Miss Marie Lewis of E. Gervais street left for the mountains for the summer. We wish her a pleasant stay.

Miss Lillian Smoot of New York City, sister of Mrs. E. C. Anderson of this city, left Sunday for New York, after visiting relatives and friends in Columbia and Miami, Fla. She was accompanied on her return by her niece Miss Mary E. Anderson, who will spend the summer with her aunt in New York City.

Mrs. Andrena Baumgardner, social worker of this city has been confined to the Columbia Hospital since Friday night, June 17, because of a broken bone in her ankle, sustained by a fall in the Palmetto Theatre, this city.

THE EAST END JOLLY BUNCH

The East End Jolly Bunch gave a private party in honor of their husbands and guest members of the Tall Cedar Club, last Wednesday night, at the home of Mrs. Lucile Wright, 2115 Senate street. The club served a full course of fried chicken dinner and an additional dessert course, punch, ice cream and cake. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. George Woodard, Jr., Mr. Jesse Love, Mr. Wardel McMillian, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Wilson, Mr. Freddie Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Brown, Mr. Willie Richardson, Mr. Charlie Suber, Mr. Earnest Wilson, Mr. Sol Blackshear, Mr. Julius Frazier and Mr. David Bradley.

THE EAGLE CLUB

The club met at the home of Miss Viola Dantzler, 930 Rice St., Friday nite, at 8:30 with the president Mr. John Trezevant. The opening song, "What a Friend we have in Jesus," by Mrs. Lillie Perry. Prayer by the president. The next selection Don't Turn Back, by a visitor Mrs. Sarah McCartha. Bible verses were recited by all. Third selection Pass me Not O Gentle Saviour, by Mr. Ezekiel Moton. The minutes were read. Motioned by Mr. J.W. Robinson, seconded by Mrs. Moten and approved. Fourth selection There Is More Joy Somewhere, by Mrs. Perry. Business was discussed. The roll was called and 20 members responded. We were very pleased to have with us four visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Cleaveland McCartha, Mr. Elmore and Miss Lula Brown of Liberty Hill. Mr. and Mrs. McCartha and also Mr. Brown made some very interesting remarks. The McCarthas also donated the club. The meeting closed with Mrs Lillie Perry leading the closing song. The president led the closing ode. The hostess served a delicious repast. Dancing was enjoyed from 11 p.m. until 1 a.m.

TALL CEDAR SOCIAL CLUB

The young men of the Tall Cedar Social Club entertained the young ladies and their guests of the East End Jolly Bunch on Friday night at a Party at the home of the vice-president Mr. Jesse Love, 2216 Luzon Ave. Among the guests present were the president of The Bronzemen Social Club Mr. Dave Betha, Mr. John H. Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson and Misses Lottie Richardson, Mary Eetta Wilson, Willie L. Frazier, Anna Lee Bradley, Ethelson, Gladys L. Ford, Jessie Mae McMillan, Lucile Rice, Anna Wil- Barnett, Louise Blackshear, Annie belle Nance, Duahicha Brown, Lola Livingston, Lucile Green, Addie Wilson, Estelle Suber, Mary Louise Green, Alice Frazier, Anna B. Green, Louise Brown, Enery Brown Carrie Brown Ella Bell Davis, Hattie Goodwin, Mrs. Lucretia Suber, Mrs. Ethel Lee Ford, Messrs. Albert Anderson, Ed Goodwin, Freddie Ford, Oze Brown, Willie Richardson, Ernest W. Wilson and many others. As we are very small bunch of young men of this fair city, we are out to give the young people of the city swell times during the summer and we hope you will enjoy each and every affair that we will have in the future.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lowery announce the marriage of their daughter Sadie (Frost) Adams to Mr. James Franklin on May 21, 1938.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few close friends in the Abyssian Baptist Crurch of New York City by Rev. A. C. Powell, Jr.

The bride is remembered for her popularity and versatility among the young people of Columbia. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Jacksonville, Fla. The couple is at home in New York City.

L'AMUSANT

The L'Amusant Social Club held its weekly meeting at the lovely and spacious home of Miss Albertha Dash 1926 Gervais street. The house was called to order by Mr. Harry Riley, chairman of orpram committee. First on program was the club song led by Mr. Riley. Prayer was offered by Rev. Burroughs. After which the chairman called for reports from the members. Rev. James Bates talked on Health. Miss R. Asbury read a beautiful poem. We were pleased to have quite a few visitors with us, in the persons of Misses Sarah Williams and Mattie A. Bowman, Mr. A. Eady, also Mrs. F. Smith. They all expressed themselves as having enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

We wish to express our sympathy for one of our members who is ill in Columbia Hospital, Miss Corine Whaley. After all business was transacted the club adjourned to meet with Miss Asbury and Rev. J. Burroughs. The hostess served a delicious course of ice cream and cake.

FASHION SHOW

Tre citizens of Columbia were entertained by the adult pupils on Tuesday evening, June 14, at Bethel A.M.E. church with a Fashion Show of cotton dresses. An interesting and inspiring program was rendered just before the dress parade. Three types of dresses were worn, those afternoon and evening. First, second and third prizes were given in each gorup of dresses. These prizes were made available by the white and colored business men of Columbia.

The winners of the prizes were as follows: Sport dresses: First prize, Mrs. Lillie Knowlin; second prize, Mrs. Annie Green; third prize, Mrs. Lillie Anderson.

Afternoon dresses: First prize, Mrs. Henrietta Hudson; second prize, Mrs. Sallie Crawford; third prize, Mrs. Ella Jacobs.

Evening dresses: First prize, Miss Kathleen Howard; second prize, Miss Ethel Salters; third prize, Miss Mary Mitchell.

We wish to thank the business men of Columbia for the prizes. Donors were as follows: Nehi Bottling Company, Faust Department Store, Rainbow Furniture Company, Simmons Furniture Co., The Gray Shop, Paul and Marshall Dry Cleaners, Palmetto Furniture Co., Leevy's Filling Station, Sturkie Furniture Co. and B. and W. Department Store. We feel that our success was due largely to your contributions.

One-third of funds went to Bethel A. M. E. Church.

Mrs. Genera B. Lewis,
Directress,
Assisted by Mrs. Sallie Rice and Mrs. Annie Garrison.

LUCKY BIRD SOCIAL CLUB

The club met at the home of Mrs. Hattie Coleman, 609 Sumter street, Tuesday night at the regular time. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Sam Williams. Oepning song was led by Miss Thomasina Kennedy. Prayer by the vice-president Mr. James Kennedy. Second song was led by Mrs. Annie Porter. Scripture lesson was read by Miss Cheeseboro. After which Mrs. Marie Pollock eld another song. The house was opened for business by the president. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Sick committee reported Mrs. Dolly Smith and Mr. Willie Boyce sick. Reports from various committees were heard. The president called for unfinished business and new business. The roll was called and the members rsponded. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Rosa Walters, 513 Sumter St. Club dismissed by Dea. J. S. White.. After the meeting the hostess served us a delicious repast.

STEPHENSON'S GRADUATION PARTY

There was given a party June 16th in honor of Nathaniel Stephenson at the home of G. E. Halcome, 1317 Lyon street. Among the guests were N. H. Stephenson, Lydia Bell Green, Miss Marie Holley, a nurse of the Columbia Hospital. She is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Holley.

There were two young men back from College. Henry C. Everett, a student of Lincoln University and guest LaMorris Perrin. Eugene Stephenson, the brother of Nathaniel, a student of Smith University, John P. Holley and guest, Esther Means, who seemed to have enjoyed themselves to the highest. Others were Lomas Gist and guest Miss Marie Holley, Henry Pearson, Vermelle Means, David Christie, Edna Cooper, A. W. Perrin, Jr., Lottie Robinson, Roosevelt Gist, Maggie Watson, Thelma Woodbury, Margaret Bookman, Joseph Wilson, Mamie Lee Gibson, Edgar Williams, Cleveland Jacobs George Halcomb, Edith Riley, Raymond Weston, Dorothy Patterson, Jessie Dreher. Ice cream and cake was served and everyone had a grand time. The girls were beautifully dressed and there were a few members of the Fraternity of B. T. W.

MISS DOLORES E. WINKFIELD OF ASHEVILLE, N. C., ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF REV. & MRS. DOWNS

Miss Dolores Winkfield of Asheville, N. C., who was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Downs during the past week was entertained with a party Thursday night given by Miss Annie Mae Jackson at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Downs.

As the guests arrived, they were introduced to the guest of honor, Miss Winkfield, by the hostess. During the party, a souvenir of Columbia was presented to Miss Winkfield by Miss Jackson, and in reply to the wish that she would come again, Miss Winkfield expressed herself as having a most enjoyable time and that she hoped to come to Columbia again soon.

Among the guests present were Miss Dolores Winkfield, the honored guest, Misses Margaret Taylor, Harriet Goodwin, Catherine Patrick, Marian Clarkson, Zelma Brown, Thomasina Weeks, Geneva Nelum, Messrs. Albert Redd, Joel Jackson, Hildreth Hopkins, Jonny Peterson, John H. McKissick, Jas. Eddie Owens and Miss Jackson.

The charming Miss Winkfield graduated from Allen High of Asheville with highest honor, and will enter Talladega College this fall where she will major in music. During her stay here, she visited Orangeburg and Camden. She returned to Asheville Monday evening.

WAVERLY SILVER STARS

The Waverly Silver Stars met at the home of Mrs. Kirkland 1330 Harden street. The devotional exercises by our chaplain Mrs. Willie Mae Walton. First song Miss Marie Merkinson. Led in prayer by Mrs. Willie Mae Walton. Second song Mrs. Fannie Salley. The meeting turned over to the president. Business discussed briefly. There's something new coming—What? Well we'll have to let you keep guessing. Watch The Palmetto Leader for more news. We had several very distinguished young men with us. The world-wide known as the Capital City Quartet. They sang several beautiful selections for us; one the club's favorite, Precious Lord. We certainly enjoyed having them. Hoping they will come again.

TWELVE STAR SOCIAL CLUB.

The club held its weekly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Deas 1008 College street, with all members present and received one new member, Mrs. Ineva Scott. The devotions were carried out in the usual manner with Mrs. S. M. Roof, chaplain in charge Mr. Lewis Deas, vice president presided. A brief business session included discussions and plans for entertainment at a time in the near future. The program included a poem, and two selections from the club's quartet followed by jokes from those present. Mrs. Josephine Austin, chairman of the program committee presented a prize to Mr. Deas for telling the best joke. We adjourned to meet next with Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Ferguson 519 Pendleton street.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Sallie M. Erving who departed this life June 12, 1935.

A loving one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

You went and left us all alone
But you never would be forgotten in our home.
It was that morning He called you
It is sad but He knows best.

Sadly missed by husband and children:

Mr. David Erving, husband; children: Mr. Andrew Erving, Mrs. Sallie M. Morgan, (Mrs.) Minnie Lee Butler, Mr. David Erving, Jr., Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mr. Alphonza Erving, Robert Erving, Jessica Erving, Joyce Erving, William Erving, Julius Erving.

IN MEMORIAM

MOORE—Sallie. In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, who passed away 6 years ago May 24, 1932.

Six years have passed since that sad day,
The one we loved was called away
God took her home, it was His will
But in our hearts she liveth still.

The world may change from year to year,
And friends from day to day;
But never will the one we loved,
From memories pass away.

Loving Mother and Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Alma Cannon Hopkins, who departed this life just one year ago.

She was meek and she was lowly.
She was gentle, sweet and kind;
She was patient, true and loving,
Faithful, serving, giving, singing.
Now she's resting all the time.

Thou art gone, but not forgotten,
Dwelling in a brighter clime,
Feasting on the Heavenly manna,
Praising Jesus all the time.

Mother, Husband and Sons.

ROYAL MUSIC CLUB

The Royal Music Club met at the home of Miss S. M. Hopkins Wednesday nite, June 15. The meeting was called to order by the president Miss S. M. Hopkins at the regular hour. Devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Elizabeth James. After the reading of the minutes by the Asst. Secretary and the calling of the roll by the Rec. Secretary, Mrs. M. W. Edwards, unfinished and new business were transacted.

A report was brought to the club by Miss Edwards from the Children's day program. Then after making plans for the next meeting's program, dues were collected. The club adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Maud Childs in honor of Miss Florence Hargen Wednesday nite, June 22.

MRS. LUCY E. ROSS HERE FOR WEEK.

Mrs. Lucy E. Ross, formerly of Greenville, now of Chicago, Ill., is in the State visiting friends at several points. Mrs. Ross has been in Columbia for more than a week as house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Carroll at 913 Oak St.

For many years Mrs. Ross lived in Greenville and Union. She is the widow of the late J. Frank Ross, well known and distinguished citizen of Greenville. Mrs. Ross will leave here over the week-end for Spartanburg and Greenville She expects to be in the State all of the summer. During mid-summer, she is to be joined by her daughter the former Miss Russell Leonard Ross and her husband, Mr. Julian Black of Chicago, manager of Joe Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Black will come to Columbia as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll.

THE GOLDEN ROD CLUB

The club was called to order on Monday night June 20, by the president at the home of Miss Catherine Chatman. Devotions conducted by the president. Then the house was opened for business. Old and new business was discussed. The financial roll was called; all members responded. A beautiful program was rendered; after which refreshments were served. The club adjourned by the watchword. The next meeting will be held with Miss Mildred Chatman, 2210 Luzon Ave.

ROSE SOCIAL CLUB

The club held its weekly meeting at the home of Miss Ethel Rose, with the president on duty. First selection Where He Leadeth Me. Prayer was repeated; second selection, Trees. After devotions came to a close, old and new business was discussed and approved. The house then closed. The club adjourned to meet at the home of Miss Evelon Reed, in Arthurtown. The host of the evening served cake and ice cream.

EVENING STAR SAVING CLUB

The club held their regular meeting Wednesday, June 8, at the home of Mrs. Bertha Williams 1002 Gates street, with the president presiding. Prayer by Mr. Edward Brown. Song by Mr. Burton. The minutes of the last meeting were approved. New and unfinished business was discussed. Roll call; dues, fines and taxe collected. The meeting adjourned. The club had a silver tea Sunday June 11th, Mr. Burton presiding. A large crowd attended. We were favored with a duet by Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Ruff; a solo by Mr. Burton and a wonderful talk by Mr. Brown. We had several visitors.

There will be another silver tea Sunday, June 26th.

SOCIETY HILL NEWS

Services at Bethesda and Union Baptist churches were very interesting. Those who witnessed the services thought both pastors were at their best. Children's Day service was held at Bethesda Sunday evening.

The passing of sister Ida Alston was quite a shock to the community. Sister Alston is survived by her mother, one sister and two brothers.

We were glad to see sister Judith Alston out yesterday after a month's illness.

Mr. Edmond Bostic and family of Goldsboro, N. C., spent the week end here with relatives and friends

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Bethesda Baptist church on Thursday evening at 8:00 o'clock when Miss Sadie Virginia McRae became the bride of Rev. James D. Rucker, Columbia. Rev. J. P. Reeder, pastor of Zion Baptist church, Columbia, officiated, assisted by Rev. Charles H. Brown of Benedict college.

In front of the pulpit was an arch of ivy and mixed flowers, back of which were beautiful pot flowers and ferns.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Spencer Disher, pianist played Traumerei; Mrs. J. L. Dickson sang "Because I Love You". The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of carnations and ferns. The bride was given in marriage by her mother Mrs. Mary E. McRae.

Miss Rosa McRae sister of the bride was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Humbert, Miss Sarah Morris, little Miss Naomi Dickson, candle bearer.

Rev. Horace Sharper and Rev. Willie Wilson were the groomsmen.

Out of town guests attending wedding: Mrs. Rucker, son, wife and daughter of Anderson; Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Howard, Rev. and Mrs. Long and Prof. S. Disher and family, Darlington, and a goodly number of friends from Columbia, Hartsville, Cheraw, Bennettsville and Anderson were present.

GEORGETOWN NEWS

The Beautician club met last Tuesday at the home of Miss Annie Mae Nesbitt and by invitation of Prof. G. W. Howard was present and delivered an inspiring address. We regret so much that all members were not present to hear him. He commended the ladies for the idea of organizing a club and admonished them to go forward and assured them also that what others have done they too can do. We thank Prof. Howard very much and will plant his splendid instructions among us and not crowd it out, but will allow it to take root and spring up and grow that Georgetown will see the fruits the coi for what others have done. We can, and will do.

Miss Jerrie Browne left last Wednesday for New York. She is a recent graduate of Howard high.

Mrs. E. Lillian Frasier left on Tuesday for New oYrk where she plans to spe it the month of July. Mrs. I. C. Thompson is in charge during the absence of Mrs. Frasier.

The Manigault Funeral home has now been operating in Georgetown for several months with Mr. Walter Manigault as manager. The courtesy having been shown by everyone in Georgetown county

MISS LUGENIA MILLIGAN BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. JESSE WEATHERBEE

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony, Sunday, June 5, at the home in Williston, S. C., Miss Lugenia Milligan became the bride of Mr. Jesse Weatherbee. Rev. Benson Rast officiated before relatives and friends.

A bride in an elegant [illegible] flowers and their baskets of [illegible] lilies, ferns and [illegible] was used as the alt[illegible] Masons the place of the [illegible] a Persian rug and a background of green vines and flowers.

As the bridal party came down the house on the porch [illegible] for wedding march was played softly by Miss Sarah Henry.

The bride was attractively gowned in embroidered white marquisette with [illegible] accessories and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. For leaving the bride [illegible]

In promoting wholesome [illegible] Highly commended and appreciated.

Quite a number of the ladies are planning to attend the Baptist Missionary and Educational convention Columbia this week.

Fathers' Day program was carried out at Bethel last Sunday. Music was furnished by a male choir. The organist of Emmanuel church, Charleston, was organist of the day. The pastor spoke on the theme Our Father which art heaven. Six responded to invitation for joiners. Among the many visitors were E. Williams of Mt. Zion, Charleston.

At the evening hour the men rendeerd a splendid program.

Dr. W. D. Thompson has moved in his new office. You will find him now at 210 King street.

Misses Sarah Cleveland and Clara Mae Reed left Sunday for Charleston where they will attend summer school.

Mrs. Millie Lawrence was the happy winner of the lovely crocheted spread that was raffled off at the church lawn a few weeks ago by the Ministers wives.

Ministers Wives Alliance

The alliance met Wednesday June 15 at the home of Mrs. Louise Martin. The meeting was called to order by the Vice President, Mrs. Bessie M. Clarke. After devotions the sick committee reported that fruits and flowers were taken to the following sick ministers: Rev. E. P. Bradham, Rev. H. J. Moore and Rev. W. P. Carolina and 50 cents was given to Mrs. [illegible] A [illegible] meeting a delicious [illegible] was served by the hostess. Refreshments at the home of Mrs. M. W. Prioleau.

Harper-Grate Nuptials

On Tuesday afternoon, June 14 Miss Ruth Anna Grate of Georgetown became the bride of Mr. Charles Harper of Georgetown. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride in the presence of relatives and friends, in the beautifully decorated living room.

Miss Marjorie Kelly presided at the piano. To the strains of the wedding march, Miss Pearl Alston, attired in a lovely embroidered gown of pink net over satin wearing a leghorn hat, marched, followed by the bride on the arm of her father attired in a lovely gown of white net over satin wearing a leghorn hat.

The groom was attended by Mr. Eli Dutton of Greenville.

The ring ceremony of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. R. A. Thompson.

Refreshments were served and the couple left immediately for both here in Georgetown.

On May 14 a miscellaneous shower was given by Misses Rosalee Gregg, Pearl Alston and Garnet Jackson at the home of the latter. A jolly crowd was there to greet Miss Grate. A number of games were played then the ladies brought in a large umbrella laden with gifts of all description. The bride-then-to-be opened each and was very much elated over the lovely and useful gifts.

A delicious repast was served

Get This FREE Sample of BEARD REMOVER and Try a Razorless Shave!

At last science has found a way to remove a beard without shaving. No more razor, no scraping, no cuts, no soap, no boiling. Merely apply Magic Shaving Powder as directed—then wipe off, leaving a clear, smooth skin. Don't wait! 35c buys a generous size package at any drug store. If you want to try before you buy, write Magic Shaving Powder Co., Dept. 36 Savannah, Ga., for free trial sample.

changed to a dress of rose with black accessories.

Mrs. Weatherbee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Handy Milligan of Williston, S. C. and is the Secretary of Schofield School.

Mr. and Mrs. Weatherbee will make their home in Williston.

Lovely Shower for Miss Milligan

Saturday evening prior to the wedding, a beloved-elect, Miss Lugenia Milligan was entertained at a delightful miscellaneous shower given by the Dozens Club at the home of Mrs. Helen Cherry on Fa[illegible] street, Arcadia, S. C.

The [illegible] green and yellow [illegible] and arrangements of daisies were used about the rooms where the guests played Rummy.

The first prize was a bridal book won by Miss Mozelle Hamilton, the second prize was a table cover won by Mrs. Emma Johnson, and the [illegible] was a [illegible] by Miss Justine E. Williams. Each of these prizes was presented to the bride-elect along with a delicious [illegible] was served.

In the [illegible] the lace [illegible] was placed many lovely gifts [illegible] of honor [illegible] from the [illegible] of green and yellow [illegible].

PAY UP YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

Free Cook Booklet!

Latest Menus for Appetizing Breakfasts, Luncheons, Dinners Suppers, Parties and Foods For Children.

Beautifully illustrated recipes. FREE. Send [illegible] cost of mailing [illegible] for mailing [illegible]

Home Canning
Preparing Inexpensive Salads
How to Make Good Coffee
Book of Teas
Book on Chocolate
Distinctive Recipes
Bright Ideas
65 Ways to Prepare Vegetables

CALVIN'S NEWSPAPER SERV.
113 West 125th Street
New York City
(Modern Home Kitchen)

USE HAIRLONGER

A wonderful Hair Grower

Makes the hair grow Long, Full and Luxuriant. A fair trial will prove its wonderful worth

Hairlonger Grower 25c
Pressing Oil 25c
Postage 10c.

ALSIE P. WYNNE
Box 24, Clio, S. C.

BAXLEY'S DAIRY

Grade "A" Milk

PHONE 2-1116

2339 Elmwood Ave., Columbia, S.C.

Furnished Rooms

NEW YORK CITY

An attractive furnished room for rent in private apartment. Service elevator. Call or write

MRS. ELLA FRANKLIN
300 Manhattan Ave., New York City. Phone MOnument 2-8063.

LEEVY'S FUNERAL HOME

Undertaking And Embalming

—SLOGAN—

LOWER PRICES

AMBULANCE SERVICE

"As Near As Your Nearest Phone"

UNDERTAKER FOR STATE HOSPITAL

1831 Taylor St. Columbia
Phone 9276 I. S. Leevy, Mgr.