contain 32 pages. No advertisement will be admitted in the body of the work, but such will be published on a cover, if desired.

It will be the aim of this journal to supply useful original and selected matter, on all subjects connected with the Agriculture of the Slaveholding States—Rural Taste and Improvement—The Mechanical and Manufacturing interests, &c. The Pomological and Horticultural departments will be devoted to the dissemination of correct information respecting those plants and fruits adapted to garden and orchard culture in the South. The development of valuable native fruits, which are scattered over the country, and information respecting foreign sorts which have been successfully cultivated in this climate, will interest Pomologists throughout the South; and a mass of information, tested by experience, has already been prepared for its pages by the editor of this department.

The fine style in which the "Agriculturist" will be printed will be an inducement to all who are engaged in rural improvement, to contribute to its pages; and individuals throughout the Southern country are invited to lend their aid in every department.

Cuts of implements, machinery, farm buildings and fixtures, animals, fruits, &c., will regularly adorn its pages.

FEMALE SEMINARY.

The subscriber having purchased Judge Lewis' premises, in the Northwestern part of the village, and believing the location desirable, proposes to open a SEMINARY for Young Ladies, on the 3d Monday in January next, under his own immediate supervision, assisted by such Teachers as the wants of the School may demand.

The government will be parental and mild, yet firm and decided—obedience to rules strictly enforced.

The Principal is so well known to the public, that references and commendations are deemed unnecessary, or they might be obtained to any desirable extent. He hopes by diligent and faithful attention to the intellectual and moral improvement of his pupils, to make them his commendatory vouchers.

The scholastic year will consist of two sessions, the first will close the last of June, with a vacation of two months—recommencing the first September, and closing the last December.

Pupils on Guitar furnish their own instruments for practice.

It will be much to the advantage of the pupils to be present on the day the School opens, that they may be assigned in their respective classes, and have the studies assigned them.

Some eight or ten Young Ladies can be accomodated with Boarding in the family of the Principal, upon as moderate terms as can be afforded.

No pupil will be received for less than a session, unless by special agreement, and no deduction made for absence except for sickness.

The Principal solicits the patronage of his numerous friends, and promises on his part, to discharge faithfully his responsible trust.
