Grand Jury Presentment.

To his Honor Geo. E. Prince, Presiding Judge:

We, the grand jury, hereby submit our report:

We have passed upon all bills of indictment presented to us at this the September term, 1906. The financial affairs of the county have been recently examined by a commission appointed by his excellency, Governor Heyward, by authority of a joint resolution of the General Assembly and at our request a duplicate of the report has been submitted to us together with the date upon which it is based. Besides a loan, made by the sinking fund commission, for $7,400, for which this year's taxes have been pledged for its payment, the legal indebtedness of the county is $17,112.16.

We join with this commission in their recommendation as to a change in the statutory law and call to the attention of our representatives in the General Assembly to what appears to be a defect and urge upon them the importance of such additional legislation or amendments to the present acts as may be necessary to remedy it. It appears that there is no provision requiring at regular periods a comprehensive statement of the financial affairs of the county.

The county supervisor should be required to make a report to the September term of court for the use of the grand jury, not simply an itemized statement of all amounts ordered paid by the board of county commissioners for the preceding fiscal year, but the report should embody all claims approved for such preceding year and for what purpose, showing the totals and showing how much if anything remains unpaid for such fiscal year, the amount of funds applicable to their payment, or if there be a surplus, the amount thereof, or the deficiency for such fiscal year, as the case may be, as shown by the treasurer's report, which should be made at the same time.

We have by special committee only been able to make a cursory examination of public offices. The treasurer being sick we could not compare the superintendent of education vouchers with his to see what money have been paid out, but the books seem to be well kept in the office of the superintendent of education. By special committee we have examined poor house and premises and find about 200 bushels of old corn on hand, also 3,000 bundles of old fodder, and 6,000 bundles of this year's crop, 21 head of hogs, 7 head of cattle, 3 mules in good condition, 1,500 lbs of shucks of last year's crop. The farm contains 70 acres of corn, 6 acres cotton worked on shares and 6 acres of corn. 1,880 lbs of lint cotton have been gathered from share crop. Inmates: 4 whites, 7 colored; all seem to be satisfied except one Wm. Bowe; he wishes to go to his relatives in North Carolina. We recommend that the county buy him a ticket and let him go. We find that the buildings in good repair and kept clean and neat. The buildings are all insured in the state sinking fund for $1,780.

By special committee we have examined the jail and find it in very good order, but would recommend that the yard be graded so the water would run from the building. By special committee we examined the probate judge's office and found nothing wrong. We also examined the county chain gang and find 12 in number and in a healthy condition.

Thanking your Honor for courtesies shown us, all is respectfully submitted.
Longstreet Gantt,
Foreman.

"To Cure a Felon,"

says Sam Kendall, of Phillipsburg, Kan., "just cover it over with Bucklen's Arnica Salve and the Salve will do the rest." Quick cure for Burns, Boils, Sores, Scalds, Wounds, Piles, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Chapped Hands, Sore Feet and Sore Eyes. Only 25c at Jno. H. McMaster & Co.'s drug store. Guaranteed.

Cynicus—He fell in love with her because of her voice.

Sillicus—Her voice? Why, she doesn't sing.

Cynicus—I know. That's the reason he fell in love with her.

When two strong men come to blows, even if they are well matched, it is not a pleasing sight, but if the man who gets the worst of it will use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, he will look better and feel better in short order. Be sure you get DeWitt's. Good for everything a salve is used for, including piles. Sold by all druggists.

Death at Jenkinsville.

Mrs. E. J. Yarborough died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. L. Glenn, on last Tuesday morning about 12.30 o'clock, and was buried at Little River church, of which she had been a consistent member for many years.

She had been sick for a long time, and was confined to her bed for about five months, dying with a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Yarborough has been one of the best neighbors, mothers, grandmothers, besides possessing many other good qualities, of which a history of such a worthy life as this ought to be made as an example for her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. This can be truthfully said that her life has been spent in doing good for all.

Yes, we will miss her more than we can tell. All of the old darkeys in the country will miss "Miss Lizzie," as she was generally called.

She leaves to mourn her loss many sorrowing friends and relatives, besides she leaves five children, viz: Messrs B. H. Yarborough of Jenkinsville, W. B. Yarborough of Rincon, Ga., Rev. J. H. Yarborough of Fort Lawn, Mesdames D. L. Glenn of Wallaceville, and Kate McDowell of Winnsboro. Besides these children missing her, her six grandchildren, whom she had taken and raised, viz: Messrs W. B. Yarborough, T. J. Yarborough, Dave Yarborough of Jenkinsville, Wiley T. Yarborough of Columbia, Mrs. J. H. Bushardt of Peak, Miss Lizzie Yarborough of Jenkinsville, and twenty-one other grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Yarborough would have been, one month from the day she was buried, 78 years of age.
Sept. 22, 1906.

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our life little things are done to offend that we rather remain undone. A hastily eaten meal and its resultant headache may cause us social or financial loss. The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat and puts your stomach back into shape. Sold by all druggists.

Orphans' Work Day.

Saturday, Sept. 29, has been set aside as work day for the following orphanages: Thornwell at Clinton, Epworth at Columbia and Connie Maxwell at Greenwood. The object of this work day is to give every one the opportunity of setting aside the earning of one day for the care of these fatherless little ones in these institutions. It is a happy thought and one that should meet with a ready response throughout the State. Will you not give your earnings for that day for this noble object?

Starving to Death

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters, with the wonderful result that improvement followed." Best health tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Jno. H. McMaster & Co., druggists.

A Kansas Editor.

The editor of a Kansas country newspaper has found a way of persuading delinquent subscribers to pay up. It was quite accidental. It appears that he had borrowed a rifle and started up the main street of the town to return the weapon to its owner. The delinquent subscribers got it into their heads that he was on the warpath, and every one he met insisted on paying what he owed him. One man wiped out a debt of ten years' standing. On his return to his office he found a load of hay, fifteen bushels of corn, ten bushels of potatoes, a load of wood, and a barrel of turpentine that had been brought in. All the country editors are now trying to borrow Winchester. —Ex.

No one would buy a sailboat with sails that could not be reefed. There is always that possibility of a little too much wind that makes a cautious man afraid to go unprovided. The thinking man, whose stomach sometimes goes back on him, provides for his stomach by keeping a bottle of Kodol For Dyspepsia within reach. Kodol digests what you eat and restores the stomach to the condition to properly perform its functions. Sold by all druggists.
