

The New Tennis Doubles Champions.

JOHNSTON
GRIFFIN

William M. Johnston. Clarence J. Griffin. T. C. Bundy. Maurice E. McLoughlin.
William M. Johnston shone again as a tennis champion when with the help of Clarence J. Griffin he beat Maurice E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy for the tennis doubles championship at Forest Hills, L. I. The day before he had won the singles championship by beating McLoughlin in the final of the tournament. He and Griffin challenged McLoughlin and Bundy for the tennis doubles championship and won after a struggle.
Johnston, twenty years of age, is the sensation of the year in tennis, just as was McLoughlin when he began to shine. Like McLoughlin he is a Californian. So is Griffin. Thus all the tennis championships are held by Californians.

You can play P. A. both ways!

Prince Albert is a regular double-header for a single admission; a two-bagger with the bases full and two out in the ninth! Yes, sir, it pleases the jimmy pipe smoker just as it satisfies the cigarette roller! You can't put P. A. in wrong, because it has everything any man ever hankered for in the tobacco line! The patented process fixes that—and takes out the bite and parch!

Now, you listen to this nation-wide smoke news, men, because we tell you P. A. will come across like it was an old friend. You'll get fond of it on the first fire up, it's so good, and so cool, and so chummy!

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

just let's you go-to-it all the day long without a come-back! And you don't have to take a correspondence course in tobacco smoking to understand how to smoke P. A. You take-to-it, natural like!

We tell you Prince Albert will put new joykinks into your palate! If you roll 'em, P. A. will sound a new note as to just how good the makin's can be! Realize that men everywhere—all over the world—are smoking Prince Albert tobacco. That certainly ought to put a lead-me-to-it whisper in your ear!

Prince Albert is sold everywhere in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c, and in handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors; also, in that dandy pound crystal-glass humidor with the sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco at the high point of perfection.

Objected to Paying Twice.
"Look here, waiter. Eighty cents is an outrageous price for a portion of asparagus."
"Yes, sir, but you see, sir, we're putting on a very expensive cabaret show, and—"
"I know all about the cabaret show. I paid for that with the soup."—Kansas City Times.

Shrewd Dentist.
Rankin—Isn't that Dr. Riggsdore, the wealthy dentist?
Phyle—Yes.
Rankin—I wonder why he is eating his meals in this restaurant.
Phyle—He always patronizes the restaurant during the blackberry pie season so he can pick out the people whose teeth need drilling.—Judge.

None Equal to Chamberlain's.
"I have tried most of all the cough cures and find that there is none that equal Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes W. V. Harnor, Morris-peller, Ind. When you have a cold give this remedy a trial and see for yourself what a splendid medicine it is. For sale by all dealers.

"What did Joan of Arc wear?"
"She wore," answer the girl at the foot of the class, "a suit of steel, trimmed with sheet iron, and cut along rather severe lines."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Sergeant—Now, then don't you know how to hold a rifle?
Private—I've run a splinter in my finger.
Sergeant (exasperated)—Oh you have, have you? Bin scratchin' yer head, I suppose.—Exchange.

No Danger.
Doctor—I am sorry to say, Mrs. O'Flanagan, that your son is suffering from gastritis.
Mrs. O'Flanagan—Shure, doctor, an' that can't be! Divil a bit do we burn anything but paraffin candles in this house.—Exchange.

What do you think, my dear? Mr. Smartlett says he could use my head in his business.
"I haven't a doubt of it. He manufactures concrete."—Buffalo Express.

Making Ready for Another Big Wheat Crop.

(From the Wichita Times.)
Even before the heavy rains of this week had fallen thousands of acres of wheat lands throughout this and adjoining countries had already been plowed and harrowed ready to be sown to wheat, and we may expect the largest acreage planted to wheat this fall than ever before. Much of the plowing was done by tractors, which do the work whether the ground is soft or not. Now that more than four inches of rain has fallen during the week it will make it so that those who have not provided themselves with tractors can do their early fall plowing with their teams and do it with comparative ease. The acreage planted to wheat last fall in Wichita county was estimated at about 80,000. This fall it will be much greater.

His Wife—"Never mind if you have lost everything. You still have me."
Mr. Bustup—"But you're not an asset. You're a running expense."—Judge.

Salts If Backache And Kidneys Hurt

Stop Eating Meat for a While If Your Bladder is Troubling You.
When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and logy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowel, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water reads and you are obliged to urinate two or three times during the night.
Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the woman's constitution, and help build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.
