YORK WILL HAVE BIG CHAUTAUQUA

Gov. Manning and Other Big Men of the State on Program for Addresses.

York, July 26.—With all preliminary plans complete and arrangements well underway, it has already become evident that York's home-coming and chautauqua, to be held the first three days in September, will be the biggest event that the town has ever attempted.

Some of the principal speakers in South Carolina will come to York on the home-coming platform. Hon. Richard I. Manning, governor of South Carolina and Hon. E. J. Watson, commissioner of agriculture of South Carolina, will be the two principal speakers on the first day, which
