DR. JOHN E. WHITE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

LARGE CONGREGATION PRESENT AT PRAYER SERVICES

23 WERE BAPTIZED

And Four More Joined by Letter —Dr. White Leaves This Afternoon for Washington.

A large congregation was present at the prayer service at the First Baptist church last night to hear Dr. John E. White, pastor elect, who had charge of the meeting. Dr. White came to Anderson in order to attend the Saluda association at Starr and to get acquainted with the people of the city. He will leave this afternoon for Washington, D. C., where he will spend one day and from there he will go to Philadelphia where he will remain during the month of August, returning to Anderson September 1.

The prayer services last night were opened by singing, "Day is Dying in the West," after which Dr. White led in a short prayer.

Dr. White then read the Twenty-Two Psalm for a scripture lesson which was followed by singing "My Hope is Built on Nothing Less."

Dr. White then in a few well chosen words expressed his appreciation of the large attendance at the prayer meeting and of the warm welcome he had received since he had been in the city. He stated that he was glad that he had the pleasure of baptizing candidates last night, since his last service in Atlanta was a baptismal service.

After prayer by Dr. White, he read from the New Testament the second chapter of John and took the fifth verse as the basis of his talk, "Whatsoever He saith unto you, do it."

Dr. White said that this commandment was a good motto for the Christian to follow and was the greatest commandment Christ ever gave. He told the congregation that if Christians would follow this commandment, their lives would be full of confidence and conquest. He stated that the people of today must follow Christ as the disciples did in the days of old and make him their Master. He said that the world was crying for a master and that no power was sufficient for modern needs except that of Jesus Christ. He closed his talk by giving examples of what he had known people to do because Christ had commanded them and urged Christians to whatever He told them to do.

The services then took the form of a baptismal service and the following were baptized: Mrs. Levi Sanders, Mrs. Lida Iseman, Mrs. Annie Moore and Misses Amelia Reid, Gertrude Craft, Allie Hall, Mamie Fant, Thelma Rayson, and Messrs. W. L. Pickle, Harry Garrison, Julian King, Thomas McKinney, Sanford and Edward Vandiver, Robert Tate, Ernest G. Nix, J. F. Williams, L. H. Elwell, C. D. Hutson, Frank Gailhard, Ralph Smith, Oscar Palmer and W. M. Laboone. Most of these asked for admission to the church during the McLondon meeting.

In addition to the above, four were admitted to the church by letter.

Grandma Never Let Her Hair Get Gray

Kepi Her Lock Dark, Thick, Glossy, With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

In Honor of Miss Ligon.

A beautiful little affair for Tuesday afternoon was given by Miss Louise Ligon, in honor of Miss Lucy Ligon, a charming visitor from Spartanburg. This lovely home was an ideal setting for the prettily gowned women who were the guests for the evening.

An interesting little contest on baskets was both original and amusing. Miss Lucy Ligon winning a pretty sweet grass work basket, for the most correct answers. Music during the afternoon by Mrs. Ligon, Misses Brewer, Hunter and Henry's was greatly enjoyed by all. Each guest was given a dear little long handled basket of daisies and glowing glow as a souvenir of the afternoon. A delightful sweet course was served. Assisting Miss Ligon were Mrs. B. A. Henry, Mrs. Raymond Mattison, Mrs. C. B. Allen and Miss Alberta Brock.

The Barber Business.

Where do you get your barber work? Do you go to a first class shop run by white barbers or do you go to a negro shop and look up and down the street and if you don't see some of your friends locking dart in like a ginnie pig in its hole; and in case some one speaks to you on the subject you say he owes me and that's the only way I can collect it. Don't lie on the poor negro if your conscience hurts you that makes it worse. Some few others say that arbering is a negroes job. Why don't you go to a negro dentist to have your teeth fixed—call a negro doctor when you are sick? Would some few do that if they thought they would not be caught up with? I say let the negro shave and administer to their own color. We do not blame colored barbers, they are not to blame for they would not be in the business if it were not for the encouragement of the white man that patronizes them. The barber business is almost in a class to its self so far as mixing and doing business with negroes, bankers, doctors, merchants and in almost every line they take care of the negro trade—did you ever think of that, but how long would one stay in a white barber shop if he was to walk in and call for a shave.

I am not writing this for the customers of the white shops. I only want the people that are not, to give this a fair consideration after which if they decide to give the white shop their business we assure you that we will appreciate it. If not just be open and plain about it and say, "I love my colored barber with all my soul and body and am going to stick to him till the day I die"—and we white barbers will not bothr you any more so we will all be satisfied. There are six different shops in the city, almost on the square—if you don't like one try another.

RENEW OPERATIONS AT ASPHALT PLANT

CAR LOAD OF MATERIAL ARRIVED YESTERDAY AFTER DELAY

CONCRETE MIXER

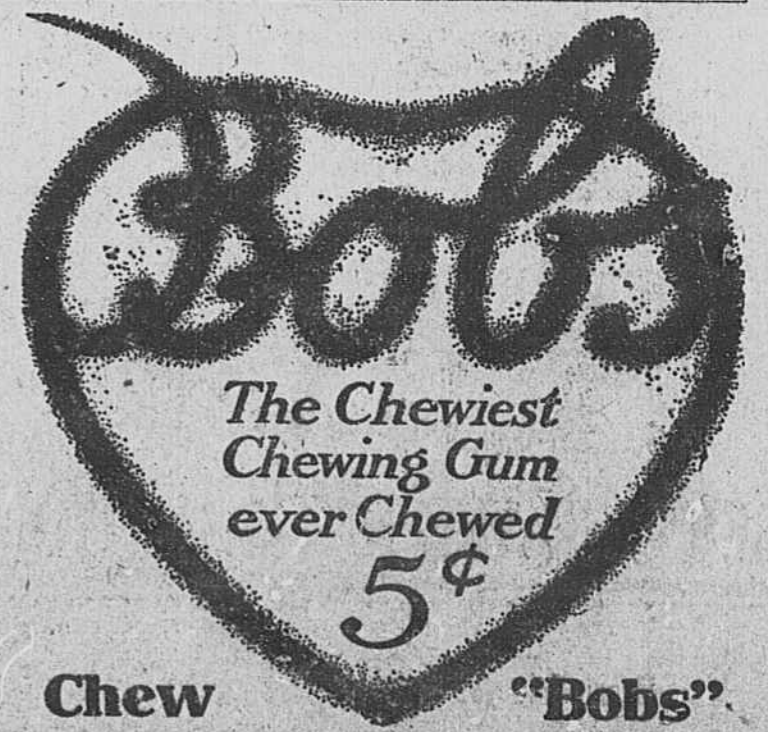

Will Also Start Work Again This Morning After Having a Day Off.

The asphalt plant will begin operations again this morning after having stood idle for the past few days because of a delay in the shipment of a car load of asphalt. The car got tied up in a wreck and arrived several days late.

This morning the finishing surface will be placed on the west end of West Market street where the binder has already been put down. No doubt many people of the city will go out there this morning to see how this surface will look.

The concrete mixer was not running yesterday but will start work again this morning. They are waiting on the street to be graded from East Whitner to the overhead bridge on McDuffie street and will begin there this morning. The grading forces are far in advance of them now and will be able to stay ahead. Another force of hands will be put to work on South Main street laying the brick as soon as the forces paving the car tracks get ahead.
