RARE TREAT AT THE ANDERSON THEATRE

CONCERT LAST NIGHT DELIGHTED LARGE AUDIENCE

MME. MILLER

Was Unusually Good and Was Encored Repeatedly—Others Deserve Credit Also.

Anderson has seldom had the opportunity of hearing such a treat as the concert given last evening under the auspices of the R. E. Lee chapter, U. D. C., at the Anderson theatre.

Miss Rhoda Vandiver managed the concert and in arranging and staging such a charming affair proved herself not only an artist in a musical way but an adept in management as well. All the entertainers were at their best and received hearty and merited applause. Madame Caroline Miller is the popular entertainer at Chick Springs for the season. She possesses a superb soprano voice, appeared several times on the program and was very generous with the encores which were repeatedly demanded of her.

Madame Caroline Miller first appeared in "Aria From Tannhauser" by Wagner. She next appeared by singing "For You Alone," followed by "Because of You." The latter was composed by an Anderson composer, Miss Lily Strickland, and this and the fact that the Anderson artist was singing it, caused it to be especially liked. Madame Miller appeared in several other numbers and encores. A splendid audience was present and Miss Vandiver deserves much credit for the success of the affair.

VERY DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY PARTY

Was Given in Honor of Miss Lucille Seabright, Guest of Mrs. S. N. Smith.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Smith was the scene of a delightful birthday party on Friday given in honor of Miss Merium Lucille Seabright of Cornelia, Ga., who is spending her vacation with her aunt and uncle, the host and hostess.

There was gathered together a merry crowd of young people who enjoyed themselves immensely. One of the diversions of the afternoon was the embroidering of each couple's initials on a small piece of white cloth, these pieces to be later made into a pillow cover for the one in whose honor the party was given.

The guests were invited into the prettily decorated dining room by Mr. Lois Richardson and Miss Lucille Martin. The color scheme was pink and green. Crepe paper stands of these shades decorated the table on which a large pink cake, covered with hearts and decorated with lighted candles, was to be seen. The merry crowd gathered around the table and indulged in the delightful refreshments, there being ice cream and cake in abundance.

Each of the guests was given a pretty little souvenir in the shape of a maple leaf on which August 6th, 1915 was noted, this being the birthday date. Another delightful feature of the affair was the music rendered by Miss Florida Weiborn.

Miss Seabright was unusually well remembered with many pretty gifts. The guests included Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell of Anderson and Miss Rosabelle G. Mitchell, the doctor's sister of Cincinnati, who is spending her vacation here. Mr. Oscar Stevenson was also a member of this group who motored over from Anderson. Others were Mary and Annie Smith, Edith Hutchinson, Beatie Harris, Ruth Webb, Blanche Daly, Virginia Milwee and Ada Wilson, Louise and Ruth Martin, Mattie and Louis Richardson, Grace Martin, Florida Weiborn and others.

Among the boys were D. K. N. Weiborn, Griffin Johnson, Guy Harris, Beauford Brenzler, Ernest Martin, Foy, Marcus and Augustus Craig, Carroll Huncutt, W. Bolt and Ted Smith. Mrs. Claude Smith and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Presley were also in the group.

MOUNTAIN SPRINGS.

The Masonic picnic was a grand success. Several lodges were represented. S. N. Howell of Piedmont made the welcome address, followed by Messrs. Bryan, Cooper and Hen, A. H. Dagnall.

If you have never heard these men it will do you good to hear them. Mr. Logan Heavis commercial artist of the Philadelphia Press is spending a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. W. F. Lee. The war prevented him from spending his vacation in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murphy is very sick. The tent meeting at Shiloh will close Sunday night. Large crowds have been in attendance. We hope much good will come from this meeting. Miss May Wigginton is teaching at this place, with fifty pupils on the roll.

Wilson Family Reunions. The reunion of descendants of Mr. E. C. Wilson will be held at his home in Brushy Creek township on Wednesday, August 18. All relatives by blood or marriage are cordially invited to attend.
