

Palmetto Theatre

TODAY

Montrose Sisters Present
"NAKED TRUTH"

This is a Very Strong Bill Well Worth Seeing.

MOVIES FOR TODAY
"THE BLOT ON THE SHIELD"
Two Reel American.

"BUSTED, BUT NOT BENEVOLENT"

BIJOU THEATRE

TODAY

"HONOR THY HUSBAND"
Two Reel Powers.

"FATHERS LUCKY ESCAPE"
Nestor Comedy.

"GETTING HIS GOAT"
Imp Comedy.

TWO OTHER SELECTED REELS

HOUSES FOR RENT

That Are Not Fully Wired
For Electricity
Are Not Modern and Up to Date

When you move this year, insist on having a house that has all modern conveniences.

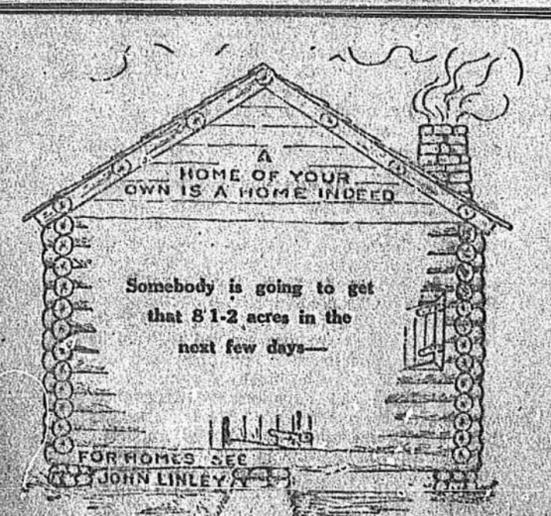

Don't be satisfied with anything but electricity. Don't accept anything "just as good" for there isn't anything just as good.

The price of electricity has been going down, while the cost of other necessities has increased. Allow us to show you where it is to your advantage to use our service.

Southern Public Utilities Co.
Phone No. 223.

AT THE BIJOU THEATRE EVERY WEDNESDAY.

Somebody is going to get that 8 1-2 acres in the next few days—

FOR HOMES SEE
JOHN LINLEY

Already

Three different parties have become interested in it.

It's a Bargain

And the 1st
"to say the word" gets it.

Just 1-2 mile west of North Anderson and only $455.00 an acre)

DEPLORABLE AFFAIR ON THURSDAY NIGHT

WAYMON CAIN, A YOUNG
WHITE MAN, SHOT AND KILLED

TWO ARRESTED

Ernest Gentry and Reed Shaw,
White, Placed in Jail, Charged With the Killing.

Full particulars of the killing of Waymon Cain at Jackson's mill
Thursday night were obtained by a representative of The Intelligencer early yesterday morning, but too late for publication.

The killing took place about 11 o'clock near Jackson's mill, and the first news reached Anderson shortly before midnight. The coroner and Mr. Sanders, deputy sheriff, went to the scene at once and found that Waymon Cain, a young white man, had been shot and killed. An inquest was held and the coroner's jury placed the blame on Ernest Gentry, naming Reed Shaw as an accessory to the fact.

According to the testimony of several witnesses at the inquest, seven young men, Fred Shaw, Jessie Shaw, Ernest Gentry, Waymon Cain, Ollie Saylor, John Cain and Clyde Dempsey, had been to the home of Mr. W. L.
Nixon at a dance, or musical, and they were going back to their respective homes, having just crossed the bridge over Rocky river at the mill. The shooting took place within fifty feet of the bridge and within 100 feet of the home of Mr. Nixon.

Reed Shaw, Ernest Gentry, and John Cain were walking behind the other members of the party, and Shaw and Gentry were talking. Shaw was heard to say, "We had better hurry and catch up, if we are going to have that fuss with that fellow." They then called out to Waymon Cain to stop, and he did so. Cain turned and was walking backwards, and Shaw and Gentry approached him.

Gentry cursed him, and Cain evidently thought they were joking. John Cain, brother to Waymon, swore that he caught hold of Ernest Gentry's arm and that Shaw told him to turn him loose that there would be no trouble. When he turned Gentry's arm loose, he walked on up the road, but as he did so, Gentry reached for his gun and started shooting. Four shots were fired. Two went in the air, one in the ground and the other struck Waymon Cain in the forehead, penetrating the brain. The wound in his head caused death, according to the evidence of Dr. H. A. Pruitt.

Mr. Jim Jackson said that it was the custom of the boys to go about from house to house at night and play and sing, dance and otherwise make merry. This night, they had been to the home of Mr. Nixon and were returning when the difficulty occurred.

After the jury had returned their verdict, Mr. Sanders arrested Shaw and Gentry and brought them to jail.
They were willing to come, prettifying their innocence, and saying that they did not know who shot the young man.

"While the affair is deplorable," said one of the gentlemen at the inquest,
"I suppose it will put an end to this party business. There is no sense in having our boys run about the country every night, sometimes drinking and shooting around all the time.
It seems to me that the inevitable has happened, and I have expected it all the while."

Pentecost and Armageddon.
Mr. Bryan, reproving the president sharply for quoting Bible authority in support of military preparedness, says
"What the world needs today is a Pentecost, not an Armageddon." True enough. But what the world is having today is an Armageddon, not a Pentecost. The difference between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Wilson is that Mr.
Bryan wants the United States to equip itself for the Pentecost that we all wish the world was having, while Mr. Wilson wants the United States to equip itself for the Pentecost that we desire in the Armageddon, that the world actually is having.

The Christian festival of the Pentecost is one of thanksgiving for the descend of the Holy Spirit on the disciples. If what is going on in Europe today is a sign that righteousness is about to descend upon the nations, most of us have not hitherto recognized the omen.—News and Courier

On National Defense.
There are two extremes in the views held upon the question of national defense. There are those who "throw fits" at the mere thought of the country making any preparation beyond the merest beginning. There are others who "throw fits" at the mere prospect of anything less than the complete en-throne of militarism. Both these views are wrong, dead wrong. There is a happy medium—the path that wise men and true patriots may walk in untroubled and with safety. We believe, too, that the great majority of our people are sane enough to choose this happy middle ground.—Union Times.

Want Him to Try It.
A man walked into a grocer's shop and handed to the assistant a paper containing some white powder.
"I say," he said, "what do you think that is? Just taste it and tell me your opinion."
The grocer smelled it and then touched it with his tongue.
"Well, I should say that was lard."
"That's just what I said," was the triumphant reply. "But my wife said it was rat poison. You might try it again to make sure."

WILL INVESTIGATE STRIKE SITUATION

U. S. DEPARTMENT LABOR
SENDS MEN TO SOUTH-ERN CITIES

IN GREENVILLE NOW

And Are Expected to Come to Anderson Within Next Few Days to Look Into Brogan Trouble.

John B. Colpoys and Charles Bon-helm, commissioners of conciliation of the United States department of labor, are due to arrive in Anderson at an early date. They have been sent from Washington to investigate the strikes at Greenville and Anderson and to try and bring about an agreement between the parties.

Mr. Bonhelm will come to Anderson to investigate the union side of the question, it is understood, and Mr.
Colpoys will investigate the mill claims. By doing this, each man gets the straight of the matter and they may be valuable in getting a settlement of the trouble.

In Greenville, the situation looks much more favorable for a settlement since the arrival of these men than it has since the mills have been closed. It is hoped that they will be able to bring about an early settlement of the Brogan question here.

The gentlemen are now in Greenville and are expected here today or early next week.

10 MURDER CASES ARE NOW AWAITING TRIAL

COURT CONVENES MONDAY
MORNING AT 10
O'CLOCK

LIST OF CASES

Has Been Prepared and Announced By Solicitor K. P. Smith—
Will Take Two Weeks.

Ten murder cases appear on the docket for trial at the approaching term of court of general sessions, which convenes on next Monday morning at 10 o'clock and over which Judge Ernest Moore of Lancaster will preside. Solicitor Smith stated yesterday that he did not know on what day any particular case would be called, but that this would be arranged shortly after court convened on Monday morning.

Judging from the long list of cases awaiting trial, fully two weeks will be occupied in disposing of them. Solicitor Smith has prepared the indictments in the cases sent up to him and everything is in readiness for the grand jury's attention. The grand jurors will meet on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, as will also the petit jurors which have been summoned for the first week.

Indictments have been issued in the following cases to date:

- Charley Donaldson, murder.
- Jim Wakefield, murder.
- Lawrence Cowan, murder.
- Plummer Davis, murder.
- Heaster Jones, murder.
- Henry Laboon, murder.
- Walter Laboon, murder.
- Doc Fresly, murder.
- Ernest Gentry, murder.
- Reed Shaw, murder.
- Mack Anderson, grand larceny.
- Lee Farr, grand larceny.
- John Shaw, grand larceny.
- Peter Broyles, grand larceny.
- Jim Jones, grand larceny.
- Jess Sherman, house breaking and larceny.
- Doc Hill, house breaking and larceny.
- William Smith, disposing of property under lien.
- Frank Gilmer, disposing of property under lien.
- Milton Johnson, disposing of property under lien.
- Joseph Seaborn, violation of dispensary law.
- Emm. Frazer, violation of dispensary law.
- Baxter Hudgens, assault and battery with intent to kill.
- William Farmer, adultery.
- Edward Hamilton, false pretenses.
- J. H. Bowden, malicious trespass.
- Jesse Cochran, assault and battery with intent to kill.
- Pat Gilliam, disposing of property under lien.
- Slymas Yerid, issuing worthless checks.

Learned Fast.
"Well Dinah, how are you and your new husband getting along?"
"First rate, Miss Betty. I been greatly surprised in that man."
"Does he treat you all right?"
"Yesum. He sho' do, and I ain't had tar hit him but one time. I never seed a bigger learn as quick as he do."—Birmingham Age-Herald

NOTICE OF MEETING
Chicago Lodge No. 25, K. of P., will hold a special meeting to-night at 8:00 o'clock. Members please be present.

C. E. Greens,
K. R. S.

ERNEST WATKINS DIED YESTERDAY MORNING

WAS SHOT FEW DAYS AGO
IN LANCASTER BY NEGRO

FUNERAL TODAY

Will Be Held in Augusta, Ga., at 11:30 O'clock—Was Native of This City.

Mr. Ernest Munroe Watkins died in Rock Hill yesterday morning at four o'clock. He was wounded about a week ago, and after making a great fight for his life, gradually began to decline and after two days, the doctors despaired of his life. Mr. Watkins was shot by a negro workman last Saturday at the oil mill of which he was manager at Lancaster.
The negro claimed that Mr. Watkins would not pay him some money due him.

Ernest Watkins was the second son of the late John C. Watkins. He was 31 years of age, and a lovable character. He was a good athlete and it would be hard to find a better specimen of manhood than he represented.
He was born in Anderson and went to school at Citadel and North Carolina A. & M. After leaving school, he went to Augusta, Ga., becoming engaged in oil mill work and remained in Augusta until only a few months ago, when he was put at the head of three mills with headquarters in Lancaster. It was while in Augusta that Mr. Watkins was married to Miss Ella Jovitt.

Mr. Watkins is survived by his wife and two children, Ernest, Jr., and Elizabeth. He is also survived by the following brothers: Frank H., Paul, Harold, John C. Jr., and Wil-
Ham; and his sisters, Mrs. Carl Lee, Miss Ruth Watkins and Miss Helen Watkins, and his mother, Mrs. John
C. Watkins.

The funeral will be held in Augusta, Ga., this morning at 11:30
o'clock.

TRANSPORT SERVICE STORY OF IGNORANCE

London, Nov. 12.—"From the point of view of the shipping man, the whole history of the war as far as the transport service is concerned is a wicked story of ignorance, ineptitude and colossal waste," declares the editor of Syren and Shipping, the leading journal of the shipping trade. He adds:

"Costly and useful ships were used for months as prison ships. Super-ships like the Aquitania were employed on scouting missions, their magnificent passenger equipment gutted.
Ships were allowed to load cargo or to book a full passenger list and then owners were informed that the Admirality required these boats."

An instance is given of a 7,000-ton boat which was all ready to sail with 200 passengers when it was taken over and sent empty to the west coast of South America, although it might have been loaded with coal and realized a small fortune. Another case is given of a 6,000-ton boat at Huelva about to load with a cargo of iron-ore for England which was requisitioned suddenly and sent empty to the Pacific, although there should have been plenty of merchant ships available much nearer the desired destination.

"How long?" asks the journal, "will these methods be tolerated in the national interest, a committee of shipping men should have been selected to organize the admiralty chartering."

MARKETS
Local market yesterday 11-4 cents.

New York Cotton.
New York, Nov. 12.—Cotton opened at an advance of 6 to 12 on bullish cable and weather advices. Liverpool did not respond fully and January dropped 8 to within 3 points of last night. Private estimates of the crop at 12,000,000 bales checked, buying.
Talk of labor troubles in Lancaster caused profit-taking and prices eased off 10 to 11 note lower around midday with the market quiet.

Open High Low Close
Dec . . . 11.75 11.75 11.67 11.63
Jan . . . 11.91 11.91 11.72 11.79
March . . . 12.12 12.12 11.93 11.99
May . . . 12.21 12.21 12.05 12.13
Spots 11.80

Liverpool Cotton.
Open Close
Nov-Dec . . . 6.82 6.89 6.94
Jan-Feb . . . 6.82 6.87
Mar-Apr . . . 6.79 6.84
Spots 7.01
Sales 5,000
Receipts 6,000

New York Stocks.
New York, Nov. 12.—Gains of one or two points, some of which have soon extended, featured in early dealings and in war shares, more particularly automobiles. Oil shares particularly American Oil, were higher.
Coppers were less conspicuous. Rails were heavy at the opening and became heavier around midday checking the entire list. War shares, however, again resumed the advance.

As Man to Man

If you knew clothing as we know it, you wouldn't hesitate a moment about coming here for your Fall and Winter Suit.

Our display of Stylish, Dependable Clothes
this season is truly remarkable.

We have every model, color and style worn in New York this season, including plains, stripes, and plaids; also a big assortment of conservative designs.

$10, $15, $20, $22.50 and $25.00

Stick a pin in this statement: "We assert with the greatest amount of confidence, our ability to show you more Twenty Dollar suits for Fifteen than any other concern in South Carolina. We trust that you will give us the opportunity of proving this statement to your entire satisfaction.

We have the very best values this season in clothing we have ever shown, from the lowest priced suit on through the line.

Drop in Today—We'll Be Delighted to Show Them.

Genuine Texas Red Rust Proof Oats

We expect Wednesday, from Texas, a car of genuine Red Rust Proof Oats, which we consider ourselves fortunate in having secured at this time.

Also, we have a car of the old reliable Chattanooga turn plow.
Turn to the land with this plow, now genuine Texas Red Rust Proof
Oats and you're sure of pleasing results.

Anderson Hardware Company
East Whitner Street