Will be pleased to cash one thousand notes running from $25 to $100 each that will be paid during the month of October and the first half of November.

We want them paid at maturity. We are particular about that.

We want them well endorsed. We are particular about that too.

We want to see what kind of company you keep. A man naturally asks his associates to endorse his notes—Birds of a feather flock together.

If you can make up your mind to pay your note during the month of October or the first half of November, regardless, come to see us.

SOUTHERN MILLS GET SHARE OF WAR ORDERS

Atlanta Firm Has Contract for Barbed Wire—Another to Make Shells.

Atlanta, Aug. 12.—Inquiries among Southern factories which have rather suddenly resumed operations after dull seasons have revealed the fact that Atlanta, Georgia and the south generally are beginning to get their share of war supply orders. It appears that millions of dollars will pour into this section, and that the business will last a while as indicated in the fact that several contracts extend far into 1917.

The Atlanta steel company has contracted for supplying barbed wire to the allies in a quantity that will work night and day shifts for many months and contracts are pending with several other concerns. One big Atlanta iron works is considering a proposal to turn out enormous quantities of shells, as soon as the necessary machinery can be built.

ODD BITS OF NEWS.

Altoona, Pa.—Focco Masto, 7-years, playing hide-and-seek, crawled into a big ice-cream freezer in front of a store. Rocco was wedged in so tightly he could not escape, and when rescued was almost frozen at the freezer was surrounded with ice and brine.

Plattsburg, N. Y.—Students studying the effect of alcohol on longevity, have brought to light the case of Thomas Whittington, who died at Hillington, Middlesex, in 1894, aged 104, who for years drank a pint and a half of gin as his minimum daily allowance. He retained his faculties to the last and walked three miles the day before his death. Another was George Kirton of Oxcorp Hall, Yorks, who drank abnormally all his days, yet, hunted in his 100th year and died in 1762, aged 125 years.

New York, N. Y.—Huan Seuen Mel, A. B., LL. B., has been admitted to the Federal bar in the United States District court, New York. He is the first Chinaman to win the privilege of practicing in the federal courts at New York. He is an American citizen, having been born in San Francisco.

Camden, N. J.—William A. Kortum, who died in the insane asylum recently, is said to have lost his mind as a result of a visit to Billy Sunday's tabernacle in Philadelphia last February. Mrs. Jessie Kortum, the mother, declares the youth became a religious fanatic after he had heard Sunday preach. He wandered about the streets mumbling prayers, and praising Sunday. He kept a large diary filled with well-known Sunday sayings.

Eureka, Cal.—Angus Olafson, a homesteader of South Humboldt county, when he wended his way out of his lonely camp recently, hear for the first time of the European war.

Chicago, Ill.—Thomas McNally and Charles Kurth, sentenced for life to collier in 1893, have been paroled under the new Illinois law. They had never seen an aeroplane or a movie or ridden in an automobile or on an elevated. They went into a theater, but came out in pop-eyed amazement. "Beat it quick," said Thomas, "the cher' girls are not wearing stockings!"

Chicago, Ill.—If "hubby" is irritable, distant, addicted to staying out nights or talking about the war, feed him pickles. Leonard N. Hathaway, one of America's pickle princes, declared at the Pickle Packers convention that "pickle eaters are invariably the sweetest tempered and most affectionate men and pickles sustain the home."

Two Tombs Taken.
Berlin, Aug. 12.—The Austro-Germans pursuing the Russians retreating from Warsaw have occupied Lukow, according to a German official. Zamzrowo also has been captured, the statement says.

Her Quiet Will.
He—Do you object to my lighting this cigar?
She—No, but must you go so soon?

INTEREST IN WAR TURNING TO NEAR EAST

gion and at Kovno where the Germans are making terrific sacrifices.

It seems plain the Germans don't intend to make a great demonstration in the west, but intend to press the Russian campaign to the utmost on the theory that conditions in the west are such that neither the French nor British immediately will attempt a general offensive. During the lull on the western front the British public is looking to the Dardanelles to bring relief to Passian needs, though the task of opening the straits remains difficult.

Frequent Austrian attacks on Italian positions in Cadore are reported from Rome, and declare that the Italians held all positions recently taken. On the Carso Plateau the Italians held all positions in the Sebusti zone, although admitting they were unable to hold the position of strongly fortified heights within Austrian lines, captured in a charge. In Carnia small advances are recorded.

Bulgaria Uncertain.

Paris, Aug. 12.—A Rome dispatch to the Journal des Debats says: "The general opinion here is that Serbia will answer the communication of the Quadruple Entente powers by offering to cede territory for a fixed sum, in order to avoid responsibility for the failure of the negotiations with the Balkan states regarding their participation in the war." "It is difficult to forecast the decision of Bulgaria for Greece apparently is refusing to make an concessions to Bulgaria."

Hoke Smith's Address INTERESTS GEORGIA CITIZENS

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 12.—Atlanta citizens were discussing with interest today the address made by Senator Hoke Smith yesterday in New York, when he spoke to an association of importers on the cotton situation in its relation to the British order in council which practically placed an embargo on shipments to neutral ports.

Senator Smith went thoroughly into the subject, and his address was received as the clearest exposition of international conditions the importers had heard. He is to deliver an address along the same lines at Charleston, S. C. this fall.
