James Visits the Country.
A 10-year-old lad by the name of James Something had his first glimpse of country life last Summer, says The Cleveland Plain Dealer. He learned a lot of new things about what a cow or sheep or a colt will do or will not do under a given set of circumstances, but he got the greatest surprise of his rural sojourn when he walked by a swampy place, on morning and saw a bunch of cat-tails growing.

He took one more look to make sure he saw right and then he broke into a lunge for the farmhouse.

"Say," he yelled out excitedly at his farm host, "I never knowed them things growed on long stems like that! I've et a lot of 'em, but I never seen 'em growing before. Do they all grow that way?"

The farmer asked him what he was talking about.
"Why, them sausages," he replied. "Ain't you noticed 'em?"

"Are you in favor of peace?" asked Mr. Dolan. "I am that," replied Mr. Rafferty. "But I pick my company for the enjoyment of it."—Washington Star.

MR. OBADIAH DUGAN'S ADDRESS LAST NIGHT

SPOKE ON WORK OF STAR GOSPEL MISSION IN CHARLESTON

DOING GREAT WORK

Has Been in Active Operation for Past Eleven Years—Mr. Dugan Leaves Today.

Mr. Obadiah Dugan, superintendent of the Star Gospel Mission, Charleston, who is in the city on a visit to his son, Mr. Ernest Dugan, made an address at the prayer meeting at St. John's church last evening, which was very interesting and was well received. Mr. Dugan talked of his work in Charleston, where he has done so much for the poor and destitute.

Eleven years ago Mr. Dugan converted a building formerly used as the "Star Theatre," devoted to burlesque shows and boxing matches into quarters for the Star Gospel Mission, and it has been in active operation ever since. The work of helping homeless destitute men has never flagged during that time. The Mission has given material aid in the shape of food, clothing, etc., but most of all has the salvation of the souls of the men been urged.

The value and utility of the Mission as an economic and uplifting influence is now conceded by every citizen in Charleston and elsewhere by those who know anything about its workings.

Every day the Gospel Mission does deeds of kindness, either in giving food or clothing to the poor, starting some on the road to an honest living or bringing some soul to Christ, which is the main object.

In connection with the Mission there is the Ladies Auxiliary, an organized group of faithful Christian women, devoted to benevolent and charitable work. They take an active interest in cases of illness or misfortune which may be brought to their attention and this auxiliary is an important adjunct to the Mission. Mrs. Obadiah Dugan is president of the Ladies Auxiliary.

Every year picnics for the poor are given and there are always great successes. Joy rides are given to the children and dinners are given on Thanksgiving Day and at Christmas time.

A dormitory is kept up for men who are down and out and who have no place to stay. The report of the Free Shelter from April 1914 to April 1915 is interesting. It is as follows:

Men applying to mission.....1340
Lodging furnished.....5876
Meals given.....14,610

Tuesday the Gospel Mission was host to about 300 persons, on the occasion of its eleventh annual free harbor excursion. The trip proved to be a most enjoyable one and the excursionists were given a three and one-half hour ride around the harbor.

The work of the mission is kept up by money given by subscriptions and among those giving to its support are some of the most prominent citizens of the state. It is no longer an experiment but a success, and the hearts of the people are with it.

Mr. Dugan leaves this morning for his home in Charleston.

DEATHS

Death of a Child.

Catherine, the 2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Moore, No. 5 Harris street, Orr Mill died at the home of her parents Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the home and interment made at the Orr Mill cemetery.

DEATH AT WALHALLA.

Miss Elizabeth Alexander, Aged 67 Passed Away at the Home of Her Sister.

Walhalla, Aug. 18.—Miss Elizabeth Alexander, aged 67, died Monday at noon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Susan M. Hunsinger, at Conners, three miles south of Walhalla. Miss Alexander had been ill for about ten days, and her death was not unexpected. Yesterday afternoon, after funeral services by her pastor, Rev. L. D. Mitchell, her remains were laid to rest in the family burial ground. Miss Alexander, of Oconee county, and Marshall L. Alexander, of Oklahoma, and one sister, Mrs. Susan M. Hunsinger, with whom she resided. She was a woman of most estimable Christian character.

Was Good Meeting.

A protracted meeting at Mount Central Baptist church Tuesday evening, services being conducted by the Rev. W. B. Hawkins. There were 35 additions to the church.

Where You Pay Less

Ladies! Look Young, Darken Gray Hair

Use the Old-Time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.
