Woes of Kansas Journalists.

Your scribe is suffering with a pretty sore neck as result of his collar catching fire Sunday night, writes the Happy Hollow correspondent to the Larned Tiller and Toller. We were looking in the closet and leaned too close to the lamp. If you ever seen a busy man, that was us. Some of our would-be witty friends said it was rubber in our neck burning. A celluloid collar is dangerous as well as decorative.—Kansas City Star.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day. R. C. 25
