

A Vacation Luxury

This is the day of the camp de luxe! A vacation spent close to Nature once meant a complete separation from all home comforts—a leaving behind of everything but the camp outfit and the fishing tackle. Not so, the modern seeker of health and pleasure. Today his camp looks like a cross between a department store and a Rockefeller country mansion!

One of the indispensables of the modern Camp Aladdin, is a

Waterman Fountain Pen

Always ready, requiring no space, the letter to the Only Girl in the World can be written as satisfactorily as if the writer were in the writing room of Grove Park Inn. Memorandums are easily kept—various happenings of interest recorded for the folks back home.

Don't think they are made for business men alone—Learn to know the pleasure of owning a Waterman all your own.

We have them all prices—come in and let us show you.

PRESS ASSOCIATION TO VISIT MONTREAT

ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETED FOR SPECIAL TRAIN TO BLACK MOUNTAIN

VISIT N. C. EDITORS

Who Will be in Session at Black Mountain—Reduced Rates For Occasion.

Gaffney, May 22.—Arrangements for operating the "South Carolina Press and Master Printers' Association Special," from Gaffney to Black Mountain, N. C., on July 1st were completed at a conference held here between R. C. Cotner, of Spartanburg, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Railway company, and Ed. A. DeCamp, president of the press association. This excursion which will be conducted for the benefit of the editors and printers who desire to go to Montreat to be present at the meeting of the North Carolina Press Association, will leave Gaffney at 6:35 a. m., July 1st; arrive at Spartanburg 7:40 a. m.; Asheville, 11:30 a. m., and reach Black Mountain at 6:30 p. m.; Asheville 8:30 p. m.; arriving at Gaffney 12:20 a. m. The return fare will be as follows: From Gaffney to Hendersonville, $1.00; to Asheville, $1.25; to Black Mountain, $1.50; from Spartanburg to Hendersonville, 75 cents; to Asheville, $1.00; to Black Mountain $1.25. The South Carolina State Press association and the South Carolina Master Printers' Association will hold a joint meeting at Chick Springs June 28th, 29th and 30th. These two bodies have been invited to meet with the North Carolina Press Association at Montreat, a short distance from Black Mountain, on July 1st, 2nd and 3rd. The South Carolina editors and master printers will leave Chick Springs on the morning of July 1st, arriving at Spartanburg in time to make connections with the special.

Those buying tickets to Hendersonville and Asheville must return on the special train that night, but all tickets to Black Mountain will be good until the night of July 3rd on regular returning trains. By this arrangement anyone may buy a ticket to Black Mountain at only a slightly increased cost over the price of transportation to the desired destination, obtaining the benefit of the additional time.

The program for the meeting of the South Carolina associations is replete with interesting features. The first evening of the session will be given over to the appointment of committees and hearing reports from the officers; the second day will be devoted to discussion of subjects pertinent to themselves by the members; and the third day has been set apart for the delivery of addresses by prominent men. Among those who will speak to the associations are: Governor Manning, Warehouse Commissioner John L. McLaurin, Rev. J. D. Grain of Greenville, and Gen. M. L. Bonham of Anderson. A reply to the invitation extended Mr. W. P. G. Harding, of Washington, member of the Federal Reserve Board is expected during the early part of June.

Business sessions of the associations will also be held on the last day. At these sessions new officers will be elected for the ensuing year and the place of the next meeting will be selected.

Over 200 editors and printers, with their families, are expected to go on the excursion to Black Mountain. The special will be composed of ten coaches, and ample accommodation for all who wish to make the trip will be provided.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Philadelphia.—Old Doctor Stork is doing his best to maintain his average at the home of Michael Kline. Five years ago he left at the Kline home a tiny girl that weighed but 1 1/2 pounds at birth. Last week the Klines became the proud parents of another child, this time a boy weighing 23 pounds. Both children are thriving and the Klines can now boast the smallest girl and the fattest baby in a great State.

Pottstown, Pa.—Irvin Hillebettel has filed a claim of $100 against the estate of the late Mary E. Frits for services in nursing her during her last illness. Inasmuch as Irvin was engaged to Miss Frits the executors of her estate refuse to pay on the ground that his services were contributed as a labor of love.

Chicago.—A clever jeweler here has succeeded in engraving the entire Lord's prayer upon the head of a pin.

Brooklyn.—Last Christmas Rev. W. L. Davidson received a gallon can of what he thought was oil for his automobile. Last week he decided to lubricate. The car ran three blocks and stopped. Mr. Davidson went home to test the oil. It looked good. He tasted it. It was maple syrup.

Washington.—W. J. Bryan is against voting on prohibition in 1916, and predicts that neither the Republican nor Democratic parties will put a prohibition plank in their platforms, although he wants it to be known as a dry party. He believes that the other issues will out-weigh prohibition at that election. Personally he would like that plank inserted, but does not believe that it is possible to do so.

New York.—Lillian Fablick, age 12, has been arrested charged with committing 15 burglaries. A van load of furniture and other articles which it is alleged the child stole has been recovered from her home.

What We Think of Our Advertising

We are inclined to think of our advertising as outbursts of enthusiasm rather than efforts to sell.

It's a service that we feel we should render you; to let you know of the goods here as we know them; to keep you posted on the things we are doing for you; to impress upon you the value of the highest standards of Quality and Service.

When you are sure of our most conscientious efforts for you at all times, and realize the importance of supreme quality and masterly service, then, your patronage is sure to remind us of the commercial value of our advertising.

After all, your profit must come first.
