EAT WITHOUT FEAR OF INDIGESTION OR SOUR, ACID STOMACH

Instant relief! "Pape's Diapepsin" ends your stomach trouble forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother; if your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; hetch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

BE FEW SLEEPY HEADS AMONG YOUNGSTERS

TONIGHT BECAUSE CIRCUS UNLOADS EARLY TOMORROW

GRAND PARADE

Scheduled to Take Place Friday Morning at 10 O'clock—Bigger Than Ever Before.

That dear old institution, old, yet ever new, the circus—Barnum and Bailey's—comes to town tomorrow with a real circus—the circus of our boyhood and the meado wlot, the circus with red wagons and an army of clowns, and the women in fluffy skirts who ride at breakneck speed while the ringmaster pops the whip and tumbler fly through the air.

"Boys" who can still hark back to the old time stunt with the water nail, and "girls" who in other days clung to their mothers in awe while bespangled performers flirted with death, can romp to the show grounds tomorrow and see the latest and best development of the circus idea of entertainment as carried out by this oldest and largest of circuses.

There are circuses and circuses, but there is only one Barnum and Bailey's. It has been self-styled "the greatest show on earth," and this year more than ever, it is confidently asserted, lives up to and beyond its name. The circus is coming to town tomorrow exhibiting in Columbia, and long before the breakfast hour tomorrow the first of the four long trains is due to arrive. There will be but few sleepy heads among the youngsters. Kids that ordinarily kick upon getting up at a reasonable hour to do the morning chores will sleep with one eye open tonight and be on hand at the railroad yards early in the morning.

Ever see a circus unload? Some years ago when the Barnum show was touring Germany, Prince Blumarck watched it detrain. Then he said to the Kaiser: "Hoch, Willie, I thought the German army had some discipline, but these Johnnies can give us cards, spades and big casino and then win the pot without dealing from the bottom. Hadn't you better hire the boss and let him try to put a little system into the imperial cohorts?"

The first thing on the circus day schedule will be the parade at 10 o'clock in the morning, and it is promised to be a "whopper." As a banisher of melancholia the circus people say it will be superior to any liver pill.

Every stitch of the wardrobe was new this spring and there will be new features. Almost everything of any standing in the zoological line will be seen, either openly displayed or carefully concealed in gilded cages. Over a score of elephants will plod along, and there will be six bands of music in the two-mile long pageant of glittering splendor.

But it is under the "big top" at 2 and 8 o'clock p. m., that this thousand-sided miracle of the amusement world promise to make all sit up and take notice, for this circus goes on improving each year and burning up all the laudatory adjectives, until all the superlatives are exhausted. This season the circus is almost entirely new and commences with a gorgeous pageant descriptive of Lalla Rookh's departure from Delhi, entailing the services of over 1,000 people, and a wealth of colorful wardrobe and trappings.

Following the glittering pageant will come the rapid and diverting succession of arena acts given in three rings, four stages and the huge track. The elephants come first—the war elephants—who portray a mimic battle scene and have a whole bagful of new tricks. Luperta Persa, who in her early childhood, shocked the natives of Mexico City with her love for the topmost branches of the tallest trees, will thrill by her exploits upon the flying trapeze, shooting like a comet through space at the very top of the tent.

Pallenborg's Bears will ride bicycles and roller skate in a fashion to amaze onlookers, while Marcelle's trained parrots, ravens, macaws and cockatoos will be seen in performance unlike anything heretofore seen. The equestrian acts will offer the foremost champions and a new feature in this department will be the famous English Hannaford family of five people making their first American appearances. Chippa sends three troops of acrobats, gymnasts and jugglers who are adepts in their lines. Signor Lagonghi, the Italian midgot comedy rider will convulse the audiences with his laughable antics upon a horse. Ella Bradna presents a trained animal display, while "The Act Beautiful" provides the medium for the introduction of over a score of horses, dogs and apes—all white in color—in a series of beautiful poses. Adgie, the fearless Frenchwoman will be seen within a steel cage with jungle-bred lions with one of which she dances the tango. Another item on the bill will introduce over a score of western ranch champion ropers and riders in frontier sports and pastimes utterly unlike previous exhibitions of like character.

There will be innumerable aerial, acrobatic and equilibristic numbers and all presented by experts. Over two score clowns will furnish fun in huge chunks and for over two hours there will be incessant activity and surprises. The menagerie will be large and varied and the entire circus teaches a high water mark of

LEBANON SCHOOL

The Lebanon high school opens October 4th with a large attendance. The school is under the supervision of Prof. P. W. Jayroe, with Miss Mary Broyles, Miss Sadie Clarke, Miss Minnie Lee Shealy, Miss May Belle Cooner as assistants.

At a meeting of literary society the following officers were elected: Mr. Roy Craig, president; Miss Mary Mary Smith, vice president; Miss Edna Weithorn, secretary; Miss Louise Martin, junior censor; Mr. Weston Holt, sergeant-at-arms; Mr. Alva Clarke, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

The rural improvement association met at the hall Friday afternoon. Miss Jayne Garlington was present at meeting for the purpose of organizing a class in domestic science. Most of high school girls will take a course.

Through the efforts of improvement association, and the teachers a piano has been purchased. They hope to have a music class in connection with school swings, and other things will be placed on school yard for small children.

He Wouldn't Stay.

Two workmen met in the street and stopped to chat about their friends, according to the Chicago News.

"Casey seems to be doing well where he is," remarked one presently.

"He'll not stop long at that job," replied the other, with a gloomy shake of the head.

"Why not? He seems to be quite comfortably placed."

"Eat he'll not stay there a month. I say it, and I've said it ever since he got that job eighteen months ago."

Impressive.

"I spit so little English," said the charming French actress, "that I hardly know what to recite for ze American audience."

"I usually recite the multiplication table in Russian," responded the other international star. "That always sounds impressive."—Judge.

superlative newness and excellence never before even remotely approached.

Tickets may be bought throughout the day at Evans Pharmacy No. 1, at exactly the same prices charged upon the grounds.
