(By Associated Press.)
A Russian general offensive has apparently begun. From Petrograd and Vienna come reports that the Russians are engaged over a front of two hundred and fifty miles from near Brest-Litovsk to the Rumanian frontier.

Petrograd says thirteen thousand prisoners were taken in Russian successes in many sectors. Along the Sarabraz front, in Enslister region, along the lower Stripa river and in Volhynia, Russian attacks have been especially violent.

Around Vaux and Danloup, north-east and east of Verdun; bombardment on both sides continue to be violent, but bad weather kept the troops in trenches. Germans near Ypres captured Canadian trenches, but later were ejected in a hand-to-hand struggle. Sunday the Germans retook some recaptured ground. Vienna reports the Austrians captured the town of Golsans from the Italians, taking five thousand, six hundred prisoners and some cannon.

Rome admits the retirement, but says Austrian attacks in Lagarina Valley were repulsed with heavy losses.

RECRUITING OFFICERS VISIT FARMER BOYS TO GET ENLISTMENTS

Claim Youngsters of Rural Districts Make Better Soldiers

Atlanta, Ga., June 5.—The United States is not going to wait for the boys on the farm to travel to cities where recruiting stations are located for the enlistment of young men in the marine corps, but is going to send recruiting officers into the rural districts and interview the young men first hand.

Today a party of recruiting officers left Atlanta in an automobile to make a tour of the southeastern territory for the purpose of seeing young men of the farms and in the small towns, and laying before them the attractive opportunities offered in marine corps branch of the service.

Recruiting officers in Atlanta say it is the boys from the rural surroundings that make not only the best soldiers but the best marines and the best blue jackets. Country boys, as the officers point out, are usually free from bad habits and have suffered none of the weakening effects of dissipation, and they have characteristics of reliability and steadfast attention to duty that renders them highly desirable in all branches of the army and navy.

CARRANZA NOTE TO BE TAKEN UP TODAY

Demand for Mexico Intentions Interest All Latin America Much Discussed

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, June 5.—President Wilson and the cabinet are expected to discuss a reply to the new Carranza's note to the United States today. Carranza's demand that the United States declare its intentions towards Mexico in interest of all Latin America.

Some diplomats do not hesitate to attribute this to the work of the foreign agents at Mexico City, working to offset President Wilson's efforts to bring about closer Pan-Americanism. Some even assert there is a plan afoot to prevent the United States from forming permanent trade with South and Central America, formerly held by Europe.

President Wilson and the cabinet have not indicated the nature of the reply and the demands may be ignored entirely.

BULL MOOSE NOT TO NOMINATE HURRIEDLY

Perkins Says Careful Consideration Will Be Given—To Await G. O. P. Action

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, June 5.—A conflicting report was abroad here tonight as to the plan headed by George Perkins to have the progressive convention to delay any nomination until some tangible result on a nominee is approached in the Republican convention. Perkins announced the progressives would not nominate "right off the bat." On the other hand, Victor Murdock, national committee chairman, asserted that the committee had reached no agreement to withhold action on nominations. William Allen, who declared the committee had agreed to withhold nominations until Saturday, awaiting the republicans action, many delegates protested against the delay and urged Roosevelt's nomination the first day.

Anyhow They Are Claiming Honor of Taking "Rabbit"

Philadelphia, Pa., June 5.—Who captured John Brown at Harper's ferry in 1859?

Promoter of Weeks Bomb Confers With George W. Perkins at Progressive Headquarters—T. R. Kept Informed.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, June 5.—Senator Lodge, who expects to nominate Weeks, held an hour and a half conference late today with George W. Perkins at Progressive headquarters. After the conference Perkins said nothing had been accomplished, but admitted the purpose of the conference was to discuss candidates upon which two parties might agree. George von L. Meyer, one of Roosevelt's leaders, was called into the conference and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., was close by while it was going on. It is understood Roosevelt was being informed at Oyster Bay of what was going on.

Hilles Won't Talk.

Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the publication of national committee, and Perkins conferred in Perkins' room. Hilles refused to discuss the conference.

Today's striking feature was the development of a Hughes boom. Representatives of several candidates found themselves in a perplexing predicament tonight. Having fostered sentiment in favor of Hughes until they believed Roosevelt was eliminated. They now fear they cannot control the Hughes movement.

It seemed clear tonight that efforts are being made to concentrate all elements against Hughes. Indications are that the vote of progressive party, of which course means Roosevelt's disapproval of Hughes, may be brought as a check. Considerable significance is attached to the conference for the organization of republican and progressive leaders during the day for harmony evidently is the desire of the leaders, who but by agreement the two parties leaders realize they have slim chances of winning.

The arrival of many delegates pledged to "favorite sons" on the first ballot revealed a great sentiment for Hughes as second choice.
