Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

Five Negroes Engaged in Row.
Five negroes, Jim Lewis, Sudie and Pauline Davis, Lena Gray and Mary Norwood, were arrested Sunday morning about 2 o'clock by Deputy Jim Williams on the Leathers road just out from town. It seems that there was a general row and these negroes were taken into custody. The two Davis women have given bond.

George Mackenzie And His Bagpipe.
George Mackenzie, who registers from Baltimore, Md., traveling salesman and advertiser for the B. Brown products, teas, spices, extracts, etc., was in the city yesterday and created much attention because of his being dressed up as a Scotch highlander and because of his bagpipe which he blew at different times. George is a true native Scotchman and he stated yesterday that the Scotch were the nerviest people in the world for it took more than ordinary nerve for anyone to go around and make a fool of himself as he was doing.

Over 4,000 Passengers Were Hauled Yesterday.
Mr. H. A. Orr, manager of the Anderson branch of the Southern Public Utilities company, stated yesterday that owing to the McLenon services the street car business in the city on Sunday showed an increase of about 33 per cent. Extra cars were run on several of the lines and the total passengers hauled numbered 4,157.

Will Have Picnic At Williamston.
The teachers, pupils and friends of the Central Presbyterian church and Sunday school will go to Williamston today on their annual picnic. The interurban cars will leave Federal street this morning, a fare of 45 cents for adults and 25 cents for children being charged.
