Thrailkill-Brown Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Edward Thrailkill, of Laurens, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred Elizabeth, to Franklin Brown, son of Mrs. George T. Brown and the late Mr. Brown of near Clinton. The wedding will take place in September.

Dessert Bridge For Visitor

Mrs. Raymond Pitts was hostess recently for a dessert bridge in compliment to Mrs. John B. Pittman of Rockingham, N. C., who was visiting here.

Colorful bowls of zinnias made a pretty background for the two tables appointed for refreshments. At the conclusion of an interesting number of progressions, Mrs. Pittman was found to be high score winner and was also presented a guest prize. Bingo prize went to Mrs. Ed Sadler.

Mrs. Nabors Hostess A. R. P. Bible Class

Mrs. Marion Nabors, assisted by Mrs. Sidney Bryson and Miss Sara Etta Holland were hostesses on Monday evening to 25 members of the Ladies Bible Class of the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church for the July meeting.

Mrs. John T. Young had charge of the evenings program and discussed a chapter in the study book, "First Steps in Prayer."

Later a social hour was enjoyed and the hostesses served a sandwich plate, punch and cookies.

Mrs. John W. Little Entertains Club

Thursday afternoon Mrs. John W. Little entertained members of her bridge club.

Two tables weer arranged for the games in a setting of marigolds and vari-colored zinnias. During the afternoon a sweet course was enjoyed. High score prize was awarded Mrs. Pringle Copeland at the conclusion of the games.

Visitors Guests For Club Meeitng

Entertaining members of her card club and a number of additional guests Mrs. Harry McSween was hostess for bridge on last Wednesday afternoon.

In the card rooms and porch a variety of summer flowers were prettily arrayed. A sweet course was served before cards and four tables were in play during the afternoon. High score club prize was won by Mrs. Robert Black and for the guests by Mrs. A. B. Stump.

Mrs. McSween was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Harry Williams of Chester. Mrs. C. W. Hall of Durham, N. C., and Miss Betty Black of Victoria, Texas who were visiting here were special guests for the day.

Outing Enjoyed At Fellowship Camp

Thirty members of the Westminster Fellowship Group of the First Presbyterian church motored to the Fellowship Camp at Lake Greenwood Thursday.

In the afternoon swimming and softball were enjoyed. A picnic supper was served after which singing, contests and games furnished entertainment. Mrs. Henry M. Young, Sr., and Mrs. Robert S. Owens chaperoned the young people.

Sunday School Class Enjoys Outing

About fifteen members of the Mary and Martha Sunday school class of the First Baptist church motored to Curry's Lake on Friday evening.

The group enjoyed swimming and a water melon slicing. Chaperones for the outing were the class teacher, Mrs. R. P. Cole, Miss Blanche Ellen Darr, Miss Lucy Ann Thomas, Ed and Bill Gibson.

Informal Party Saturday Afternoon

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Irby S. Hipp entertained with a coca-cola party for her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Avery of Rock Hill and a number of her friends who were also visiting here.

A delightfully informal hour was enjoyed by the group after which they were invited into the dining room for refreshments of assorted party dainties which were served buffet style. Garden flowers were prettily combined to furnish decoration for the get-together.

Mrs. John B. Pittman of Rockingham, N. C. and Mrs. Conway Twitty of Rock Hill were out-of-town guests for the afternoon.

Bride-Elect Feted With Linen Shower

Complimenting Miss Elsie Neighbors, bride-elect of August, Mrs. Roy Pitts and Miss Faye Pitts entertainel on Tuesday evening.

Sixteen friends of the honoree were invited for the occasion and enjoyed playing Hearts. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Ray Pitts and Mrs. Edgar Taylor, Sr., in serving salad and sweet courses.

During the evening little Myra Pitts dressed in a raincoat presented the bride-elect with a host of linen gifts in an umbrella.

Bouquets of summer flowers prettily arranged added attractiveness to the home for the occasion.

Drop-In Party For the Dicks

An informal drop-in party was given for Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Dick of Raleigh, N. C., by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Finney, Sr., and Mrs. William Bailey Owens on Tuesday evening at "Happy Acres."

A number of friends were invited to call and enjoyed a delightful informal hour. During the evening refreshments of sandwiches, cake, punch and other dainties were served from a lace covered buffet table prettily centered with an arrangement of pink cut flowers. Elsewhere in rooms zinnias were combined with other flowers for decoration.

Dessert Bridge Given Tuesday

A dessert bridge was given Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Conway Twitty of Rock Hill by her mother, Mrs. Robert S. Owens.

Two tables were laid for refreshments and a sweet course was served before the games. Mrs. Hugh Jacobs was presented high score award and Miss Katherine Dicus won cut prize. Mrs. Twitty was remembered with a guest prize.

Summer flowers were artistically arranged to form a colorful setting in the card rooms.
