THE JEWISH NEW YEAR TO BE OBSERVED SOON

5676TH YEAR OF HEBREW CALENDAR BEGINS SEPTEMBER 9TH

ITS SIGNIFICANCE

Not so Much Change of Year But Change of Life—Yom Kippur September 19th.

Jewish residents of Anderson are preparing to observe the close of the 5676th year of the Hebrew calendar, Rosh Hashanah, the Hebrew New Year, will be celebrated this year September 19, Yom Kippur, the day of atonement, will be observed. Jews all over the world observe these holy days. Rosh Hashanah is one of the most solemn feasts of the Hebrew religion.

In the Jewish tradition, the Rosh Hashanah marks the anniversary of the creation of the world, supposed to have taken place 5676 years ago. The present Rosh Hashanah, therefore, will mark the beginning of the year 5676.

Its Purpose to Rouse Israel.
The change of date, however, is of little or no importance, and if the Jewish New Year's Day had no further significance, its appeal to the Jew would be very faint indeed. It is not the change of year, but the change of life, that this day stresses, that makes it stand out as one of the holiest days in the Jewish calendar. Herein it radically differs from the civil New Year; it is a day set apart for introspection and self-examination.

The sacred character of this day is implied in the two other names by which it is known, viz. the day of memorial and the day of the blowing of the trumpets. In the first place it is the day of memorial, or remembrance. As such, it calls upon the Jew to remember the divine purpose of his life; secondly, it is the day of the blowing of the trumpets. Its purpose is to rouse Israel from his self-complacency and stir him to high resolves and nobler deeds.

Day of Atonement.
The Rosh Hashanah derives its significance from the fact that it is but the introduction to the day of atonement which follows ten days later. "Before one can realize the need of atonement," says a statement, "it is necessary that he become conscious of his shortcomings; for so long as we imagine ourselves whole, it may never occur to us that we need a physician; so long as we do not admit our painfulness, we shall hardly feel the need of being forgiven."

"Hence, to make the atonement possible, we must have Rosh Hashanah, which is also designated as the Yom Hadin—the day of judgment—the day whereon we weigh ourselves in the balance, and perforce, find ourselves wanting; for there is no righteous man upon earth that doth good always and sinneth not."
The essential ceremony of the services in the Synagogue on Rosh Hashanah is the blowing of the trumpet, in accordance with the injunction in Leviticus 23:24, which reads: "In the seventh month, on the first day of the month shall ye have a Sabbath, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, and holy convocation."

MR. L. M. FOCHE DIED YESTERDAY 2 O'CLOCK

Father of Mr. L. P. and Dr. James Fouche—Funeral This Afternoon.

Mr. Lawrence M. Fouche, a well known and highly respected citizen of Williamston, died yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 1 o'clock at Williamston, where interment will be made also.

Mr. Fouche is the father of Mr. L. P. Fouche, formerly a resident of Anderson and at one time member of the city council, and Dr. James Fouche, also a former resident of this city. The former is now making his home in Columbia, while Dr. Fouche is practicing medicine at Ninety-Six.

Yes, They Asked Him.

When William H. Crane was younger and less discreet he had a vaulting ambition to play "Hamlet," says The Kansas City Star. So with his first profits he organized his own company and he went to an inland Western town to give vent to his ambition and "try it on."

When he came back to New York a group of friends noticed that the actor appeared to much downcast. "What's the matter, Crane? Didn't they appreciate it?" asked one of his friends.

"They didn't seem to," laconically answered the actor. "Well, didn't they give you any encouragement? Didn't they ask you to come before the curtain?" persisted the friend.

"Ask me?" answered Crane. "Man they dared me!"

Surprised.

"I have just been reading the Constitution of the United States." "Well?" "And I was surprised to find out how many rights a fellow really has." —Pittsburg Post.

CHICK SPRINGS PARTY GAME OVER YESTERDAY

CLERKS OF COURT OF STATE MADE SHORT VISIT

ANNUAL MEETING

Is Being Held at Chick Springs—Several Counties Were Represented.

Several of the clerks of court of the state, who are having their annual meeting at Chick Springs, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock and spent an hour and 20 minutes here looking around. They returned to Chick Springs on the 5 o'clock Piedmont and Northern car, where they will be in session until tomorrow when they will adjourn their annual convention.

The party were shown through the court house by Mr. J. N. Pearman, clerk of court for Anderson county, and all complimented Mr. Pearman on the way he kept his office and files. After this they walked around the city, some looking up old friends and calling on them.

Among those in the party were: J. A. Tate, York; T. W. Williams, Berkeley; A. I. Barron, Clarendon; J. C. Miller, Calhoun; W. H. Duncan, Barnwell; C. L. Shealey, Lexington; Tom C. Hamer and family, Marlboro; H. L. Scarborough, Sumter; Jas. M. Caldwell, Cherokee; Harry C. Dargan, Greenville and G. L. Salley, Orangeburg.

Mr. G. W. Shealey, railroad commissioner, was also a member of the party as well as Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bedell of Opelaka, Fla., who are spending the summer at Chick Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Pearman returned to Chick Springs with the party and will return to Anderson this afternoon.

IMPORTANT MEETING CHAMBER COMMERCE

Will Be Held This Evening at 6 O'clock—Will Discuss Future Plans.

Mr. Jas. D. Hammett, chairman of the executive committee of the local chamber of commerce, has called a meeting of the board of directors, in the rooms on North Main street, for this afternoon at 6 o'clock. Mr. Hammett wishes every member to be present as the meeting is a very important one.

At this meeting the future plans of the chamber of commerce will be discussed.

RIVERSIDE CAMP IS BROKEN FOR PRESENT

Dr. and Mrs. Land Will Conduct it Again Next Year for Longer Period.

Riverside Camp, which has been so well managed by Dr. and Mrs. Land at Halley's Ferry, and which has been the mecca of lovers of camp life for the past two weeks, will be abandoned this morning by the present party.

Dr. J. N. Land was a visitor in the city yesterday and stated that the members of the party would return to their various homes this morning. For the past few days there have been about fifteen congenial people at Riverside Camp, although at times during the stay the party has numbered 30 or more.

Dr. and Mrs. Land made the special low rates of $5.00 per week for board and lodging and the camp filled a need that had long been felt in this section. Many of the people of this city went down for a few days and all were loud in their praise of the camp.

Dr. Land stated yesterday that he and Mrs. Land would conduct the camp for awhile again next summer and would in all probability have it for a month instead of two weeks.

Despondency Due to Indigestion.
"About three months ago when I was suffering from indigestion which caused headache and dizzy spells and made me feel tired and despondent, I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Geo. Hon. Macedon, N. Y. "This medicine proved to be the very thing I needed, as one day's treatment relieved me greatly. I used two bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and they rid me of this trouble." For sale by all dealers.

A certain newspaper artist, noted for his large feet as well as his facility with the pencil, sat down to have his shoes polished.

"Give me a fine shine, Tony," he said to the operator. "I'm going to see a pretty girl and want to make a hit."

When the contract was completed and payment made Tony said: "Say boss, if youse doesn't make a hit wid dat skirt it won't be because you doesn't shine downstairs."—Literary Digest.
