Beautiful Affair for Miss Tribble.
A beautifully planned affair for yesterday afternoon was given by Miss Alberta Brock complimentary to the charming bride-elect, Miss Anna Tribble. It was a "Banquet de la Fete," and was a most unique and delightful occasion. The whole house was a bower of pink roses that presented a scene of rare loveliness. As soon as the guests arrived they were invited into the handsome dining room where the following dainty menu was served:
"Pink roses for the body, cocktail ala Peacock, green plum sherry, grape juice, hot chicken pie, palmato style, H. M. T. asparagus, cheese ala 'Anna,' chips off the old block, Salad ala Matrimony, Honey Moon sandwiches, country crackers, Lovers Delight Kiss Cake, T. B. Mints, Champagne ala Ginger Ale, Cigarettes ala Candy."
Miss Brock acted as toast mistress, and the following charming and attractive little toasts were given: "Matrimony," Miss Bettie Lawrence; "Marriage Bliss," Mrs. Q. Frank Johnson; "Love," Miss Anna Tribble.
Each of the guest joined in little "final toasts of good wishes for the pretty bride. Miss Brock's guests were: Mrs. G. Frank Johnson, Miss Ruth Watkins, Miss Bettie Lawrence, Miss Catherine Sullivan, Miss Frances Tribble, Miss Lou Nells McGee and Miss Elizabeth Fratwell.

Worth Their Weight in Gold.
"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and found them to be just as representative, a quick relief for headaches, dizzy spells and other symptoms denoting a torpid liver and a disordered condition of the digestive organs. They are worth their weight in gold." writes Miss Clara A. Driggs, Elba, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.

In Lighter Vein.
"She threatened to throw hot water in my face," said a school attendance officer, referring to a woman who had been summoned in respect of the truancy of her child. "You must not throw hot water," the judge told the defendant. "You can heap coals of fire on his head, if you like."—Seattle Star.

None Equal to Chamberlain's.
"I have tried most all of the cough cures and find that there is none that equal Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes W. V. Harner, Montpelier, Ind. When you have a cold give this remedy a trial and see for yourself what a splendid medicine it is. For sale by all dealers.
