SOCIETY

Palmetto Chapter.
The Palmetto chapter, U. D. C., will meet on Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock with Mrs. J. M. Sullivan, Jr., Mrs. Jake Sullivan and Mrs. Charles Spearman at the home of the former on Franklin street. This is the meeting for the annual election of officers and the members are urged to attend.

Party For Tuesday.
Miss Lella Hammelt has issued invitations for a party on Tuesday evening, at her home on West Whitner street.

For Miss Laughlin.
Miss Flora Laughlin of Vicksburg, Miss., was Mrs. R. C. Laughlin's charming honor guest yesterday morning, when she entertained at a delightful little sewing party.

Mrs. Laughlin has just finished having her home remodelled and it is most attractively arranged. The guests for Saturday morning spent most of the time on the broad cool porch, chatting while they sewed. Several members of the party gave vocal and instrumental selections that added much to the pleasure of the occasion. After the sewing was laid aside Mrs. Laughlin served an elegant two course menu. Those invited to meet Miss Laughlin were: Mesdames William Laughlin, F. B. Maxwell, W. J. Muldrow, M. L. Bonham, O. L. Martin, J. B. McGee, Misses Marguerite Henry, Linda Thompson, Anna Tribble, Frances Tribble, Alberta Brock, Jean and Floride Harris, Ruth Brownlee, Kathleen Watson of Atlanta, Hester Johnstone of Atlanta and Ella Avery.

For Two Popular Visitors.
Mrs. John Linley entertained a few young people on Friday evening at her lovely new home in North Anderson.

Her guests of honor were Miss Margaret Berry, of Birmingham and Miss Grace Tripp of Charleston.

It was a delightfully informal affair, some spending the evening dancing, others on the lawn. The music by Mrs. P. K. McCully was an attractive part of the evening, while others assisting Mrs. Linley were Mrs. George Townsend and Mrs. Elliot McCants. A dainty ice course was served by the hostess.

Mrs. J. E. Arnold and Mrs. R. W. Whaley returned to their home in Atlanta yesterday after a visit of two weeks to Mrs. H. R. Wells on River street.

In Honor of Miss Cobb.
Mrs. Rufus Gaines entertained a few friends at an informal little sewing party yesterday afternoon, for Miss Sara Cobb of Pelzer. It was very pleasant and fully enjoyed by the guests present. A delightful salad course was served.

Miss Ella Grace returned to her home at Groce yesterday after a visit at the home of Mr. R. W. Tribble.

Miss June Boyd has returned to her home in Greenville after a visit to friends here.

Miss Alleene Franks left yesterday for her home in Laurens. Miss Franks was an attendant at the Tribble-Presley wedding on Thursday evening.

Miss Samuel of Philadelphia is the guest of Mrs. Nardin Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bell of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bell in North Anderson.

Delightful Party.
Miss Edith Hubbard was the attractive hostess for about forty of her friends on Friday evening when she entertained at her home on Evans street.

Progressive conversation was selected for the amusement of the guests, and a very delightful evening it proved to be.

Mrs. Ira Giles, Mrs. Bert McCully, and Mr. Sam W. Tribble assisted the young hostess in entertaining her guests. Delightful refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Genevieve Singleton of Greenwood is visiting Misses Gladys and Lois Reece.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Smith of Greenville are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. T. L. Cely.

A Message For Every One Who Is Looking For a Home of Their Own.

I still have some fine tracts of land for sale in Anderson, Abbeville and Oconee counties.

I want to remind all who are in the market for the purchase of a farm this summer or next fall to keep me in mind. I have placed more men, young and old, on farms of their own than any other man in Anderson county.

I have the right price and can make terms to suit all purchasers. Whether you want to pay cash or on easy terms, see me before you buy and I can make it to your interest to buy from me.

I have these lands in tracts from 36 acres to 1,500 acres, therefore can get up any size tract you want.

When in town call at my office at 134 East Benson Street and let us talk over this matter with you. If you have been renting land quit that kind of business and own your own; or if you already own your farm and want more land or want to trade your farm, come in and see me.

Yours very truly,

J. J. Fretwell
