

A Hint to Mothers of Growing Children

A Mild Laxative at Regular Intervals Will Prevent Constipation.

A vital point upon which all schools of medicine seem to agree is that normal regularity of the bowels is an essential to good health. The importance of this is impressed particularly on mothers of growing children.

A very valuable remedy that should be kept in every home for use as occasion arises is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a compound of simple laxative herbs that has been prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., for more than twenty-five years, and which can now be obtained in any well stocked drug store for fifty cents a bottle.

In a recent letter to Dr. Caldwell, Mrs. H. C. Turner, 844 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., says, "I bought a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for my baby, Roland Lee Turner, and find it works just like you said it would. It is fine for the stomach and bowels."

ROLAND LEE TURNER

Pepsin should be in every home. A trial bottle free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 464 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

TURKO-GERMAN ALLIANCE

One Result is Turks Are Adopting German Educational System.

Berlin, Dec. 3.—One of the results of the Turkish alliance with Germany is that a beginning has been made by the Turks in taking over some of the features of the German educational system. Dispatches from Constantinople tell of the erection there of continuation schools, based on the German model, with a curriculum which includes, among other studies, bookkeeping, arithmetic, geography, commercial science, commercial correspondence and German. The Constantinople association of manufacturers and dealers has published a notice calling attention to the new schools and urging the masters of various trades to see that their apprentices attend regularly. The schools are free.

The "teffez" school has made German an obligatory study. The newspaper Tattin, in an article concerning the continuation schools, pays high praise to the German system. It points out that the Germans, so far from slackening their educational work during the war, not only maintain it fully, but have also maintained schools in enemy countries, using military men as instructors.

Strong and Well as Ever.
Fred Froth, 325 Main St., Green Bay, Wis., says: "I suffered a long time with a very weak back. Foley Kidney Pills completely relieved me of all soreness and pain and I now am strong and well as ever." Winter aggravates symptoms of kidney trouble; cold weather makes aching more unbearable. Foley Kidney Pills help the kidneys eliminate pain-causing poisons.—Sold Everywhere.

SINCE TAKING PERUNA

I can say my bowels are much more regular. My heart is stronger. My appetite is much better. My throat is much better.

Mrs. William H. Hinchliffe, 20 Myrtle St., Beverly, Mass., writes: "I have taken four bottles of Peruna, and I can say that it has done me a great deal of good for catarrh of the head and throat. I recommend Peruna to all sufferers with catarrh. I do not think I ever felt much better. I am really surprised at the work I can do. I do not think too much praise can be said for Peruna."

Those who object to fluid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Society

Due West Alumnae Association.
The Due West Alumnae association were delightfully entertained at the regular December meeting yesterday afternoon by Mrs. A. M. Sharpe and Mrs. Daisy Wilson at the home of Mrs. Sharpe.
The study of the afternoon was Macbeth, and Dr. Kinard gave a most interesting and instructive talk on the play. He being greatly impressed by his interpretations of Lady Macbeth.
Mrs. Cora Ligon sang a charming English ballad, and as an encore sang one of Mrs. Lilly Strickland Anderson's compositions. During the pleasant informal social hour the two attractive hostesses assisted by Miss Gene Harris served coffee and fruit cake. Minis were passed by pretty little Kathleen Wakefield of Piedmont.

Beautiful Home Wedding.
A beautiful wedding and one of great interest to friends here and all over the state, was that of Miss Ray Masters and Mr. Kyle Shirley, which took place on Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Masters a few miles south of town.
This pretty home had been artistically decorated in palms, ferns, and vines, these being used over a pure white background formed a charming scene, while over all was the radiance of many lights.
The floor was covered with a rare white carpet, and on one side of the parlor, was arranged a graceful arch of white roses and smilax under which the bridal party stood.
The pretty bride was attended by her sister, Miss Zulene Masters as maid of honor, and Misses Alton Clakacales of Abbeville, and Sallie Cade of Mt. Carmel as maids. Mr. Keys Gilmer was Mr. Shirley's best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. B. Hawkins, while Mrs. J. A. Aull played the wedding march, accompanied by Mr. Frank Hawkins on the violin.
The bride was lovely in her pure white bridal robes, with a beautiful bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids and maid of honor wore dresses of soft white, hesperia, with chiffon overdresses, and carried bouquets of pink carnations.
Immediately after the ceremony, an elegant two course wedding supper was served to the large number of guests who were present.
Mr. and Mrs. Shirley left for a wedding trip, and on their return will be at home at the St. James hotel for the present.

CHARACTERISTIC SIGHT
Soldier Priests Officiate in Small Italian Church.
Home, Dec. 3.—One of the most characteristic sights in Italy is the officiating of soldiers at the altar in the small churches. At first the people were inclined to resent this innovation but when they understood that these soldiers are really priests, some called under arms as soldiers, some as military chaplains, they welcomed them and now prefer them to the regular clergy.
The effect of the soldier-priest's dress is exceedingly bizarre, with a heavily embroidered cape over the shoulders and the snowy camelia ruffles. The knee, completed by the gaiters of the soldier with spurs and heavy boots. The effect is further heightened, in most cases, by a luxuriant crop of hair where the tonsure should be, and a mustache or even a beard. A special dispensation has been issued by the Vatican to allow the priests under arms to grow hair on head and face to make them like their comrades in arms.
Ills Men.
A noble Englishman came over to New York with a musical revue last winter, bringing with him his prize bull pup. He entered a store on Broadway and asked for "puppy biscuits."
"Sure," answer the clerk, "are you going to eat 'em here or take 'em home."—New Orleans States.

and Mrs. W. E. Cason entertained yesterday afternoon at the handsome home of Mrs. Tolly on West Whitner street.
Red, carnations and red geraniums were used in profusion over the house, which had all been thrown together by means of folding doors. After a short business session, the following interesting program was given:
A report of the convention held in Alken was given by Mrs. J. R. Vandiver.
A sweet vocal selection by Mrs. W. H. Nardin, accompanied by Miss Welch.
A paper, "A South Carolina Christmas Before the War" by Mrs. J. O. Willits.
A bright vocal solo by Mrs. T. L. Cely. This was followed by a charming vocal selection by Mrs. J. R. Vandiver.
Instrumental solo by Miss Welch. The last number was a pretty solo by Mrs. Muldrow.
After the program, the hostesses invited their guests into the beautiful dining room where a red color scheme carried out in red carnations, presented a scene of rare beauty, and here an elegant menu was daintily served.

Dr. Kinard made an address on compulsory education before the Civic association of Anderson in the parlors of the Hotel Chiquola, on last Tuesday afternoon.
A students' recital will be given in the studio of the director of music on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Misses Cody and Devane were the guests of President and Mrs. Kinard on Thursday at a dinner party.
