N. B. We intend to run Vaudeville at this theatre all the time; but owing to the fact that we could not get a REAL GOOD ONE this week, we will run pictures only. Next Week we'll have a CRACKERJACK Vaudeville.

TWO RECEPTIONS AT ANDERSON COLLEGE

PUBLIC INVITED TO MEET SENIORS YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

ENJOYABLE EVENTS

Affair on Thursday Evening Was First of Its Kind at the College.

The reception given by the Anderson College yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in honor of the graduating class was a most enjoyable affair. Several members of the faculty met the guests in the hall and front parlor and passed them on to the back parlor to meet Dr. and Mrs. Kinard, Miss Smith, Mr. Fretwell, and the seniors. Presiding over the punch bowl were Mesdames Goode and Johnson. Mints were passed around by members of the lower classes. The halls were very artistically and profusely decorated with sweet peas, nasturtiums and daisies. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen called during the time set.

One of the pleasant features of the afternoon was the opportunity of meeting Dr. DeMent of Greenwood, who will preach the morning sermon before the Young Womens Christian Association this morning at the First Baptist church. Dr. DeMent has been in South Carolina for a short time only and it is a pleasure to welcome him to Anderson and to become acquainted with him. He is being entertained during his stay here at the college.

Dr. W. E. Thayer, who will preach the baccalaureate sermon this evening at the First Baptist church has also arrived and is stopping with Dr. James P. Kinard.

Reception Thursday Evening. The Junior class at the Anderson College set a precedent this year when it sent out invitations to a reception in honor of the graduating class for Thursday evening. It is hoped this will become an annual affair in the social life of the college.

This reception proved to be a very brilliant event in every way. Receiving at the door were Misses Nelle Gentry and Ethel Norris. The formal reception line was composed of Miss Charity Wolborne, the president of the Junior class, President and Mrs. Kinard, Misses Helen and Nellie Smith, Senior sponsor and the six young ladies who will receive their diplomas this year: Misses Esther and Elizabeth Lawrence, Hettie Jackson, Margret Chinkscales, Willie Sullivan and Lethia Willford.

Assisting the Juniors were Misses Robbie Cavin and Marie Nelson of the Freshman class. Misses Maurine Ligon, Lafayette Johnson and Lavonia Kinard served an elaborate salad and ice course after presiding over the punch bowl earlier in the evening.

The Senior class flower is the sweet pea, and the Juniors used quantities of these beautiful blossoms in the parlors and halls, combining them with potted plants, making the rooms quiet lovely.

Unique favors were small diplomas from the Junior Academy of Merriment, granting Bachelor of Amusement, signed by B. Happy, and sealed with a gold seal and blue ribbon. The sixteen members of the Junior class proved themselves very delightful hostesses at this reception and all present were delighted with the affair.

WELL PLEASED WITH ANDERSON SCHOOLS

Mr. Felton Receives Letter From State Superintendent Swearingen.

The following letter from Hon. J. E. Swearingen, State superintendent of education, to Mr. J. B. Felton, county superintendent, speaks well of the schools of Anderson County. It will be remembered that Mr. Swearingen spent the first part of this week in Anderson County and an account of his stay was then printed in The Intelligencer.

His letter follows, and is self explanatory: "Dear Mr. Felton: "It was a genuine pleasure to spend the first half of this week in the schools of Anderson county. The educational situation is satisfactory. The growth of school spirit, enrollment, attendance, local taxes, classroom efficiency, and community progress could hardly be better.

"Your success in giving each white school a minimum term of six months during 1914-15 is a notable achievement. Your plan to make this term seven months next year deserves like success.

"I wish I could write you in detail concerning the several communities we visited, but individual comment on the separate school is hardly necessary.

"It was a genuine satisfaction to meet the members of your family, and to enjoy the hospitality of your home.

"Wishing you continued success, I am, "Yours respectfully, "J. E. Swearingen, "State Supt. of Education."

French Hero On New Legs.

Jean Marie Calyelle. This is a French hero of Altkirch, one of the very first battles of the war, when the French began their counter offensive into Germany, and of Namur and Charleroi. In his last fight both legs were shot off and he had to be sent back to Paris to be patched up. This photograph shows him as he wanders about the streets of his home town still wearing the uniform in which he was shot. He is a hero among the French. His regret is that he cannot again go to the front.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Having purchased the Bijou and Paramount theatres, I deem it my duty, as well as my pleasure to take the public into my confidence, and tell them of my plans for their amusement.

For the present, the Paramount will be closed; when business will warrant it, I will be only too glad to re-open this theatre.

I will run the Bijou theatre on Motion Pictures as it has been formerly conducted. The Bijou will continue showing the famous Universal service, together with the Serial Picture "The Black Box," and to this will be added the Paramount Service and the Serial Picture, "The Exploits of Elaine," and any Feature Pictures that are to be had.

The Palmetto will continue as before, showing High Grade Vaudeville and Motion Pictures. The fact that we were unable this week to obtain a good Vaudeville Company is not to be understood that we will not run Vaudeville, for we Most Assuredly will run Vaudeville every week at this theatre.

We are very glad indeed to grasp this opportunity to thank the public for the generous patronage which they have always bestowed upon the Palmetto, which we trust will be continued.

We also wish to assure the people of Anderson that the High Order of pictures, and Excellent service which has been the order at the Bijou will be maintained, and where possible, improved.

The public may rest assured that they will be given the very best pictures and Vaudeville that any city any where near the size of Anderson gets. We will improve the service and pictures wherever possible; and to that end, we will welcome any criticisms or suggestions offered us.

Again thanking the good people of Anderson for their generous patronage, we remain

(Signed)

A. M. PINKSTON, Manager.

Sage Tea Darkens Hair To Any Shade

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded, or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.
