Miss Curl kept a private school, and one morning was interviewing a new pupil.

"What does your father do to earn his living?" the teacher asked the little girl.

"Please ma'am," was the prompt reply, "he doesn't live with us. My mamma supports me."

"Well, then," asked the teacher, "how does your mother earn her living?"

"Why," replied the little girl, in an artless manner, "she gets paid for staying away from father.—Argonaut.

DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN SESSIONS COURT

MURDER CASE OCCUPIED NEARLY THE ENTIRE DAY

NOT FINISHED YET

But all Witnesses Have Been Examined of Which There Were 31.

Nearly the entire day in the court of general sessions yesterday was occupied with the case of George and Henry Lathome charged with murder. Yesterday afternoon when court adjourned at 5:30 o'clock all of the witnesses, both of the state and of the defense had been examined and this morning the arguments on both sides will be made.

This case was marked by the many witnesses to be examined; there were 13 for the state and 18 for the defense. There was nothing unusual about the testimony of any of them. The case is expected to go into the hands of the jury some time during the morning.

The first thing done yesterday morning was the conclusion of the Oscar Corley case, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. The negro put up his own defense and made his own speech to the jury. He was found guilty and was sentenced to twelve months hard labor.

During the day Leola Waite plead guilty to violation of the dispensary law and was sentenced to three months which is suspended after the 17th inst. during good behavior. She had already spent a long time in jail.

Yesterday morning the following bills were returned by the grand jury: William Farmer, adultery, true bill.

L. N. Jolly, murder, true bill. J. P. McCann, housebreaking and larceny, true bill.

Leola White, violation of the dispensary law, true bill.

During the afternoon the following bills were returned: Henry Walker, housebreaking and larceny, true bill.

O. M. Patterson, violation dispensary law, true bill. Roy Henderson, burglary, true bill. The Frank Hudgens case will be taken up during the day.

TWO PROHIBITION MEETINGS TONIGHT

FIRST AT BAPTIST CHURCH AT 7:30—THEN COURT HOUSE 8:30

LARGE ATTENDANCE

Will D. Upshaw, the "Georgia Cyclone," Will Be in Anderson.

"The Georgia Cyclone," known also as the "Georgia Orator on Crucifixes," and in reality, Will D. Upshaw, who has been touring South Carolina during the past three weeks in the cause of prohibition, will close his remarkable campaign in this section Friday night at the court house. From all reports Mr. Upshaw is a powerful speaker. Everywhere he has spoken in this state he has fired his audiences by his eloquence, supported by the strength of his arguments against the liquor traffic. Converts by the hundreds have been won for prohibition. The old saying, now grown so trite, "prohibition does not prohibit" has been knocked out of the box, in fact made to occupy its place among the obsolete idioms, by the arguments of this tremendously effective campaign. Mr. Upshaw does not indulge in abuse—truth and logic are his mainstays, and the eloquence of the man carries convictions to his hearers.

At 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night Mr. Upshaw will speak at the Second Baptist church on the subject: "Labor and Dispensary Liquor." Then he will drive to the court house in an auto at 8:30 and speak on "A Stainless Flag," or "Rattlesnakes, Pole Cats, Dispensaries and the Devil."

The court house rally under the auspices of the local pastors will be presided over by Rev. J. W. Speake, Dr. John E. White, the brilliant new pastor of the First Baptist church will make the opening address and introduce the "Georgia cyclone." A dollar bill is offered to the person who sleeps.
