Ladies! Secret to Darken Gray Hair

Bring Back its Color and Lustre With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

Beautiful Reception For Women of Confederacy.

A beautiful affair for yesterday afternoon was the reception, given by the members of the Robert E. Lee chapter in honor of the women of the Confederacy. This is an annual affair for this chapter and each year on the third day of June. Jefferson Davis' birthday, they entertain these ladies.

Every effort is made to make it a very happy and enjoyable occasion for the whole lower floor being thrown together by folding doors. Everywhere were large bowls of sweet peas and other bright flowers.

About seventy-five old ladies were present, and a very happy afternoon was spent.

Mrs. C. S. Sullivan in behalf of the chapter gave their guests a very gracious and cordial welcome. Music was furnished during the afternoon by Mrs. W. H. Nardin, Jr., Mrs. B. B. Brazzale and Miss Fenobia Welch. Several beautiful choruses of old and well-known songs were enthusiastically applauded. A delightful sweet course with other dainties was served and the whole afternoon was a charming success.

In Honor of Miss Fretwell.

Beautifully carried out in every detail was the charming affair given by Mrs. Alberta Brock yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Ruth Fretwell. Sweet peas were the chosen flower, and these colors, pinks, lavender and green were the effective color scheme carried out in the most attractive manner.

After the guests had greeted their charming hostess and her guests of honor, all were given a dainty little silk work bag of the chosen colors, which contained a thimble, thread and needle. Kitchen towels were distributed and while Miss Edna Broyles played many beautiful selections on the piano, the guests sewed and chatted, spending a very delightful hour. The towels which hemmed were presented to the bride elect, while each guest was given her pretty work bag, as a souvenir of this happy occasion. The guests were then invited into the dining room, which presented a rare scene of beauty. A center table, beautifully polished with lace mats, and vases of sweet peas.

From the lights above were ribbons of green, pink and lavender, suspended to the table beneath and caught with bunches of sweet peas. At the large table was the bridal party, with the other guests at small tables. An elaborate menu also prettily carrying out these dainty colors was served.

The guests for the afternoon were Mesdames Raymond Fretwell, Joe Fretwell, W. D. McLean, Frank Johnstone, J. H. Godfrey, L. L. Rice, Walter Beaty, Arthur Holman, Misses Ruth Zadle, Elizabeth, and Catherine Fretwell, Enda Broyles, Louise Ligon, Bertha Cashin, Louise Gilmer, Lois Jackson, Janie Hamlin, Anna Tribble, Lillian Brock of LaFayette, Ala, Cecilia Von Hasseln, and Ruth Watkins.

Miss Lillian Brock of LaFayette, Ala, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. D. McLean.

NEW GRAIN RATE IS REALLY AN INCREASE

MUCH CONFUSION HAS DEVELOPED OVER INTRA-STATE TARIFF

DEMAND REHEARING

The Rate Promulgated by Railroad Commission Really Higher Than Formerly.

The following from the Columbia State, of yesterday will be read with interest since the article shows that the grain rates have really been increased in South Carolina and not decreased as was thought a few days ago.

"An unusual situation has been developed in connection with the fight for milling-in-transit grain rates in South Carolina. The other day a hearing was held before the railroad commission, at which the situation was gone over. The railroads at first refused to grant the rates. Then there was some talk and some argument and finally a compromise rate was decided upon. It was stated that this was to be an emergency rate.

"In the meantime the secretary of the commission was instructed to issue the new ruling. Tuesday the ruling was prepared and a copy given to the press.

"The petitioners thought that they had effected a great saving to the farmers of the State. It was announced by W. W. Long, state agent for the United States farm demonstration work, that the rates had been materially reduced.

"Yesterday there were informal conferences in which it was alleged by several interested that some one had 'put one over' on the railroad commission. It was charged that the order as issued really raises the rates on grain shipments in practically every instance by 20 per cent.

"Norton Monsarrat, rate expert of the Columbia Chamber of Commerce, personally filed notice with the commission that he desired a rehearing on the matter.

"I have been instructed by the commission to send out the notices of the agreement to the railroads to night," said Secretary Darby, when asked by Mr. Monsarrat to hold up the letter until a further hearing.

A telegram was sent to W. W. Long at Clemson asking that he hurry to Columbia.

A GOOD EGG STORY

Some Merchants Are Rather Suspicious These Days.

Someone has been bringing bad eggs to town. That is a fact. No, no one has any idea who it is but nevertheless the merchants are suspicious and are on the lookout. Sometime it is mighty hard to convince them that the eggs are fresh and many a farmer has been tempted to throw the whole basket in the purchaser's face because of the many questions asked about just exactly when they were laid, etc.

For example we will give a story of an occurrence that happened last Wednesday morning.

A farmer walked into the store of the Anderson Cash Grocery with several dozen of eggs, which might have been better cleaned, and offered them for sale. Mr. Trammel, one of the proprietors, after examining the eggs closely, decided they were all right and was just in the act of closing the deal when Mr. Eugene Brown, bookkeeper for the firm, came out and began to scrutinize the eggs, noticing every little spot on them.

He did not like their looks and turned and asked the farmer if they were fresh. On receiving an answer in the affirmative he began inspecting again, picking up one and putting it to his ear. Just at this time he thought he heard the sound of a wee wee chick trying to break the shell. He listened and heard the sound again. He accordingly turned to the farmer and asked him again if he wasn't afraid he had made a mistake and brought the wrong eggs, where upon the gentleman was about to take up his eggs and walk out.

However, about this time Mr. Brown was called to the telephone and when he returned he again heard the sound of the little chick, then again the same sound.

No, the farmer had made no mistake and had brought good fresh eggs. The trouble was caused by a Kellogg Post Toastie company, who was standing back in the store and who is a ventriloquist. He came mighty near losing an order and the Anderson Cash Grocery came mighty near losing a customer but everything turned out all right.

It is understood that Mr. Brown is so fond of eggs and little chicks that he is going into the business, has ordered an incubator and has induced the traveling salesman to do the clucking.

Gene Gaudio, the expert imp camera man, has a great fancy for firing with death. His greatest delight is to climb to some inaccessible height with his tripod and camera and film scenes from the most unexpected positions. In "Court Martialled," one of the company snapped him just as he was about ready to turn the crank while on a flat "pearl" of a Jersey hill.

Parsley seed should be soaked for a week before sowing. It will grow seven times as quickly.

Cut flowers will keep much longer if a small piece of camphor is placed in the water of the vase.

SULPHUR DRIES UP ECZEMA AND STOPS ITCHING

This old time skin healer is used just like any cold cream.

Sulphur, says a renowned dermatologist, just common bold-sulphur made into a thick cream will soothe and heal the skin when irritated and broken out with Eczema or any form of eruption. The moment it is applied, all itching ceases and after two or three applications the Eczema disappears, leaving the skin clear and smooth.

He tells Eczema sufferers to get from any good pharmacy an ounce of bold-sulphur and apply it to the irritated parts the same as you would any cold cream.

For many years common bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the practice of dermatology and cutaneous affections by reason of its parasitic-destrorying property. It is not only parasiticidal, but also antipruritic, antiseptic and remarkably healing in all irritable and inflammatory conditions of the skin. While not always effecting a permanent cure it never fails to instantly subdue the angry itching and irritation and heal the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again appears on the skin.
