

Fine Healthy Child Convincing Evidence

Simple Inexpensive Remedy
Checks Early Tendency to Constipation.

About the first thing impressed on the young Mother is the necessity for regularity in her baby, which brings up the question of the most desirable laxative for children's use.

Mrs. Jesse P. Richardson, Philpot, Ky., says she has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for the past year and that there is no medicine in the world like it. She writes, "My little son, William, Jr., just loved it because it is so pleasant to take, and everybody talks about his being such a fine healthy boy."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from any opiate or narcotic drug, and is the standard remedy for constipation in thousands of homes throughout the land. Drug stores everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. Get a bottle of this excellent remedy, and have it in the house. A

Never Eat What You Dislike.
In thorough accord with the views of certain authorities who believe, with limitations, that people are better off if they eat what they like is the following letter printed in the Christmas issue of the Woman's Home Companion:

"I am constrained to protest against the advice given mothers to oblige their children to eat food which they dislike. Most grown people have their likes and dislikes, and if it were a punishment to them to eat a despised article, how much more so it is to a child to whom small troubles loom as tragedies! The child's distaste should not be discussed, simply ignored until he has forgotten how much he hated a certain article. There are so many good and nourishing things, that if one is fancied disliked how much better to substitute something else, thereby avoiding issues and friction, which everyone knows are harmful to a child's nerves and health and disposition as well. And as for letting a child go without his needed nourishment till next meal if he refuses one article—the injustice of it is too apparent to need comment."

A Fish Story.
According to a sworn affidavit a big full of papers containing evidence of violations of our neutrality, U-crown overboard by a steamship captain, was afterwards found in the stomach of a shark captured by some Brazilians. This ought to suggest an idea to the United States secret service. A few vigilant sharks on its staff might accomplish something. —Washington Herald.

Chamberlain's Tablets.
This is a medicine intended especially for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. It is meeting with much success and rapidly gaining in favor and popularity. For sale by all dealers.

LaFoy-Ayer.

A pretty home wedding and one around which centered the love and interest of many friends was that of Miss Kate LaFoy, and Mr. Frederick Charles Ayer of Bamberg, on Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. LaFoy on Roberts street.

The house had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, and was attractive with palms, ferns and cut flowers, chrysanthemums being used in profusion everywhere.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. John E. White, the only attendant being the two brothers of the bride, John and Whitner LaFoy. The pretty bride wore a handsome blue tailored suit, with hat and gloves to match. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Bamberg, the home of the groom, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Ayer is a bright and attractive young woman. Mr. Ayer is a cousin of Mrs. J. R. Vandiver of this city.

To Entertain.
Mrs. John E. Sadler and Mrs. Raymond Healy will entertain at cards this afternoon at Hotel Chiquita.

Mrs. Tate of Elberton, Ga., is a guest of Mrs. Harleston Barton.

For Miss Wilson.
Miss Helen Wilson of Greenville was Mrs. C. W. Causey's charming honor guest yesterday afternoon when she entertained a few friends at a theatre party at the "Anderson" to see Geraldine Farrar in "Carmen."

Mrs. Causey's guests were: Mrs. W. D. McLean, Mrs. W. W. Morrison, Mrs. Phelps Sasseen, Mrs. K. P. Smith, Mrs. Keys, McCully, Mrs. Carrie Patrick, Mrs. Albert Farmer, and Miss Linda Thompson.

A WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY

The C. S. Sullivan Estate owns a farm of 700 acres seventy miles West of Augusta, Ga., which they have put in our hands for sale. Mrs. Sullivan cannot handle the property. She would take Anderson County property in part payment.

If less within, say, two miles of a nice town in which there is a bank, a large cotton warehouse, quite a number of prosperous stores, a large flourishing school with several teachers.

A splendid public road made of sand and clay runs through the property. The roads are all graded and are much better than in this county. The Augusta Southern Railway runs through the property and has a side track on the road. There is almost 600 acres cleared. There is probably 300 acres in one field almost level.

The tenant houses are better than anything in this county that I have seen. There are six houses. Four of them are six rooms, two four rooms. This land is sandy, with a good clay sub-soil within six inches of the top.

This place was sold by the present owners for $15,000.00. The purchasers who were speculators want $12,000.00 on hand and you can buy it for that sum. Now there are lots of men in this county with one or two hundred acres of land that will bring $1000.00 to pay for this place.

You can give your children a farm piece and still have enough for yourself. It is in a splendid white section, good water, a lovely healthy, and all right in every particular.

On the farm adjoining this, there is the finest dairy I ever saw. They were milking exactly 100 Jerseys at the time I was there. Land is selling all around this at $20.00 to $50.00 an acre. This farm has been rented out for several years, but it is so level that they could not wait to rent it. I have just made a trip down there to look over the place and I think it is a great bargain.

There is stall room for 15 milks on the place. Fine road to Augusta. People running down there in automobiles almost every day. They make the round trip in 5 or 6 hours. Now if you have any property in Anderson County that you would like to put into this, see me at once and let me see if I can't make a trade for you. We will give you good terms on the balance.

This place is about 15 miles from Sparta, and 5 or 10 miles from Sandersville. The land looks like the good ones on the road from Union to Home Park or Williamson. The place is being sold this year because it was a litigation. I met a man who worked a few horse farms on the place last year and he told me he made 15 sales of cotton with very little rain.

You can take it from me that this country is all right and a good place to live. See me.

THE SECOND NUMBER OF LYCEUM COURSE WILL APPEAR AT ANDERSON COLLEGE NEXT MON. DAY NIGHT

BE A QUARTETTE

Metropolitan Grand Has Delighted Audiences All Over Country and is Among Best.

On next Monday night the Metropolitan Grand Quartette will appear at Anderson College, this being the second number of the Lyceum course. Wherever this company has appeared enthusiastic reports have been heard. Audiences are delighted not only with the quartette singing but also with the solos as well. The program will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

The quartette is composed of Charles L. Neith, lyric tenor; Paul Chase, robust tenor; John Eberly, baritone and Thomas Wade Lane, basso. Mrs. Mifelo Page Lane is pianist.

The following press notice from an Alexandria, Ind., paper will be read with interest:
The splendid entertainment given by the M. G. Q. at the Methodist church last night left nothing to be desired in the way of high class entertainment. As to the members of the quartette, Mr. Neith led the others both in range of voice and power. There was a ring to his tone that sounded like the chiming of a bell most sensitively tuned to music of the spheres, as it were. In his interpretation of Faust he was very good, as that gave him an opportunity to display his dramatic singing power. Of the basso, Mr. Thomas Wade Lane, it can be said that he was very pleasing, and the deep, rich, mellifluous tones of the profundo were delightful to listen to; his portrayal of Mephisto was a splendid piece of impromptu grand opera work and met with the hearty approval of the audience, as did also his solos. Mr. John Eberly, baritone, has been heard here upon previous occasions, and his singing last night only helped to strengthen him with the music lovers of this city. He has a sweet, even voice, well regulated and very flexible; his Song of the Sea and the score, A Perfect Day, were rendered in a most acceptable manner.

ANDERSON COLLEGE
A large and enthusiastic audience heard the address of Hon. William Jennings Bryan delivered in the college auditorium on Friday evening, November 19th. His subject was "The War in Europe and Its Lesson for the United States." Mr. Bryan who was the guest of the college during his stay in Anderson, spoke to the students on Saturday morning at chapel exercises on "The Meaning of Life."

The reception given by the students on Thanksgiving eve was one of the most delightful affairs of the year. In the decoration of the hall and parlors ferns and autumn leaves were used artistically. Those receiving were President and Mrs. Kinard, Miss Helen Smith, dean of the college, and the presidents of the college classes, Misses Lou Nelle Moore, Bruce Owings, Marie Nelson and Gladys White.

In the Thanksgiving basket ball game the Senior-Sophomore defeated the Junior-Fresh team 12 to 4. The game was hard fought. At the end of the first half the score was 4 to 4, but the Senior-Soph. outplayed their rivals in the last half. Those representing the Senior and Sophomore classes were as follows: Forwards, Margie Shirley, captain, and Nelle Martin; jumping center, Nelle Gentry; running center, Helen Burris; guards, Ethel Norris, Isetta Pruitt; substitute, Zulene Masters. The Junior-Fresh team had the following line-up: Forwards, Misses Wilma Ervin, captain and Lafayette Johnson; jumping center, Elizabeth Buxton; running center, Emily Sullivan; guards, Misses Florida Pruitt and Sara McAllister; substitutes, Mello Whitlock and Miss Bowie.

The college sustained at dinner on Thanksgiving day, President and Mrs. Kinard and family, Dr. and Mrs. White and Master Bruce White, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Owings and children, and Miss Mae Webbers.

At the chapel exercises on Friday Mr. O. W. Moore outlined the aims and method of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association.

The second number of the Lyceum courses will be given on next Monday evening.

How and Mr. D. W. Dodge were the guests of Miss Stranathan at dinner on Friday.

Mrs. Moll Duggan of Clayton, Ga., spent Friday night in the college, the guest of Miss Abbott.

How to Prevent Croup.
It may be a surprise to you to learn that in many cases croup can be prevented. Mrs. H. M. Johns, Ellettsville, Ohio, relates her experience as follows: "My little boy is subject to croup. During the past winter I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and when he began having that croup, cough, I would give him one or two doses of it, and it would break the attack. I have since used it several times and it has been very reliable." Sold by all Dealers.

THE POPULAR JEWEL STEEL RANGE

Is Low in Price But High in Quality

Almost every low-priced steel range is made with light-weight steel walls, painted with Japan to hide its defects; but not so with the Popular Jewel or Leader Jewel stove ranges. In fact all Jewel steel ranges are made of heavy, and hold on more rather than acceptation. The low price of a Jewel Jewel Steel Range is due to smaller size and not having as many ornamental parts or decorations; but for durability, quick heating, economy and convenience it will compare favorably with the Jewel and Leader Jewel steel ranges. The walls are made from heavy blue painted steel, double and triple with duplex grates. Top plates are pressed to prevent warping. Oven is full size and a perfect baker. Can be furnished with or without "scorcher." The high closet offers a roomy receptacle for warming plates. Randomly placed parts adorn the oven door, fuel door, brood door, high closet and brooklets tea shelf and guard rail. For wash tub families or for kitchens found in city homes and apartments this range is especially adapted. And will give the best of satisfaction. This range is made better value than the high-priced ranges made by other manufacturers and there are very few prices up there.
