THE EPWORTH LEAGUE IN SOCIAL MEETING

ATTENDANCE GOOD AND WAS MUCH ENJOYED BY ALL PRESENT

IS BEGINNING

Of a Period of Growth and Prosperity in Anderson League Socials.

The Epworth League social last evening was quite a success. The program was carefully prepared and well carried out. The lawn at the rear of the church was decorated with beautiful Japanese lanterns, chairs were arranged in couples under these and everything was in readiness awaiting the arrival of the guests.

About eight-thirty the young folk began to arrive, and soon about twenty couples were enjoying the many pleasant things that had been prepared for them by the social committee of the league. The evening was spent largely in conversation. Each person present was given a chance to meet all those whom they had not had the pleasure of meeting. Later in the evening a sandwich course was served. This was one of the most profitable as well as the most pleasant meetings the league has held in some time and the members intend to let this be only the beginning of a period of growth and prosperity in the league circles.

EVERYTHING POINTS TO FUTURE PROSPERITY

MR. GEORGE BAILES IS OPTIMISTIC ON HIS RETURN

MONEY IS EASY

Goods Not So Plentiful Especially Woolens—New York Full of Buyers.

"I found an advance in prices of all woolens but cotton goods are plentiful and reasonable," stated Mr. George H. Bailes, proprietor of The Bee Hive who has just returned from a two weeks stay in New York where he bought a fall and winter stock of goods. Mr. Bailes is one of the largest buyers in Anderson, and because he buys so many different kinds of goods, he probably comes in contact with more wholesale dealers in New York than any other man from this section.

"Yes, the cotton goods are cheap and the woolens scarce. The wool supply is short and so is the dye, both of which play their part in this condition. Nevertheless, the goods were there and are as pretty in pattern as ever before, purples, pinks and shades, pinks and lavenders being much in evidence. Flues are still very popular and bright shades are the things for evening dresses.

"You might add," continued Mr. Bailes, "that I saw more buyers in New York than ever before and all of these and the dealers too, are expecting and preparing for a big business. In some cases I found goods scarce and money was no object. Last year some of the dealers were not so anxious to sell their goods on credit but this year money is easy and they are glad to sell on any terms. Everything in general points to prosperity in my opinion."

REVIVAL SERVICES AT MIDWAY CHURCH

BEGAN LAST NIGHT AND MUCH INTEREST BEING SHOWN

ANDERSON PEOPLE

Are Asked to Attend and Those Having Automobiles Asked to Carry all They Can.

The protracted services at Midway Presbyterian church, which is located near the Hammond place, were begun last evening under most flattering circumstances. The crowd was large and much interest was manifested from the very beginning. Rev. Charles R. Bailey of Greenville will arrive today and will preach morning and evening during the week.

Dr. Frazer, who has this work in charge, wishes to see the Presbyterians from Anderson present at the night services and the suggestion is made that those who have automobiles fill them and drive out to the night services. Members of both the Central and First churches are asked to adopt this suggestion. All are cordially invited to be present at any and all of the services, which are held each day at ten o'clock in the morning and eight o'clock in the evening.

WHAT WILL BE DONE WITH CITY'S MULES?

THIS QUESTION WAS BEFORE COMMITTEE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

TOOK NO ACTION

Four Bids Were Opened and Considered—Will City Rent Barn or Let Out to Contract?

A committee composed of the following members of city council, Messrs. Carter, King and Dobbins, met yesterday afternoon at five o'clock for the purpose of opening bids which had been submitted for the keep of the mules of the city. The bids were opened and examined but no action was taken.

It is a question whether the city shall rent stables or a barn and feed the mules with feed bought by the city or whether they be put out to some livery stable man or others on a contract, these men or man to feed and keep them for a certain specified sum monthly.

The committee has not yet decided about the matter.

Bids were submitted by Messrs. J. S. Fowler, J. P. Hardin, Clarence Osborne and Cann.

To Meet at Eureka.

The members of Eureka Baptist church are requested to meet next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock to attend to business of importance.

DR. AND MRS. WHITE WELCOMED TO

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES FIRST BAPTIST SUNDAY NIGHT

GOOD ATTENDANCE

By People Representing all Congregations in Anderson—Dr. White's Response Splendid.

On Sunday night the First Baptist church was filled to overflowing with people representing all denominations in the city to welcome the church's new pastor and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. John Ellington White to Anderson. The services were very impressive and will long be remembered, all of the speakers having words of welcome and praise for the new preacher who has just begun his work in the church which has a larger congregation than any other in the city.

Mrs. O. L. Martin was in charge of the music and had arranged a very beautiful as well as an impressive program. All choirs from the other churches took part in the singing and their voices blended in harmony as those coming from a well trained chorus. Mrs. Martin was assisted in the instrumental part of the program by Messrs. Webb, Tom Haaslein and Witt McCauley, whose ability as musicians is well known in Anderson. Besides the chorus there was a duet by Mrs. R. S. Ligon and Mr. Sam Orr Tribble which was very beautiful and appropriate.

Speakers representing various religious organizations in the city and state delivered words of welcome to the new pastor and his wife and these alone were enough to make them feel perfectly at home in Anderson. Prayer was offered by Dr. J. M. Garrison, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church after which the Rev. J. W. Speake, pastor of St. John's Methodist church, read the scripture lesson.

This was followed by a word of welcome from Mayor J. H. Godfrey, representing the people at large. He congratulated the congregation of the First Baptist church and the people generally in having secured such a man as Dr. White and stated that his personality and family would be a great asset to the city.

Judge John E. Breazale followed Mr. Godfrey and welcomed Dr. and Mrs. White in behalf of the Sylvania Baptist association of which he is president. He stated that the work of the association was familiar to Dr. White and he invited him at all times to take a hand in all that was going on.

Dr. Z. T. Cody of Greenville, editor of the Baptist Courier, extended to Dr. White a welcome from the Baptist people of South Carolina. He stated that as the president of the State Baptist association he was glad to welcome Dr. White to the organization and burdens of the organization. He stated that he knew Dr. White would be willing to bear his part of the burdens of the association and that whenever they came he was going to turn over his share to him.

Dr. W. H. Frazer, representing the ministerial union of the city, spoke next. He declared that the Ministerial union welcomed Dr. White because of the fact that he was the leader of the church whose welfare meant so much to the city of Anderson and the cause of Christianity in this section. He also stated that he looked upon the new minister as a blessing and a Godsend to the individual members of the Ministerial union, and one whose counsel and fellowship would be invaluable.

Dr. James P. Kinard spoke in behalf of the institution of which he is president and which is dear to the hearts of all true Andersonians. He spoke of Dr. White's reputation as being that of one who is deeply interested in the education of young women and one who would always be willing to help Anderson college. He stated that the college was especially proud to have a man such as Dr. White so near and that it was with a peculiar gratitude that he extended a welcome to him for the institution.

Mr. B. Frank Mauldin spoke a word of welcome in behalf of the congregation of the First Baptist church and pledged for them that encouragement and co-operation which is so necessary for the success of a pastor.

Dr. A. L. Smothers, superintendent of the First Baptist church Sunday school, spoke in its behalf and stated that it was indeed fortunate in having Dr. White connected with it.

Dr. Smothers was followed by Mr. R. S. Ligon, representing the organized Bible classes of the various churches of the city. He spoke of the great work being done by these classes and the part they were playing in the christianity of today.

Dr. White responded most appropriately to all the speeches. He stated that his great motive in coming to Anderson was clearly absorbed as he spoke of the opportunity of building up a powerful church, exerting a mighty influence, in a city the size of Anderson. He declared that it was much more possible to do such a work here, and to leave the impress of one's life and labors than in a large city.

He said that standing on the street corners and watching the crowds pass by is not coming into helpful touch with them and leaving the impress of his life upon them. That is easier in a city the size of Anderson than in a larger place. His words of response made every one present feel the blessing that Anderson is securing in the coming of this great man of God.

After Dr. White's response, Mr. C. S. Sullivan, who presided so effectively through the long and varied program spoke a few well chosen words and the congregation arose and sang "How Firm a Foundation," after which Rev. B. W. Todd, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church pronounced the benediction.
