NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages

Oh! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hacking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stoned up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils. Let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

COMPLETING DETAILS OF BIG CELEBRATION

MANY PEOPLE APPEAR INTERESTED IN THE EVENT

BOOKS OPEN AGAIN

And All Those Who Wish to Join Farmers Society Better Do So at Once.

"Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern railway, and John C. Calhoun are among the new life members received into the Pendleton Farmers' society," declared Col. J. C. Stribling, president of the society, a business president in the city yesterday. "Our list of life members is growing daily, and our list of regular members is making a greater stride."

Col. Stribling says that the society has decided to reopen the books for receiving new members for $1 each, the books to remain open for one week longer, commencing yesterday morning. "The books closed last Friday, but we have received several requests for persons to be taken in at the old rates, so we decided to throw the books open to the public for a while longer. We have decided to throw the books open to the public for a while longer. We have made arrangements with the publishers of the centennial souvenirs to hold the books off the press for another week, and the names of the new members received during this week will be published in the souvenir edition of the magazine," continued the colonel. "The special rate for the week is $1, which includes a copy of the history of the society, the centennial souvenir magazine and a copy of the proceedings of the celebration, which will be put in book form."

"We have made an appropriation to engage the services of an expert stenographer who will take down in detail the proceedings of the celebration. All of the speeches will be taken down and transcribed and published in this report, and all reports will be taken down and carried in the reports. This report will be in the nature of a second or after celebration souvenir," said Col. Stribling.

"We hope that the number of members living in Anderson city will be materially increased during this week. We of the society are a least bit disappointed because of the few members we have in this city," continued Col. Stribling. "You know that it is a fact that the city of New York has more members than the city of Anderson; that the city of San Francisco has more members, and that Seneca has twice as many members. Clemson college also leads Anderson. Mr. J. R. Vandiver is at the head of our finance committee, and I am sure that he will gladly receive applications for membership in the society."

Many people inquire how Pendleton will be able to house and feed the great number of visitors expected at the centennial celebration. Col. Stribling says that the various organizations in Pendleton are preparing to serve dinners and lunches and that temporary restaurants will be opened. "Capt. Anderson has again assured me that the Blue Ridge railway will operate as many trains as needed to bring the visitors down to Anderson or carry them to other points late in the evening, and will furnish enough trains to carry them back to Pendleton next morning," said Col. Stribling.

Col. Stribling greatly appreciates the following letter received from John C. Calhoun:

"Owing to absence I am just in receipt of your very kind letter inviting me to attend the centennial celebration of the Pendleton Farmers' society on October 12-14th.

"It gives me pleasure to accept, not only on account of the interest I take in so old an organization to which both my father and grandfather belonged, but the interest I personally take in the development of the agricultural resources of the south."

"Unless something unforeseen happens I shall be with you on the dates mentioned."

During the past few days the following named gentlemen have announced themselves as candidates for honorary membership in the Farmers' society: G. W. Gignilliat, Seneca; J. C. Stribling, Pendleton; J. N. Harper, Clemson college; E. M. Aull, Astor; H. W. Barry, Clemson college; W. H. Mills, Clemson college; M. M. Hunter, Pendleton; J. L. Sward, Anderson; Earle Sloan, Charleston; W. M. Riggs, Clemson college; F. M. Cary, Seneca; F. J. Pelzer, Charleston; Wyatt Aiken, Abbeville; Jasper Adams Campbell, New York; W. O. Easley, Clemson college; Fairfax Harrison, Washington; H. C. Stribling, Liberty, and John C. Calhoun, New York.

Col. Stribling is advised by Capt. John R. Anderson that arrangements have been made by which the exhibit of the state agriculture department will be brought from Columbia to Pendleton free of charge.

Furman Smith, the seedman, advised Col. Stribling today that he has engaged large store room quarters in Pendleton during the centennial celebration for farm product exhibits. Mr. Smith says that he will gladly assist any farmer in preparing exhibits for the celebration, and will furnish room free of charge for the exhibits. He invites inquiries from the farmers who are interested.

DELIGHTFUL SUPPER ANDERSON PAINTERS

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT IN INTEREST OF TRADE REPRESENTATIVES

From Big Concerns in Anderson and Made Talks to Men—Was Splendid Affair.

Mr. C. M. Guest, the paint man, and representatives of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company and of the Paton Paint company, had a "get-together" meeting of the painters of the city last night followed by a supper at the Acme cafe. There were 18 present and all enjoyed the affair very much.

During the early evening a meeting was held in Mr. Guest's store room when talks were made by D. R. Hall, traveling representative of the Paton Paint company; C. C. Brooks of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company; W. M. Newton, manager of the paint department of the last named company and also Mr. H. L. De Mott, representing the paint and varnish department of the same company. All of these gentlemen talked of the paint business, the advantages to be gained by applying the paint and varnish in certain manners and quantities and the present outlook of conditions. All of the speeches were very helpful and much enjoyed.

After the speeches the meeting adjourned to the Acme cafe where a royal supper had been prepared. This was much enjoyed and the painters told their many painting experiences around the table. Mr. Brooks stated last night that he had been in the paint business for 15 years and had never found a better or happier lot than the painters in Anderson.

Among those attending the meeting were: C. M. Guest, C. G. Gallard, O. L. Burton, J. Q. Snow, Walter F. Barton, L. W. Eggers, D. F. Carter, R. D. Broyles, J. P. Broyles, Jr., Joe Fant, W. L. Brown, V. M. Newton, H. L. De Mott, C. C. Brooks, Sheldon Todd, Sam D. Fant and Master "Tick" Barton, mascot.

DEATHS

MRS. CARRIE MCCOY
Died at County Hospital Last Night 10 O'clock.

Mrs. Carrie McCoy, wife of Mr. John McCoy, of 207 Pickens avenue, died last night at 10 o'clock in the Anderson county hospital after an illness lasting several days. Funeral services will be held today at 3:30 o'clock p. m., at Neal's Creek church, Rev. H. C. Martin officiating.

Mrs. McCoy was born in the Neal's Creek section of the county on December 28, 1879 and was the daughter of Dr. D. N. Major. Besides her husband she is survived by three small children.

Sons of Veterans Notice.

The Red Shirt of Italy.
(Indianapolis News.)

The red shirt, destined to become so famous a symbol throughout Europe, was not at first adopted by Garibaldi, for any fantastic or spectacular reason.

The English Admiral Ingram says that the red shirt had its origin in stern necessity and that its adoption was caused by the need of clothing as economically as possible the legion that Garibaldi had raised for the liberation of Italy. An offer was made by a tradesman to supply at a reduced price a large stock of red woolen shirts. This offer was eagerly closed on. Before many years had passed the red shirt became the symbol not merely of the legion but of the new spirit working for the liberation of Italy.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and the wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from an Anderson resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

L. J. Scott, 314 W. Church St., Anderson, says: "I had considerable trouble from my back and the kidney secretions were scanty and painful on passage. I also noticed that the secretions were filled with sediment. My back hurt me and I had severe pains when I stooped or lifted. Doan's Kidney Pills, that I got at Evans' Pharmacy fixed me up in good shape." (Statement given March 17th, 1911.)

On December 6th, 1914, Mr. Scott said: "The cure I told about in my former statement has been permanent. My kidneys are in excellent shape now and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the full credit for this cure."

HOLD MEETING LIVE STOCK ASSOCIATION

ONE NEXT MONDAY, OCT. 4TH IN THE COURT HOUSE

GIVE OUT PROGRAM

Officers Will Be Elected for the Ensuing Year and Prof. Harper Will Made Address.

There will be a meeting of the Anderson County Live Stock association held in the court house on the first Monday of October at 12 o'clock, or immediately after the public sales are over.

The program for the day will be the calling of the roll by the secretary, Mr. Ben Aull.

New members will then be recorded.

Report of the president and executive committee.

Election of officers for the ensuing year.

Address by Prof. R. L. Shields of Clemson college on the live stock industry in this section.

Prof. J. N. Harper of the experimental station at Clemson college has kindly consented to tell us about his visit to the exposition at San Francisco.

I want to say to the association as I have been your presiding officer since its organization I would like to retire and am giving this out so you may be looking up a new man, hoping that we may get one that will advance the cause and will put more enthusiasm into the organization than I have.

You elected me in my absence, showing the confidence you had in my ability, for which allow me to thank you.

The public is cordially invited and all those who have stock they would like to exhibit Mr. Henderson agrees to procure a lot near the square for the exhibit, so bring along your colts, pigs and cattle of any grade or age.

Remember the date, October 14th.

S. A. Burns,
President.

In Memory of C. S. Smith.

On the fifth of July, God in his tender mercy visited the home of our friend and neighbor, and bore away the loving husband and father that great and happy beyond.

While it is so sad to part with thy loved one, it is a great comfort to know that he let his light shine to brighten the pathway of others. He always had a word of cheer for every one. He is so much missed in the community in which he lived. Mr. Smith was sick about eighteen months before his death, but he bore his suffering without a murmur. The greatest sorrow he had was leaving his loved ones behind Mr. Smith was born and raised near Mt. Pisgah, and lived there, until his marriage to Miss Mary Allen. Since then he has made home near Pelzer.

He was fifty-three years of age at the time of his death.

He leaves besides, a host of friends to mourn his death.

His widow, Mrs. Mary Smith, and four daughters, as follows: Mrs. J. W. McClen and Misses Mamie, Edith and Clara Smith.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. H. Danner, after which his remains were laid to rest in Big Creek cemetery, near Williams.

A FRIEND.

LANDER COLLEGE

Lander College opened September 22. Addresses were made by Mr. J. F. Wideman, superintendent of education of Greenwood county, Mr. W. W. Dickels, superintendent of Greenwood schools, Col. F. N. K. Bailey of Bailey Military Institute, Hon. C. A. C. Waller, for the trustees, Revs. B. H. DeMent, J. D. Kinard, L. P. McGehe, and C. T. Young, pastors of the city. Miss Allen Hammond, welcomed the new student for the students and a few words by the president closed the exercises. Matriculation followed the opening services, and the largest Freshman class in the history of the college was enrolled with a few in the preparatory department. A good number of old students reported, making with the new a record comparing with the best years, 1911-12-13. The shortage of last year was more than made up. The students appear to be a fine type of young women.

The classification and schedule committee were busily engaged on Wednesday and Thursday and only some general work was done. On Friday, classes were met regularly and on Saturday the regular schedule of recitations began.

The new teachers have made an excellent impression and of course, the old were heartily welcomed back.

The Thursday lecture began September 23rd, with an interesting address by Dr. B. B. Epting on "How to Keep Well," and "First Aid in Emergencies." On Friday morning, Miss Monk told the student body the value of domestic science, and on Saturday, Prof. C. B. Tully gave like information as to the pipe organ.

During vacation some repairs and improvements were made on the building and campus. All were interested in the Palmetto tree given to the college by Mrs. I. N. Edwards. Opposite the college there has been erected a new cottage for Mr. John E. Smith, the college guard. This work was done by Mr. J. W. Morris, of Greenwood and the house give evidence of skillful and faithful work.

SHOWS NEW FASHION

Mrs. Longworth, Formerly Alice Roosevelt Appears in Pantalettes.

(From The Chicago Dispatch.)

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, who gave the country "Alice blue" when she was Alice Roosevelt, came into Chicago yesterday in pantalettes. They were not net and ruffled and lace trimmed. Instead, heavy skirt material, with a wide tuck in each leg and reaching to her ankles.

They would have been noticed if they hadn't been pantalettes, because they were longer than the skirts Chicago was wearing. A long, heavy traveling coat, with a broad cloth collar and conspicuous for the absence of fur of any kind, was worn with the "skirtish" looking trousers. Ties of the cloth protruded from either side of the collar and made a warm-knot at the neck in case of cold winds.

Mrs. Longworth wore laced low shoes and a hat of straw with a silk facing and a tailored ornament in front. Her traveling purse was a large, square leather one.

The Longworths arrived from the Panama-Pac. Exposition. After a shopping tour and a walk along East.

Michigan avenue they boarded the Twentieth Century Limited for the
