SUMTER COUNTY NEWS.

As Told By The Herald of The Gamecock City.

Mrs. Maggie Carr died at the Columbia hospital Sunday morning after an illness of several months' duration. The funeral services were held from the 9:30 train Tuesday morning, and interment was made in the Sumter cemetery.

The death of Mrs. Sarah Ada Williamson had been in her usual state of ing as a result of a stroke of appoplexy, was a distinct shock to her many friends in this community. Mrs. Williamson had been in he usual state of health until Sunday morning, when she became suddenly ill.

Mrs. Gabriella Ellison died at her home in Stateburg last Monday night at the ripe old age of 88 years. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. J. M. Boyd, pastor of the Church of the Holy Cross, at her late residence Tuesday afternoon, and the remains were laid to rest in the old Ellison graveyard on the gentle slope of a hill overlooking a velley in which is located Bradley plantation.

Mrs. William Griffin, who has been making her home with her son, Mr. Murray Griffin near this city, died at about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. The funeral services were conducted at the Sumter cemetery Thursday afternoon by Dr. J. W. Daniel, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church.

After an illness of only one day, little Marion Wingate, the three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wingate, died Tuesday morning. The funeral services were held from their home on Wright street on Wednesday morning.

His many friends throughout the county were pained to learn of the death of Dr. Thomas M. McCutchen, which occurred at his home in Sardina Monday, after an illness which took place Sunday morning, and almost from the first all hope was abandoned from the first all hope for his recovery was abandoned. The funeral services were held at the Brick church on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Benjamine F. Daughtery died at the home of his son, Mr. W. B. Daughtery, on West Calhoun street Sunday afternoon. His demise was the result of a stroke of appoplexy which he had sustained several days ago.

The house of representatives has voted to adjourn for the Christmas holidays on December 23 and resume work the following Monday.

John Henry Thomas, 22, a negro is in jail in Anderson, charged with criminally assaulting a 13-year-old negro girl.

A. H. Barber, who was shot early Thursday morning by his brother-in-law, H. T. Brunson, while attempting to enter the home of Brunson, died on Saturday of his wounds. He leaves a widow and five small children.

Japan has advised the league of nations conference that she cannot reduce her armament as long as the United States is increasing hers.

Special Christmas Day Showing at the Majestic will be Charles Ray in "Peaceful Valley," the latest of Cheerful Charlie's Screen Triumphs and a most absorbing story, and especially suitable for the Holiday showing.

The Kindergarten class of Mrs. Eben J. McLeod, had a very pretty and appropriate Christmas tree on last Friday morning, prior to its closing for the holidays. The mothers of all the little folks attended.
