SOCIETY

D. A. R. Meeting.
Catochee chapter, D. A. R., will meet on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. J. Horton, at four o'clock.

Miss Hester Richey of Greenville, and Mr. Casper Floyd of Wofford college spent Thanksgiving here with Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Holroyd.

Mrs. N. A. McKelthan of Georgetown is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Riley.

Mrs. Theo Watson has gone to Greenville to attend the Stone-Mitchell wedding next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Jacobs, Thomas Jacobs, and Miss Clara Duckett of Clinton compose an automobile party that are here to spend Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hoyt Hill and daughter, Miss Helen Hill of Knoxville, Tenn., are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Willett Sloan.

Charming Box Party.
Mrs. Cullen Sullivan entertained a few friends at a box party on Friday afternoon to see Geraldine Farrar in "Carmen." Her guests were: Mrs. J. P. Trowbridge, Mrs. Leon Rice, Mrs. J. H. Godfrey, Mrs. C. A. Gambrell, Mrs. Frank Farmer, Mrs. J. D. Hammett, Mrs. Anna Weston, Mrs. R. S. McCully, Mrs. Robert Ligon, Miss Louise Humphreys and Miss Margaret Evans.

Phiscilla Club.
A delightful meeting of the Phiscilla club was held yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Ed. Marshall. After the sewing was laid aside, the attractive hostess served a dainty menu.

Mr. and Mrs. Renz.
Mrs. E. F. Kramer has had as her guests for a few days her nephew and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. August W. Renz of Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. Swain Gilmer entertained in their honor on Friday evening at the Anderson theatre. They will leave today and will visit several points in the south before returning home.

A beautiful card party for this afternoon, and one that was fully enjoyed by the fortunate guests, was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. John E. Glaser and Mrs. Raymond Dealy in the parlors of Hotel Chiquola. An elegant menu was served when the cards were laid aside. The lovely prize was won by Mrs. T. S. Crayton. Among the guests for the afternoon were: Mesdames T. L. Cely, T. E. Howard, Frank Todd, W. E. Atkinson, H. P. Hunter, G. B. Greene, E. W. Taylor, Carrie Patrick, Fred Maxwell, Carrie McCully, M. L. Hoffman, Charles F. Greene, Joe Rast, E. F. Hall, L. S. Horton, W. D. McLean, C. W. Causey, F. A. Carter, Thom, Harry Gelsberg, Harleston Barton, Earle Barton, A. G. Fretwell, Frank Fied, W. W. Morrison, George Eagle, T. S. Crayton, Misses Annie Cooley, Jessie Brown, Margaret Evans, and Miss Brezendale.

Thanksgiving Dance.
After weeks of preparation, the Thanksgiving dance at the Elks Home on Friday evening was in full accord with the wishes and expectations of those in charge of it. Each committee had done their work most excellently, and from the moment one entered the front door, until the end of the evening you could see the splendid evidence of their work.

The handsome furnishings of the reception room and dancing hall were further enhanced by the fleabauty of the decorations of autumn leaves, palms, ferns and chrysanthemums. In the dancing hall the yellow color scheme was prettily carried out, while yellow shaded light lent a golden glow to the whole scene.

At eleven o'clock a dainty supper was served, after which the dance was enjoyed until a late hour. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. Ligon, Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Godfrey, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Causey, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Morrison, Mrs. Carrie Patrick, Mrs. Phelps Sasseen, Misses Linda Thompson, Vina Patrick, Lucy Cross, Anna Ross Cunningham, Louise Gilmer, Willie Wray Robinson, Lorena Cummings, Helena Hunt, Louisa Thornley, Grace Spencer, Jessie Browne, Lois Wells, Annie Earle Farmer, Nellie Dunson of Barnwell, Ellen Wilson and Carol Herndon of Greenwood, Jones of Kentucky, Billy Lyon, Paul Dickson, Eugene Watson, S. M. Wolfe, J. C. Gilmer, Keys Gilmer, L. E. Cochran, Clyde Smith, Glenn Evans, A. G. Burton, George Frank W. Marshall, J. C. Garrett, Ralph Wilson, Tom Maxwell, Welch, Prof. B. M. Parks, Harry Carlton, Ben Neaf, of Atlanta, Welco, Joe Norris, Archie Todd, Basie Vandiver, Kyle Shirley, Phisus Fant.

Lander Club Reciprocity Day.
The ladies who accepted the invitation and joined with the members of the Lander club in their November meeting Friday afternoon at the Hotel Chiquola had two hours of real pleasure. The piano and chairs were arranged in the spacious hall, which was beautifully decorated with large ferns, palms, and holly and sprays of yellow chrysanthemums, the Lander colors being gold and blue. Apropos of the motto for the month, "Be greatly wise to talk with our past hours and ask them what report they have borne to heaven."

She-Hostess's joke calls for a beach and the apple of his eye. Why can't you call me things like that? He-Yes, that's very well, but I can't trade, remember?—Tit-Nita.

companied by Mrs. Spearman on the piano and Mr. Tribble on the fute. This was so beautiful and sweet that it put just the right spirit into every one present for enjoying to the fullest the delightfully interesting address of Dr. Morrison.

Mrs. George Prince in a few well chosen words introduced the speaker, and just at the close of his admirable address, Mrs. J. C. Harris in behalf of the Lander girls, thanked him for his fine words and presented him with a beautiful bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums tied with the blue meline. An important committee meeting at conference in Spartanburg demanding Dr. Morrison's presence, the literary treat was over all too soon, however, too much can not be said in praise of the splendid musical numbers which followed. Mrs. Cora Ligon, whom Anderson audiences will never tire of hearing, gave a most appropriate selection. Next a bright piano duet was greatly enjoyed, rendered by Misses Welch and Jones. Following this was a most charming vocal solo by Mrs. McDonald, in which were brought out to perfection liquid, birdlike tones. As a fitting finale for this patriotic occasion many from the audience gathered at the piano and to Miss Chapman's accompaniment sang together sang our state song, "Timrod's Carolina."

After chatting for a half hour over the teacups (which, however, happened to be hot coffee and sandwiches) the audience reluctantly dispersed.

The Woman's Missionary Society.
The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the First Baptist church was held on the third Monday afternoon of this month. A large number of ladies were present and a specially good program was given. Mrs. John E. White made an interesting report of the women's meeting held in Spartanburg to which she went as delegate. Mr. Geo. Fant was elected as leader of the Royal Ambassador and the mothers were asked to co-operate with him by sending their boys to the meeting. Mrs. W. E. Entzinger will be invited to be the guest of the society during the week of prayer in January.

Mrs. A. L. Smethers was the leader of the program for the afternoon and the subject was "Brotherhood." The Bible is full of beautiful passages on this subject and Mrs. Smethers conducted a helpful scripture reading.

There are many things that are being done for the uplift of humanity at the present time but only two were discussed at this meeting. Mrs. J. Frank Johnson read a splendid paper on "What is Being Done to Put Down Disease." She showed how all disease is a result of sin and how men are now giving their thought and very lives to help conquer disease.

Miss Varina Brown spoke of the "Big Brother Movement." In this there is not a general impersonal interest in the welfare of men, but men seek out fallen individuals and assume personal oversight of them, in other words, become "big brothers" to them.

Mrs. Chambers sang impressively "My Task" and Dr. White pronounced the benediction.

Delightful Turkey Dinner.
On Thanksgiving Day the brothers and sisters, with their families, and a few neighbors were invited to a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Chamblee.

Among those present were: Ray, W. B. Hawkins and children, Mrs. Barrett, Mr. Charlie Barrett, Mr. S. A. Burns, Mr. Joe Anderson, Mrs. J. N. Freeman and children, Clyde and Wade Pepper, Mrs. Ina Hall and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Norris and children, Mrs. Mamie Kay and children, Miss Annie Chamblee, Miss Bertha Hall of Anderson college, Misses Ruby Gerrard and Rebecca Shirley.

A bountiful dinner was served by the young ladies present.

The World's Sweetheart, Mary Pickford in "A Girl of Yesterday."

Spinsterhood a Girl's Own Fault.
"It is often the girl's fault that she does not get married," says a young man in the December issue of the Woman's Home Companion, who gives his opinion of the modern young woman as his reason for remaining single.

"She'd expect me to keep up the same pace," he says. "She'd expect to live in the style her parents can afford, to dress and live as well as any of her neighbors. The same impulse which makes the girl of today demand the same sort of attention from a man that her richer girl friends receive will keep her poor husband's nose on the grindstone, once she finds him. I tell you it's the extravagant demands of the girl herself that frighten off the man. Mind you, I do not say there are not exceptions. But group the girls, and you see the attitude which frightens off the man of moderate means or moderate salary, or a position as yet insecure."

A Bird's Christmas Tree.
In the Christmas issue of the Woman's Home Companion is told the following scheme of a bird lover to carry good cheer out of doors:

"She procured a little tree about three feet high, decorated it with strings of popcorn and cranberries, and, in accordance with the bird's taste, added roasted peanuts and several pieces of meat—the choicest delicacy of all. The tree was placed on the roof of the porch, and proved so popular with the birds that she decided that every year, without an exception, her Christmas will include a tree for the birds."

Dealer for Him.
She-Hostess's joke calls for a beach and the apple of his eye. Why can't you call me things like that? He-Yes, that's very well, but I can't trade, remember?—Tit-Nita.

THE POPULAR JEWEL STEEL RANGE

Is Low in Price But High in Quality

Almost every low-priced steel range is made with light-weight steel walls, painted with Japan to hide its defects; but not so with the Popular Jewel or Leader Jewel stove ranges. In fact all Jewel steel ranges are made honestly, and sold on merit, rather than deception. The low price of a Popular Jewel Steel Range is due to smaller size and not having as many ornamental parts or castings; but for durability, quick heating, fuel economy and convenience it will compare favorably with the higher-priced ranges.

The walls are made from heavy blue planished steel, double and asbestos lined. Hinges are hand driven. Fire-box is large and roomy and fitted with duplex grate. Top plates are crumpled to prevent warping. Oven is full size and a perfect baker. Can be furnished with or without inside vent. The big closet offers a roomy receptacle for warming dishes. Handsomely nickel-plated parts adorn the oven doors, feed door, blast door, high closet and brackets, tea shelves and guard rail. For small-sized families, or for kitchens found in city homes and apartments, this range is especially adapted, and will give the best of satisfaction. This range is much better value than the high-priced ranges offered by catalog houses. Call and learn our very low prices on these ranges. They will surprise you.
