THE COMMISSION HAS SOME MONEY ON HAND

WILL DECIDE WITHIN NEXT FEW DAYS WHERE IT WILL BE SPENT

$2,200 FOR PAVING SEVEN FINISH

Several Petitions for Paving Are on File and Will Be No Trouble in Spending it.

The accounts and finances of the Street Paving Commission have been canvassed by Mr. D. A. Ledbetter, treasurer, Mr. J. H. Godfrey, mayor, and Mr. Wade A. Sanders, city engineer, and it is learned that the commission will have on hand from the bond money approximately $1,100 after all street paving work is finished and paid for. This balance comes from a margin allowed by the commission in mapping out the street paving, and from interest that has been collected on the bond money on deposit in the various banks of the city.

On being advised of the fact that something over $1,000 would be left on hand after the present paving work is settled for, Mr. D. F. Horton, chairman of the commission, stated yesterday that he would call a meeting of the commission to be held some time next week when some additional paving work would be mapped out.

Having $1,100 left as a balance means that the commission will have $2,200 to spend on additional paving, because an amount equal to that held by the commission will be paid by the abutting property owners.

The commissioners do not anticipate any trouble at all in procuring the necessary petitions for additional street paving, because several petitions are already on file, having come in voluntarily without any indication from the commission that the streets named would be improved. As a matter of fact since the people are now seeing and appreciating the worth of street paving it is believed that the proper number of signatures could be procured on a petition to pave any street in the city.

It has been suggested that since the additional paving will have to be brick paving, because the asphalt plant is dismantled and the asphalt crew has departed from the city, that Peoples street, from Whitner street to Church street be paved. This is a narrow street and by using extra wide cement drains City Engineer Sanders thinks that these two blocks of streets can be paved with the money on hand. Then, it has also been suggested by some abutting property owners that North East street, Calhoun to Greenville, be paved. The property owners on this street filed a petition for paving some time ago.

This street is an important one and has heavy traveling. These are merely suggestions on the part of some people, and as Mr. Horton said yesterday: "We will meet some time next week and decide what is best to be done with the money on hand."

It will be pleasant news to the people of the city that a balance of the bond money is on hand. And in order that there might not be any misunderstanding it might be well to state that the money on hand is not any part of the money paid by abutting property owners on any of the streets improved. The balance on hand, as already stated, is due to the margin made by the commissioners in mapping out the work with the bond money, and from interest procured from the banks for the bank deposits.

T. B. NOT A CANDIDATE

Med H. McCormick So Declares of Colonel Roosevelt.

Colonel Roosevelt is not a candidate for either the republican or the progressive nomination for the presidency at this time, in the opinion of Med H. McCormick, the former progressive leader in Illinois, who returned today from New York.

"While in New York I had a talk with Colonel Roosevelt," said Mr.
McCormick. "So far as I know the colonel has done nothing to indicate that he will be a candidate for the republican nomination for president or for the progressive nomination either. In three states he refused to permit his friends to put his name upon the primary ballot."

Mr. McCormick declared that he attended the dinner given Friday night by Judge Gary and attended to the colonel and a number of his political friends.

Asked if it is Colonel Roosevelt's intention to keep the progressive man-datus intact and have it ready for business in the event that the republicans take some action similar to the nomination of Tamm in 1912, Mr.
McCormick replied that he did not know, but that he had no authority to speak for him.

It was said on excellent authority today that national committee managers was the progressive leader who had taken action on the executive room and 25 sleeping rooms at the Congress hotel during the republican convention. It was denied by the hotel management that the contract had been closed.—Chicago Dispatch.

ANDERSON NURSES WILL SOON GRADUATE

EXERCISES AT FIRST PRES-BYTERIAN CHURCH ON
JAN. 4

SEVEN FINISH

This Year and Will Receive Certificates—Enjoyable Affair Wednesday Evening.

The graduation of the senior class of nurses at the hospital will be held January 4th at the First Presbyterian church. The graduation exercises have not been determined on, but some appropriate speeches and other ceremonies will be gone through.

One of the last social functions of the year at the hospital was held Wednesday evening when the Junior Nurses entertained the Seniors at the Nurses Home. The affair was an enjoyable one, and was more particularly enjoyable to the senior nurses as it is one of the last of these functions they will attend at the hospital.

The young ladies who graduate this year are:

Misses J. B. Seay, Mary T. Lewis, Lucille Rodgers, Iva Tate, Lila Stribling, Jane Fennell and Zella Gentry.
They have completed the four year course required by the state and are graduated as trained nurses.

PRIEST DEFENDS TUMULTY

In direct contrast to the sharp criticism of many Catholic newspapers and priests against President Wilson's secretary, Joseph Tumulty, on the issue of Carranza's alleged anti-Catholic attitude, one of the most influential priests of the Hartford Diocese, the Rev. Edward Finawary of Hazardville, issued a defense today of Mr. Tumulty's loyalty to the Wilson administration's recognition of Carranza.

Father Finawary holds that in view of all the documentary evidence thus far adduced, Mr. Tumulty was justified in carrying out the defense of the administration. He adds:

"So far as the Catholic press at large need be weighed, all the information has come from sources already considered, and the editorial comment is only an echo. Mr. Tumulty may or may not be right. But as Leader O'Brien in Cork told Harold Begbie, the clergy are splendid men, but as politicians they are pitiable."

College Head at Forty

Dr. Roy Lyman Wilbur.

Dr. Roy Lyman Wilbur will assume the presidency of Leland Stanford Junior University at Palo Alto, Cal., Jan. 1, and will then be one of the youngest men to occupy such an important post. He was born in Booneville, Iowa, April 10, 1875, and removed to California when a boy. After graduating from Everside High school he entered Stanford, where he received his baccalaureate degree the following year. In 1897 he took his diploma from Cooper College in San Francisco, which has since become the school of Medicine under Stanford university, with Dr. Wilbur as the dean for the past five years. As president he succeeds Dr. John Caspar Branner, who has served two years in that capacity.

ROBT. E. LIGON
Gen'l Manager

GLUCK MILLS

(Operating Department)

Address all communication to the company

Anderson, S. C., Dec. 23, 1915.

Mr. Jno. T. Burriss & Son,
Anderson, S. C.

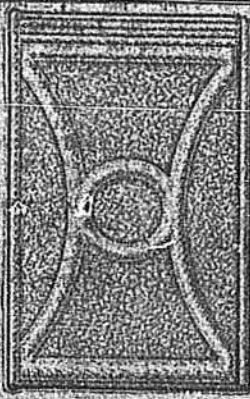

Gentlemen: Referring to your favor of the 22nd, beg to say that we have used quite a lot of your metal shingle and large sheet galvanized roofing, and after two or three years experience can say that we have never had a complaint in regard to the roof leaking and giving any trouble.

We do not hesitate to say your metal shingles and sheet roof is a success, and it will be worth while for any one interested to give your products consideration.

Yours very truly,

ROBT. E. LIGON,

General Manager

John T. Burriss & Son,
Anderson, S. C.

Dear Sirs: Wish to say you certainly covered the "One Day Church" in one day and do not believe it could have been done with any other shingle. The shingles are giving satisfaction in every particular and recommend them to any one desiring a good shingle.

Very Respectfully,

C. F. Hammond,
Chairman Building Committee.
