SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good."

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By O. E. BELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 29

GOD'S CARE OF ELIJAH.

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 17:1-14
 GOLDEN TEXT—Casting all your anxiety upon him, because he careth for you. 1 Peter 5:7 R. V.

We now skip thirty to forty years to consider the first of those great prophets whose lives are recorded at length. Samuel and David fought animals, armies and giants, but these men fought engagements in the moral and spiritual realm of equal and greater importance. Emphasize Elijah as a real live flesh-and-blood hero. His work was with the northern kingdom and he probably first met Ahab at Samaria, his capital in 912 B. C. (2) The Moabite stone (A. D. 1868) is a remarkable confirmation of the Bible story of this period.

I. The Challenge, v. 1. The lesson is a great illustration of faith. Sin had again made vast inroads upon the people (ch. 16:30-33) and this "man of the hour," whose name means "Jehovah My Strength," (1) saw the conditions; (2) responded to the need, and (3) had faith in his cause because it was that of Jehovah. The source of his faith was the word of the Lord God (Deut. 11:18; 32:20). He that "liveth" and before whom the prophet stood in daily, hourly communication. Elijah was a man with a mission (Matt. 28:19) who trusted in God and considered it safe to obey. His power, "according to my word," was in ratio according to his life of faith (Rom. 10:17). He was also a man of prayer James 5:17) and showed his faith by his works (James 2:17, 20, 26).

II. The Command, vv. 2-7. Elijah's faith was not audacious. He took each step as commanded by God (v. 2). There is a time for seeming retreat as well as for the spectacular charge. Elijah's first place of testing was "Cherith," a gorge to the east of the river Jordan. This command was contrary to human reason. "Would it not soon be involved in his prophesied drought?"

Again, ravens frequently feed upon carrion, and he knew all the regulations regarding cleanliness. Thus to be secluded would prevent his observing the effect of the drought upon both king and people. Still the command is explicit. It was "there" (v. 4), and there only, that Jehovah was to save. The miracle of saving was to be wrought under the most adverse circumstances and by the most unlikely means. "So he went." Having faced the peril, God bled him to preserve him, and at the proper time God also revealed him (ch. 18:12). It was a daily testing for Elijah at Cherith, thus to be fed and to see the water evaporating, but it was a time of communion and after the brook was dry there came a new command (vv. 8, 9).

III. The Continued Deliverance, vv. 8-16. Zarephath was (Luke 4:26) in the dominions of Jezebel's father, on the coast of the Mediterranean sea between Tyre and Sidon, a dangerous journey for Elijah through Ahab's kingdom (ch. 18:10). The word Zarephath means "smelting furnace," and it too was suffering from this same famine. Commanded to hide in Cherith Elijah is told to "dwell" in Zarephath and that a widow was to be the agent to supply his need. Again Elijah's pride had to be overcome for there were abundant reasons for disliking such a journey, such an abiding place and such a dependence upon a poor widow. Elijah, however, "arose and went," a continuance of his life of obedience. He first asked for water and as she went he added his request for food. It was a particular widow to whom he was sent (Luke 4:25-27) and through her God was ready to work a miracle of salvation on his behalf. Though about to prepare what she thought was to be her own and her son's last meal (v. 12), yet she at once proceeds to obey the command of the man of God as it was conditioned upon the word of Jehovah (v. 14). God, through his prophets, has commanded us, given us assurance and promised to sustain (Phil. 4:19), yet we hesitate. "She went and did" the seeming impossible, but according to the word of command, and those of "her house did eat many days." Obedience saved her own, her son's and the prophet's lives. There is sound philosophy in Prov. 11:24 which found its complete fulfillment in Jesus who "came not to be ministered unto but to minister." Read carefully; Prov. 5:7-10 and II Cor. 9:8-11. As with the Israelites in the wilderness the supply was only from day to day (v. 16) nothing ahead, no accumulation, yet a perpetual supply because based on "the word of the Lord" (v. 16).

God worked this miracle: (1) to uphold and to preserve his chosen messenger for his great work in Israel; (2) to show his loving kindness and sustaining grace to the poor; (3) to strengthen the faith of his prophet against his spectacular conflict on Mt. Carmel; (4) to the end that he might show Israel and all others down through the ages a great object lesson of his sustaining grace and providence.

The widow's "two mites" are fitting church treasures today, and Mary's box of ointment has filled all Christendom with its aroma and fragrance. Providence is progressive.

TRYING TO ESTABLISH CITY DELIVERY ROUTE

POSTMASTER LAUGHLIN MADE ANNOUNCEMENT YESTERDAY MORNING

WILL NAME STREETS

And Number Houses Before This Can be Done, Which is Required by Department.

Yesterday morning Postmaster Laughlin announced that he was going to try to get city free delivery for the Brogan, Equinox and the Twine Mills. He stated that he did not know whether he would succeed or not but was going to make a big effort.

One of the biggest obstacles that is in the way for the present is the fact that the streets at the Twine Mills are not named and the houses not numbered. This will have to be done before the route can be established and it is thought that efforts to have this work done will be started right away. This is required by the post-office department before they will establish a route.

It can readily be seen why this is necessary. If the streets are not named and the houses not numbered, the carrier would probably not be able to deliver all the mail just right and there would always be complaints coming in to the postoffice all the time. Mr. Laughlin stated that he did not see any reason why this proposed route could not be established. One man can cover the entire territory and it would certainly be an advantage to the operatives at these mills.

DEATHS

Funeral This Afternoon.

The body of J. H. Hardy, the young man who was killed by an automobile at Marietta, Ga., reached the city yesterday afternoon. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock instead of 4 as first announced, at Oakwood church, conducted by Revs. W. B. Hawkins and L. M. Smith. Interment will be made at New Prospect, six miles west of the city.

Mr. Hardy is survived by three brothers, H. C. Hardy of Statham, Ga.; M. P. and A. D. Hardy of this city; also two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Moorehead and Miss Maud Hardy of Anderson.

Injured by Fall.

Kenneth Gossett, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Gossett of Murray avenue, fell on a motorcycle yesterday afternoon in front of the residence and was badly bruised about the face and shoulder but not seriously injured.

Cherishing.

Mistress—I shall be very lonely, Bridget, if you leave me.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'if this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured." writes J. H. Berry & Co., Mt. Creek, Va. For sale by all dealers.
