

MEN LOST BECAUSE WILL NOT LEAVE SIN

SOMETHING IN THEIR LIFE
THEY ARE NOT WILLING TO FORSAKE.

A BIG ATTENDANCE

Many People From Different Sections of County Attend Meeting Last Night.

Last night 117 people went up and shook the evangelist's hand and promised to live a better life. Another record crowd went out to hear him and the tent and seats on the outside would not accommodate the people.

There will be no services today. His text last night was John 5:40, "He would not come unto me that ye might have life."

"Jesus Christ said a great many things while He was on earth, but I believe these words were the saddest that he ever uttered. I wish you could hear the tender tones and see the loving looks when He spoke these words. It believe it would break the heart of every man and woman in the town of Anderson. He left the songs of angels and arch angels. He left heaven of all its glory and came to earth with all its shame to bring life to men. For three long years He went up and down among men proclaiming that eternal life could be obtained by simply coming to Him, but men would not come and at last He turned around upon them who had steeled their consciences and with a heart aching with disappointment, and with tones of yearning, He said, 'ye will not come to me that ye might have life.'

"Those words contained the explanation why any man is lost. If any man or woman, boy or girl goes out from this tent tonight unconverted that will be the reason. Jesus Christ offers life to every man and woman here tonight on one condition, that you come to Him, and if you go from this tent tonight without eternal life it is because you will not come to Him. No man need be lost. God has provided salvation for everybody. Millionaire and tramp, general and private, society woman and washer woman, in all walks and marks of life, the atonement of Jesus Christ covers the sins of every man. He tasted death as we are told in the Word of God for every man, and the offer of salvation is made to every man. No man is lost because of any purpose or decree of God. God has set before man life and death, blessings and cursings.

"Now I hope tonight, with the help of God, to answer a few fool excuses people offer. I do not know whether God himself would answer all or would try, but I will try to answer a few of them. The first one is sin. There are a great many men and women in this town that know their need of a Savior, who have a desire to be a Christian, but they know if they come to Him, they must leave their sins behind. A man can not come to Christ and retain his sin. You must choose between Jesus Christ and sin. Men know that, but they are not willing to give a their sins.

"One night after Mr. Moody had preached a marvelous sermon on the prodigal son and the congregation had been dismissed, an acquaintance of mine was going out and met a broad-shouldered, bright-eyed, snappy young man, and said 'Doctor, that was a wonderful sermon tonight.' He said, 'Yes, and are you a Christian?' He says, 'No, I am that prodigal son!' 'Well, the Father wants you to come home,' I know it.' 'He is looking for you,' I realize that.' 'Well, will you come tonight?' 'No, I won't, for I am held in the meshes of an awful sin, and as a result of an indulgence in it I make money out of it, and to take Mr. Moody by the hand means that I will have to give that up, and I won't do it.' And he turned his back on Jesus Christ and walked out of the church where he had been brought face to face with God's love, deliberately choosing a vile sin and death instead of Jesus Christ and eternal life.

"There are men under the sword of my voice tonight that will go away from this tent and walk down these streets with a clear view of the fact that they can come to Christ and be pardoned, but they will not come, for there is some predominating, enslaving, sickening sin on their life that is a blinding and binding and grinding and damning their life and killing their manhood that they are not willing to give up. With others it is the love of money. Many will not sacrifice a crooked business of the crooked price of an honest life. Some of you fellows will have to cut out your illegitimate business. I'll tell you I would rather walk to heaven over a rough and stony road with bare and bleeding feet than to ride to hell on dirty money. The crookedest crooks that walk the streets of Anderson are the dirty mutts that are selling these women's husbands and mothers' boys blind tiger whiskey. He is a cross between a polecat and a buzzard.

Then the evangelist went after the money bags and said that the slavery of money is just as complete and as degrading as the slavery of strong drink, and said you could reach ten all-down-and-outers where you could not reach one old financial shlylock.

"Again somebody says, I would come to Christ, but I want to have a good time. Well, so do I. You never looked into any fellow's face who has a better time than I do, but I do not have to fill myself with rat-gut liquor and go down the streets puking and spewing and whooping and squealing like a Comanche Indian or a mad house fiend. What do you think constitutes a good time? Is it crawling in the arms of infamy and cussing and swearing?

"The unadulterated cowardice keeps other men away from God. The Bible says that the fear of man brings a snare and it is bringing a snare that is leading men down to hell. When the invitation is given, multitudes know that they ought to be Christians, but they get cold feet right there and sit glued to their seats, and all heaven could not induce them to take a stand for Jesus. They are afraid somebody will laugh. They are afraid some member of the club or lodge will laugh, or some old God-forsaken whiskey degenerate will give them the horse laugh. Say, I had rather be brave and decent enough to enlist in the army and get under the flag of the Lord Jesus Christ and serve him and let some old whiskey devil here in Anderson laugh at me because I did the manly thing than refuse to do it and let the devil laugh at me through eternity, because I was not man enough to take a stand. I'll tell you there is a day coming for that gang who will laugh at you for choosing eternal life and Jesus Christ, when they will say that you made a wise choice and they were the fools. Oh! men of this town, do not let them laugh you out of eternal life."

Theatre Party.
Little Miss Mary Sadler entertained a half dozen friends at a picture show party at the Bijou yesterday afternoon. After the pictures they were entertained at Atkinson's beautiful new ice cream parlor. Her guests were: Mrs. George Eagle, Misses Ruth Keese, Sara Crayton, Wilma Huggens and Alice Allen. Each guest was presented with a hand painted card with their own name on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Graeme T. McGregor will go to Columbia today to visit relatives. Mr. McGregor will return in a week, but Mrs. McGregor, will remain for three weeks.

Mrs. Pallie Laughston leaves today for a two weeks' visit to friends in Pelzer and Greenville.

Delightful Party.
A delightful party for the younger social set was given on Thursday evening by Harry Orr, Jr., and Harmon Gelger, at the handsome home of Mr. H. A. Orr on West Market street.

The spacious home with its beautiful grounds is particularly fitted for entertaining and this occasion the lawn was bright with many Japanese lanterns. The home was filled with the fragrance of many flowers, and here the guests either danced or played cards. Delicious punch was served during the evening by little Misses Marion Gray, Charlotte and Julia Orr. Later an elegant salad course with ice was served. About forty young people were the guests for the evening.

Miss Vera McPhall of Pendleton and Miss Izotta Pruitt of Starr are the guests of Miss Francis Major at her home just south of the city.

Miss Martha Lumpkin has gone to Rock Hill to visit her grandfather.

Mr. Jefferson Lumpkin.

Beautiful Card Party.
The beautiful Elks Home on North McDuffie street was the scene of a brilliant card party yesterday afternoon, when Mrs. Charles W. Causey entertained in honor of Mrs. Bond Anderson.

Mrs. Causey is a most charming hostess, possessing a rare attractiveness of manner. Assisting her in her duties were Mrs. John E. Sadler, Mrs. W. B. Valentine and Miss Anna Ross Cunningham.

Ten tables were arranged in the handsome parlors, and many merry and interesting games were played. Miss Lillian Brock of La Fayette, Ala., won the prize, a beautiful bouquet of shasta daisies.

The hostess also presented a lovely bouquet of the same flower to her attractive honor guest. All during the afternoon delightful nectar was served by Misses Alberta Farmer, May Ligon, and ene Cunningham.

After the cards were laid aside dainty refreshments were served, several gentlemen coming in to join their ladies.

The guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames C. A. Gambrell, B. B. Gossett, S. N. Gilmer, J. C. Stripling, C. F. Ross, Keith Prevost, J. L. Gray, A. S.
