We are recommending our 10-1-0 and 10-2-0 and 10-2-1/2-0 for wheat and oats this fall when you sow it.

This will give it stalk and grains in the head, and that it what you want in grain. If you will sow five acres in wheat and five in oats this fall, after preparing the land well and fertilizing it well with either of these goods, you will find it advantageous. The 10-2-1/2-0 is an especially fine goods for grain. Let us hear from you.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF C. C. LANGSTON

WERE HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AT 5 O'CLOCK

FLORAL TRIBUTES

Were Very Beautiful and Petitions Circulated Among Clerks of City of Anderson.

The funeral services of C. C. Langston, former editor and publisher of The Intelligencer, were held at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church conducted by Dr. W. H. Fraser. The high respect in which the late Mr. Langston was held by the people in this city was attested to by the large concourse of people attending the funeral and by the beautiful floral tributes.

After the services in the church the remains were taken to Silver Brook cemetery where interment was made. The local Knights of Pythias had charge of the ceremony at the grave and the exercises were very impressive.

The following Pythians acted as pall bearers: Messrs. C. E. Tribble, S. G. Bruce, J. L. Shierard, J. H. Godfrey, E. M. Scott and A. S. Cathcart.

Yesterday morning two petitions were circulated among the clerks of the city for a floral tribute to Mr. Langston. The following was circulated by Mr. John Madden of the T. L. Cely company:

We, the undersigned, feel deeply the loss of our friend, C. C. Langston, and fully realize that he was a faithful friend to all of us. He was a good citizen and stood for all that was best. We subscribe the amounts opposite our names for a floral offering. (All 25 cents each.)

J. D. Sullivan, Joan T. Madden, T. L. Cely, W. F. Dickson, F. M. Howie, P. E. Todd, Harvey Todd, W. H. Keese & Co., J. M. Bell, Jas. Richardson, Max Gelsberg, S. T. Skilton, H. A. Powell, B. B. Hart, Ralph Wilson, Miss Rose Payne, Miss Sula Hall, Miss Amelia Reed, Miss Helen Cater, John Stewart, Miss Mayme Rampey, Miss Fresa Tribble, Miss Lillian Maxwell, Miss Lois Garrison, Miss G. Brown, Thompson Shoe Store, Eugene Brown, Miss Myrtle Barton, N. Fishman, C. A. Reed Co., J. H. Godfrey, J. H. Dobbins, J. B. Tate, Robert Packer, S. L. Terry, E. L. Lawing, G. H. Bales, Miss Blanche McCellan, Mrs. Meta Trowbridge, G. C. Fant, Mrs. J. C. Holleman, Peoples Bank, Harry Gelsberg, V. B. Wilson, R. W. Tribble, J. W. Sadler, Sam Fishman, J. E. Turner, J. B. Harper, H. B. Harper, B. O. Evans, S. B. Sullivan, J. B. Broyles, W. F. Shirley, S. D. Harper, A. W. Hawkins. Several donations signed cash.

The other petition was circulated by Mr. Ernest Dugan. It was signed by the following: John Linley, W. W. Webb, C. S. Minor, A. M. McFall, Sullivan Hardware Co., Bank of Anderson, Rubenstein, John A. Austin, John Elliott, F. B. Crayton, W. E. Atkinson, Marchbanks and Babb, Anderson Paint and Color Co.

In addition to the above, Lessor and company, not knowing, got up a petition would be circulated, got up a collection among the clerks in their store and offered a floral tribute for that one store.

A CORRECTION

The Milliner at D. Gelsberg Is Still With the Firm.

Through a misunderstanding this paper was made to state yesterday that:

"Miss Myrtle Shouse, who has been with the firm of D. Gelsberg for the past few weeks as milliner, will leave today for Canton, Ga., where she will accept another position. Miss Shouse has made many friends in Anderson during her short stay who will regret to see her leave."

Miss Myrtle Shouse was a sales-lady instead of the milliner. Miss Bettie Stoffel is and has been the milliner for this same firm for the past two years.

This correction is made, and made gladly, for the reason that it recognizes the harm that this little "personal" could do. D. Gelsberg is allowed to go uncorrected.

By three o'clock yesterday afternoon there had been quite a number of calls, both by phone and in person, to know if Miss Stoffel had resigned to which Mr. Max Gelsberg was glad to say that she had not, and had intention of leaving. As Mr. Gelsberg said: "We are entirely too busy to spare Miss Stoffel, and if she tendered her resignation, we would be compelled to ask her to reconsider it."

While the Intelligencer regrets the simple error of stating that the milliner had left, when in reality it was a sales-lady, the fact that a small "personal" like this one was read by a great many people was demonstrated beyond the possibility of a doubt.

RIVER STREET CARS TO RESUME SCHEDULE

WILL LEAVE ON FORMER TIME BEGINNING ON SATURDAY

THE TRACK PAVING

On River Street is Now Progressing Right Along and Be Finished By Saturday.

On Saturday the cars going down River street will resume their old schedule of leaving the square on the hour and the half and will run down as far as a little beyond Kennedy street. This will leave a distance of about 1,000 feet to be walked by passengers before taking the car on the other end of the line. The car from the Riverside mill will also leave on the hour and the half and this will give the passengers 15 minutes in which to transfer.

There remains approximately 790 feet more of street car track paving to do on River street, and it is announced that if everything works well, this will be finished Saturday. Owing to the fact that the stone crusher in Williamston broke down last week and the contractors could not get crushed stone, the work was delayed exactly one week. It will be finished Saturday when it was due to have been completed last Saturday.

SHOW AT ANDERSON THEATRE NEXT WEEK

Norene St. Clair Comes to Anderson From Nashville After 12 Weeks Engagement There.

The Norene St. Clair Stock company of 14 people, will open a week's engagement at the Anderson theatre Monday, October 4th. This famous company is the oldest organization in the south, and is the only one who filled the entire season of 1914. The company has just finished a twelve weeks engagement in the Majestic theatre at Asheville, N. C., and played to capacity business nightly. The Anderson theatre management has been able to secure this company only through the fact that it has just one week lay-off to prepare for a ten weeks engagement at Wilmington previous to its initial appearance in Jacksonville where the most successful performance were the most successful during the run in Asheville will be produced here. Among the plays to be used here will be the highest priced play in repertoire, "The White Sisters." This will be the feature play of the week. The opening play, "The Sweetest Girl in Dixie," will be followed by "Peaceful Valley," "Utah," "Raffles," "Mary Jane's Pa," "The Minister's Love," and numerous others, one matinee play for ladies only, "Camille." No play will be repeated at either matinee or night performance. The usual number of matinees will be given.

The company includes among its members some of the best stock actors in the country, and Mr. E. M. Pollock, the leading man, is without doubt the most finished, and most versatile of the present day artists. Miss St. Clair, the comedienne, is no doubt the peer of them all in comedy, and the comedians aside from her work are of the highest order. This is also the biggest company playing the south this season, numbering fourteen acting people. And the one feature of this company that should, and does appeal to all of the better class, is the fact that cleanliness is the outstanding point. No smut, no word or act that comes even close to the doubtful is indulged in.

The company comes to Anderson with letters from the best people in Asheville who have been regular patrons and personal friends of this wonderful organization.

THE INEVITABLE HAS HAPPENED TO COTTON

TOOK SHARP DECLINE YESTERDAY AFTER STEADY ADVANCE

REAPING PROFITS

Spot Demand Did Not Really Warrant Such a Rapid Advance at Any Time.

The inevitable has happened and the overdue reaction in the price of cotton took place yesterday. After an advance of over three cents per pound with scarcely a decline in the interim, speculators, both in spots and contracts had about arrived at the conclusion that all they had to do was to buy today and reap the profits tomorrow. The result was an overbought market and the resultant crash when the attempt was made to cash in. The legitimate spot demand has not really warranted such a rapid advance as is evidenced by the reluctance with which both domestic mill's and exporters have followed. It is a case of too much optimism and willingness to discount too far in advance a really bullish situation. Cotton at present prices will eventually prove cheap as it is simply a question of the frost date as to how much below twelve million bales the crop will turn out, but in the meantime it is well enough to allow legitimate interests to catch up with the speculative contingent.
