PENDELTON

The Pendleton school improvement association feels a personal loss in the removal of Miss Garlington as supervisor. It is a most decided blow, not only to the associations as a body, but to every school in the county. Miss Garlington was doing a great work, and doing it well. She infused new life into every school she visited, and has aroused unusual interest in both patrons and pupils for the welfare of both school and ground. It is surely short sighted policy to remove the agent of so much practical good.

The Fortnightly club met at the home of Miss Harris, on Wednesday afternoon. It goes without saying that every one had a pleasant time. Miss Harris is one of the most interesting and charming of the young matrons and her husband is an up-to-date farmer in every respect. This new home has a suburb view of the mountains from their piazza you can see range after range as far as the eye can see.

This from a paper strikes one as being unfortunately true. "The amaze Southern farmer gets up early at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls, puts on a pair of cowhide shoes made in Ohio, washes in a Pittsburg tub, using Cincinnati soap, and dries on a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sits down to a Grand Rapids table, eats hot biscuits made with Minneapolis flour, Kansas City Bacon and Indiana grits fried in Omaha lard, cooked on a St. Louis stove; buys Irish potatoes grown in Michigan, and canned fruits put up in California, flavored with Rhode Island spices; slaps on his old wool hat made in Philadelphia, harness his Missouri mule, fed on Iowa corn, with a New York harness, and plows his farm with an Indiana plow, then wonders why he is poor!" "but true as it is in some respects, things I am glad to say are changing. Some of the good housekeepers in this county are canning not only fruit but vegetables. I have never seen more perfect specimens of canned and preserved fruits than that put up by Mrs. John Martin, and others living near this time. Many of the farmers in this section make enough lard and bacon to last them the year around. I think and hope that the farmer is beginning to see the value of his own food.

I intend visiting some of the nearby farms and getting an account of what they really do in the way of supplying themselves with foodstuffs, raised on their own farm.

A large party of young people went on a picnic to Centerville mill. They had, so they say, a most delightful day and returned home late in the afternoon, extremely dusty, but very happy.

LEGAL NOTICES

INCOME TAX PAYERS TAKE NOTICE.

The time for making Income Tax Returns will close the 1st of July. All who fail to make income tax by that time will have to pay cost and penalty. This is from Carlton W. Sawyer, Comptroller General, at Columbia, S. C., so I would be glad to have you make these returns at once, so your Auditor will not be embarrassed.

Those who refuse to make Income Tax Returns will be compelled to do so at heavy cost. This is the law and so long as it is, I will have to enforce it for Anderson County.

Winston Smith,
Auditor.

WORK DONE FOR THE COUNTY AND PURCHASES FOR THE COUNTY

The public is again warned that only such work done on the public roads of the county as is authorized by the supervisor or one of the Board of Commissioners will be paid by the Board of Commissioners. The only persons authorized to buy material, goods, wares and merchandise for the county are the supervisor, the county commissioners, the steward of the county home and the sergeants of the chain gangs. All these parties are equipped with order books and orders must be attached to all accounts. All claims not made in pursuance of above conditions will be disapproved and payment refused.

J. MACK KING,
Supervisor.

June 4th, 1915.

NOTICE

"In order to encourage hog raising in Anderson county the Farmers and Merchants Bank will be pleased to loan money to young farmer boys to buy a pair of hogs of good strain of blood and in this way enable them to make a beginning in hog raising. We will also be glad to aid them in getting cattle of good stock to raise from. We will also aid them as far as we can in finding and purchasing the hogs and cattle. We will lend them this money at a very moderate rate of interest.

The business if properly looked after will be self-sustaining in a little while and will then become a source of profit."

"Respectfully,
"J. I. BROWNLEE,
"Cashier."

Claims Against the County.

All claims against the county must be filed with the clerk of the county commissioners on or by the 1st day of each month in order that said claims may receive attention at the next board meetings. Claims not so filed will be laid aside for thirty days.

J. Mack King,
Supervisor.

May 22, 1915.

WASTED BID FOR SYMPATHY.

"My dear," said Mr. Timball, impressively, "I read in this newspaper that a woman locked her husband out of the house because he came home late. He climbed up on the roof to sleep there and the next morning was found dead."

"Well?" queried Mrs. Trimbali.

"You've locked me out several times, you know."

"What if I did? You were in such a condition that you couldn't climb up on a footstool, so your story loses its point."

His Reason.

"This day is the anniversary of the one on which the girl I was madly in love with refused to marry me."

"Is that why you remember it with regret?"

"No; that is why I am giving thanks."

PROFESSIONAL POINT.

"Why did yer send dat new member t'rough de transom to get de awag?"

"Why, he used to be a baseball player."

"What has dat to do wid it?"

"Why, I t'ought der wouldn't be much trouble in him reachin' de plate."

It All Depends.

If a man owes you money,
He'll often forget;
But if he owes you a grudge,
He'll remember, you bet.

An Innovation.

"But why did you make the hero of our drama bald-headed?" queried the fair female with the ingrowing curiosity.

"So his hair couldn't turn white in a single night," explained the budding dramatist.

Consistently Worthless.

"My boy, I must congratulate you on your consistency."

"Thank you, sir, I er—"

"Yes, sir, you've worked here three weeks and you haven't done anything right yet."

The Real Thing.

"Is Jay with what you would call a clever man?" asked the one.

"He is," answered the other. "Why, he can pick up the best umbrella in a rack and walk off as unconcerned as if he really owned it."

Clever Deduction.

"Does Wombat own or rent his house?"

"Rents it."

"How do you know?"

"I know, all right. He scratches matches on the paint."

Underground.

Wife—You are very fussy about you food, Henry. My poor, dear, first husband used to eat uncomplainingly everything I cooked for him.

Husband—Yes, and look where he is now.

Judicious Estimate.

"Biggins takes himself very seriously."

"He's right. He has gotten himself into so many different kinds of trouble that he's perfectly excusable for being afraid of himself."

EXCELLENT LUCK.

The Hunter—I can't imagine what's the matter with me today. I haven't had a bit of luck.

The Old Scowler—Yes, ye hev, young fellow, ye just missed me by about six feet a few minutes ago.

One Consolation.

The lady smoked a cigarette. Away our tears we wiped. And said, "It might be wussier yet. She might have smoked a pipe!"

Too Busy.

"Well, you would marry her. Now you can repent at leisure."

"If I could do that I wouldn't be kicking; but she is so gorgeous extravagant that I don't have any leisure."
