STRAWS SHOW WHICH WAY THE WIND BLOW.

At Hartsville a few days ago some of the people suggested the idea of holding a primary election for Governor. A ballot box was prepared and the polls opened and after a stated time the polls were closed and the votes counted. Twenty-two counties were represented and 31 votes polled, the ladies were allowed to vote for their choice. When the votes were counted they showed a majority of two for McSweeney. Taking into consideration the fact that the ladies were allowed to vote and that the people who are at the springs are mostly from cities and towns, to us it is plain what the result will be in the State primary—for straws show which way the wind blows.

THEN WHY PROTEST?

Several papers throughout the State, as well as some of the State candidates, are condemning Senator Tillman for going into the campaign and speaking in behalf of the dispensary—the law he claims to father, and in the same breath these same papers claim that he is gaining votes for Col. Hoyt, the prohibitionist. Then why are they, the Hoyt papers, entering their protests.

On being asked in an interview the other day in Charleston if the election of Hoyt would mean much of a victory for prohibition, Mr. C. C. Featherstone, of Laurens, replied: "Not such a great one, unless the legislative body is in favor of prohibition. This I hardly think will be the case."

Some folks think it smart to make discord in what would be harmony without their loudness. If they knew how ridiculous they appeared they would certainly bridle their tongues.

The North Carolina election will be held next Thursday and Democratic victory is certain.

TILLMAN HAS THEM GOING.
