

GIVE "HIM" Something to Wear

If it is practical, he'll enjoy it, appreciate it, and compliment your good judgment.

If it comes from here—he'll KNOW it's "all right."

Friday last, we received by express a big shipment of Overcoats, to sell for $15 and $18, which we are going to sell for $12.50 and $15

And if it's a Suit you want—we've got 'em at $10, $12.50 and $15 that can't be beat anywhere.

Sensible Gift Suggestions

From this partial list of the many really useful things that "he" wants, you can find one, two or as many useful presents as you care to give brother, father, husband, or some other girl's brother.

SANTA CLAUS

We are still making that Old Time Santa Claus and are still getting more of the boys' and our other friends are always coming out on the street with their own Santa Claus. We hope this will be a success.

Mr. James Gentry, who was operated in Baltimore some weeks ago, is not doing well, and was carried back to the operating table again last week. We hope this will be a success.

Mrs. F. M. Carey of Seneca was in Anderson shopping Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McAdams of Iva were here yesterday.

Mrs. Sam Anderson and little daughter of Iva passed through the city yesterday enroute to Spartanburg where they will spend Christmas.

John McDonald and Yule Merritt of the Fairplay section were among the visitors yesterday.

Mrs. R. L. Swadensberg of Portman spent yesterday in Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ansel Hall, Jr. of Aiken are visiting the former's father, Mr. J. A. Hall, who is quite ill at his home on South Main street.

Mr. Frank Chennell of Wafford college has arrived in the city for the Christmas holidays.

There will be preaching at Hopewell on next Sunday at 11 o'clock by the pastor. There will be preaching every fourth Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and third Sunday at 10 o'clock in the year 1915.

Mr. Lewis Mosley, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mosley, who has been in the north and west for several years, returned unexpectedly last Saturday. His father said he expected for joy. His children will be a happy one. We hope many more children will make their parents about for joy in the coming year. They would, if they only knew the joy it would bring into their home. Santa Claus, bring me a gun, some Christmas, and give me a very good little boy. I will be a very good little boy next Christmas. I will be a very good little boy next Christmas. I will be a very good little boy next Christmas. I will be a very good little boy next Christmas.

shoes tore them into strings. His father heard the cries of his sister, he threw the belt and ran, and found the unconscious form of Enoch. He was bruised from head to foot, with only a few places where the skin was cut, but no bones broken. He is unable to move himself, but we hope it is only bruised. Nothing except the guardian angel saved his life, saved it for a purpose, may he live to fill it well.

Miss Cassie Bolt of Anderson is visiting Miss Lila Bolt.

Miss Robbie Mosley is visiting her sister, Mrs. Norman Hamilton of Enley.

Mrs. Annie Watson gave her little son, Fred, a delightful December birthday party on his fifteenth birthday. About fifty were present. The house was beautifully decorated in holly and southern smilax. They played various games and had a good time, then all were invited to the dining room, where they were seated around the wall and on rugs and served a dainty sweet course by Mrs. Mae King and Miss Eunice Vandiver. The color scheme in the dining room was pink and white. The cake had fifteen pink and white candles burning on it. The souvenirs were hand-painted and were mined on by little Elizabeth Richardson and Dallas Maddox.

They all brought him useful presents and went away happy and wishing him many more such birthdays. Mrs. David Richardson and four children from McCormick has been spending awhile with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Vandiver.

AT THE THEATRES

AT THE ANDERSON VAUDEVILLE THIS WEEK

Mr. Frowbridge Secured Good Tab Show for His Patrons. The Newman Musical company is the name of the players at the Anderson theatre this week, and yesterday afternoon and last night they played to fairly good audiences. This company has 10 people and put on a good clean show yesterday.

There is nothing unusual or out of the ordinary about any of the work of the players at the Anderson but the performances yesterday were better and above the average tab shows. Miss Carrie Harley takes the lead and is supported by an able chorus including pretty girls wearing fetching costumes. Bing Cushman and Irving Selig kept the audience laughing by their numerous funny pranks and jokes, many of which were real new ones, while Herman Josef in the part of the French waiter, did his part well. The chorus consists of Misses Anna Fawn, Anna McMahon, Casale Harty, Hazel Cushman and, Marion McCormick. Mr. Dave Newman is the director of the show and directs the music.

Manager Frowbridge announced last night that there would be one performance this afternoon at 5:15 and two tonight, the first at 8:30 and the second at 9:30.

TOPSY TURVY GIRLS

Kelly's Company is Appearing at Palmetto This Week. Manager Pinkston has at the Palmetto this week Davis' Topsy Turvy Girls, a company of ten, including two comedians. Yesterday afternoon was ladies free show and the house was well filled. Another good audience witnessed the play last night. This show is not what it ought to be for the people that it has in it. They seem to be clever in some ways, but there is something lacking for the audience last night were rather slow in showing their approval. The chorus is good and the costumes are dainty. The feature of the show last night was the dancing of the leading lady and of the two comedians; also of the "straight man". All of these people move their feet exceptionally well and are above the average dancers seen at the Palmetto.

MARKETS

Local cotton 11-12 cents.

New York Cotton.
New York, Dec. 20.—Cotton opened firm 3 to 14 advance. Relatively firm cables and small spot offerings reported in Liverpool seemed to stimulate covering. Houses with southern connections offered cotton on advance and reactions of 5 to 6 points followed.

Trading was later very quiet with prices sagging slightly. Fluctuations were narrow and irregular.
