The codfish lays a million eggs While the helpful hen lays one;
But the codfish does not cackle To inform us what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish coy,
But the helpful hen we prize;
Which indicates to thoughtful minds It pays to advertise.

SINGERS ARRIVE

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Begin Organizing Big Chorus for the Meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Allen arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and last night at St. John's Methodist church began the organization of the choir for the great revival meeting which is to start Monday. The meeting is to be held in a tent with a seating capacity of 2,000, which will be pitched on the McKinley lot on Sharpe street.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen are well-known singers and leaders and they expect to organize a splendid chorus of voices here. They are from the State of Ohio and are widely known. Mr. and Mrs. Allen came to Anderson from St. Matthews where the Rev.
Baxter F. McLendon has just closed a meeting.

A cordial invitation is extended to all singers, regardless of denomination, to join this chorus and it is hoped that by Sunday it will number several scores.

The following taken from the Columbia State of yesterday, will be read with interest since it tells of the closing of the great meeting at St.
Matthews:

The greatest religious campaign ever waged in this town came to a close last night. The revival was conducted by the Rev. Baxter F. McLendon, the Bennettsville evangelist, and covered a period of three weeks. Nothing of its kind in this community is within the memory of any one. Once a kind but cold and almost entirely worldly community, the whole atmosphere seems changed and now the church and the gospel seem the biggest thing in the world. Men who hardly knew what it was to darken the doors of churches are now the avowed enemies of sin and the staunchest friends of religion. Changes in the lives of some are so great that the contrast makes the thing yet seem unreal. Hundreds professed conversion.

Being a man of the plainest of speech and absolutely relentless in his assaults upon sin, regardless of who or what the sinner may be, the critical may appear to find a grain of reason for fault at the beginning. But no one who will listen and study and give impartial judgment will long hold to any skepticism. Mr. McLendon is absolutely free from fear.

The meeting was non-denominational and the finest spirit of unity and cooperation prevailed. A choir of several scores of trained voices led by Messrs. Allen and Marshall, the assistants of the preacher, did fine singing.

Men's and women's prayer meeting were held in the mornings and it was there that men who so often and so long have only used the name of God in profane swearing, came out and spoke for God.

Throughout the entire meeting good crowds attended, the tent of a capacity for 2,000 being well filled a number of times. Last night it was not big enough to hold them and crowds had to stand outside. Every town and section of the county were well represented, some coming a distance of 50 miles a number of times. Over 50 joined the various churches of the town. A free will offering of about $1,200 was realized.

HAMMOND ASSOCIATION

Held Delightful Meeting on Last Friday Afternoon.

The Hammond School Improvement association held a meeting on last Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. G.
English at her home. It was a great privilege for the people of the community to have with them on this occasion Miss Jessie C. Garlington and Mr. S. M. Byers. The latter talked on the care of country which was extremely educational and instructive.
Some good results will be sure to follow.

Mrs. English served delicious refreshments during the afternoon. The meeting next time will be held with Mrs. Riley Pratt.

DEATH OF YOUNG LADY

Miss Annie L. Watt, Daughter Mr and Mrs. W. M. Watt.

The death of Miss Annie L. Watt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M.
Watt, occurred Tuesday morning at 3:30 at the home of her parents, 1342 South Main street, after an illness of about three months. The funeral services were conducted from the residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
Rev. W. D. Hammett, pastor of the Flat Rock Baptist church, of which Miss Watt was a member, officiating.
Interment was made in Silver Brook cemetery.

Miss Watt's death came as sudden shock to the immediate family and her many friends. In February she was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism from which she never fully recovered. However, recently, her condition became much improved and it was thought that she was fast recovering. Sunday night she suffered an attack of acute indigestion from which she died.

Miss Watt was just twenty-one years old. She was a young woman of many lovely traits and had numerous friends. She is survived by her parents, two sisters, Mrs. J. N. Nob-litt and Miss Lillie May Watt and six brothers, Messrs. Charles, Parker, Ernest, Ligon, Fred and J. W. Watt.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILL
FOR BACKACHE, KIDNEYS AND BLAUD.

NOW DECLARE BAGGAGE; SAY WHAT IT IS WORTH

RULE AT RAILROADS THAT IS GOING TO CAUSE A
MIX-UP

MEANS TROUBLE

Butler, Valet, or Second Cousin Can Sign for Shipper—No False Declaration.

Tomorrow marks the beginning of trouble for the traveler. Trouble also for the railroads for under federal law, on and after June 3, the value of baggage must be declared.

The railroads now carry trunks and other baggage not exceeding 150 pounds in weight free with tickets of transportation and assume liability in case of loss or damage up to $100.
They declare they can not assume unlimited liability as permitted under the Cummins act, but will accept the alternative of assuming the $100 liability on each piece of baggage check-ed and insuring the passenger for all over that amount on a basis of ten cents per $100, the rate laid down by the Interstate commerce commission.

Travelers Now Shipper.
The amendment speaks specifically of "shippers," and although no mention is made of passengers checking trunks the commission has interpreted the act to mean that baggage constitutes a shipment in the meaning of the law. As shippers must sign a declaration as to value of shipments it has been decided that each and every shipper of a trunk must declare the real value of its contents when he has his trunk checked.

Any one who signs a declaration dishonestly, a railway official who has made a close study of the new law says will be guilty of a misdemeanor.
For instance, if a trunk is sent as baggage and declared to be worth $100 and the trunk goes astray but turns up later and it is found that a $500 diamond ring is in the trunk the owner is liable to go to jail. It is equally an offence to over estimate the value of baggage.

It is understood that the railroads will consent to accept declarations as to values from agents of shippers, which might be a valet, or butler, or porter, or second cousin, or anybody who helps a shipper, or passenger to make use of the checking privilege, but everybody has got to be mighty careful that no false declarations are made or there is sure to be trouble for somebody.

Acting Head of Italian Government During the War.

Duke of Genoa.

The Duke of Genoa, uncle of the King of Italy, has been appointed by him to act in his stead during the war. The king issued a proclamation on assuming command of the army and navy in action. It read as follows.

"We, Victor Emmanuel, on the report of the president of the cabinet and after hearing the advice of the council of ministers, have appointed our most beloved uncle, Tomasso, of Savoy, Duke of Genoa, our lieutenant-general during our absence from the capital.

"On the advice of the responsible minister he will transact all matters of ordinary administration and every other matter having the character of urgency.

"He will sign all royal decrees, which will be counter-signed in the usual form."

he will preach at Friendship.
