BROGON MILLS WILL RESUME OPERATIONS?

GENERALLY RUMORED YES-TERDAY THAT AGREE-MENT WAS REACHED

IS NO OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Those Concerned Were Busy Yesterday and Conferences Held —Details Are Unknown.

It is generally rumored and understood that the Brogon mill will resume operations and that the operatives will return to work within the next few days, probably next Monday morning. Mr. Jas. P. Gossett was called twice last night but he could not be reached over telephone because the line was out of order. Conferences were held yesterday and it is understood that the agreements between committees representing the strikers and mill management were signed. The Brogon mill has been shut down for the past nine weeks, following a strike after the management had posted notice that the mill would close down indefinitely in order to curtail products. Since that time there has been considerable trouble which is well remembered by all who read account of it in the newspapers.

Messrs. Colpoys and Bondheim, government men from the United States department of commerce and labor, came to Anderson the first part of last week and began to investigate both sides of the affair. Since that time they have held conferences with both the management and the operatives. Just what was the result of the reconciliation is not yet known. They had no statement to make yesterday afternoon.

Yesterday meetings of the strikers were held and it is understood that an agreement which had been arranged was read to those present. This agreement, it is understood, was satisfactory to both management and operatives. Just what concessions, if any, by either party, has not been announced, but it is rumored that it provides that 10 of the leaders in the strike are to move away from the Brogon mill in a few days.

It was stated last night that an announcement about the agreement which had been reached would be made some time during today.

MAN DIED SUDDENLY IN JAIL LAST NIGHT

TOM REED, A TAILOR, SUFFERED A STROKE OF APOPLEXY

WAS PRISONER

Having Been Arrested Yesterday Afternoon for Being Drunk
—Wife in Greenville.

Tom Reed, a tailor who has been working for the Rosenberg Tailoring company, died in the city jail last night about 8 o'clock. It was not known that he was dead until the officers were told by another prisoner.

Reed was arrested yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock by Officers Sanders and Driscoll on the charge of drunkenness. He was placed in the jail and apparently seemed all right except that he was very much intoxicated. When the officers learned of his death Dr. W. F. Ashmore was summoned and he stated that death resulted from apoplexy. He also stated that his condition was such that he might have died at any time, whether he had been drunk or not.

The body was removed to Tolly's undertaking parlors and will remain there until some time today. Mr. Reed's wife was visiting her mother in Greenville and was notified last night of her husband's death. She will arrive in Anderson this morning and the funeral will be arranged.

Reed was about 35 years old and had been living in Anderson for some time.

1,100 ACRES LAND SOLD FOR $40,000

MESSRS. LINLEY AND WATSON CLOSED BIG DEAL YESTERDAY

OFFER FOR SALE

"Rivoli" Near Pendleton is Purchased and Will Be Cut Up Into Small Tracts.

A deal was closed yesterday morning whereby Messrs. Linley and Watson become the owners of "Rivoli," the estate of Dr. W. K. Sharpe near Pendleton, the purchase price being approximately $40,000. Dr. Sharpe bought back the home place and 250 acres of land.

This land is situated about three miles west of Pendleton on the road to Fortman. Being on the Eighteen Mile Creek it has very fine bottom lands. The total number of acres in the tract is 1,100. In addition to the bottom lands there is 800 acres of well timbered land.

Messrs. Linley and Watson announced yesterday that the tract would be divided into smaller ones and would be offered for sale. This place is well-known and the fact that it has been purchased by an Anderson firm will be read with interest.

ANOTHER GOOD SHOW AT LOCAL THEATRE

A. B. C. Company Has One of Best Troupes Appearing at Palmetto This Week.

It seems that Manager Pinkston is only getting the best of shows at the Palmetto these days. Last week he had a splendid one and the one this week, known as the A. B. C. company, does not fall short in any respect. In some respects many say that it is better. The matinee was free to ladies yesterday afternoon and the house was well filled with them. Last night the attendance was good, many ladies being present. On Wednesday afternoon another matinee will be given which will be free to the ladies.

Appearing in the company this week are Messrs. Schultz and Soschinsky as comedians. They are good and gave plenty of new jokes. Miss Ida Bell Reed plays the lead and with her sister, Miss Louise Reed, does a singing and dancing act, accompanied by a guitar and mandolin, played by themselves. The Kentucky trio, singers, is composed of Misses Reed and Myrtle Kist. Their voices harmonize well and their songs are good. The Lange and Lloyd dancing and singing act is one of the best in the show. Although they have been seen here before, they were well greeted with their same act. Miss Helen Kebet does a singing act which is very pleasing. The other member of the company is Miss Bonnie Edwards, who later in the week will put on some specialties.

The chorus, taken as a whole, is one of the best looking that has appeared at the Palmetto, respectably and their costumes are very elaborate.

Clothes—and Next Thursday

In the way of clothes—Thanksgiving is running Easter Day a close second.

Somehow—notions of snow and sleigh-bells and dancing insist upon mingling with ideas of roast turkey and chestnuts and cranberry sauce.

And so—Thanksgiving has come to mean new clothes!

This year—leaving aside all thought of General Prosperity—a lot of men in Anderson have a special something to be cheery about.

For they are coming here—where the stocks are bountiful and beautiful and generous—for their Thanksgiving clothes.

Here—where the high cost of goods has been beaten by advance orders; here—where $20 turns itself into an "Alco" Suit or Overcoat that can't be matched elsewhere.

Bring your Thanksgiving wants here, too. Let your $20—or your $15 or your $25—ramble over the good things we've prepared for you. There's no end of them waiting for you.

And when you leave—you will carry off the kind of satisfaction that kindles a warm glow in your cheek.

Just try a Parker & Bolt Thanksgiving once—and see!

Epworth League Holds Services.
There was quite a good attendance at the league last evening. The topic for the evening was Thanksgiving, and quite an interesting program was prepared. E. P. Valentine read a very appropriate poem on the origin of Thanksgiving. Miss Irene Prince read a very interesting paper, telling in a very striking manner the way the first Thanksgiving was observed. Rev. J. W. Speake made a short talk on the way that Thanksgiving might be observed. This was one of the best programs that the league has been favored with in quite a while, and all are very grateful to those friends for the valuable service they rendered in getting up this program.
