VOL. XLIX, NO. 21

FAIRFIELD COUNTY NEWS AS REPORTED BY CORRESPONDENTS

SALEM.

The farmers are about through work and are now watching the boll weevil destroy their cotton. Crops are looking very dry and bad. We are needing rain very badly.

The picnic at Salem on August 10 was attended by a large number of people. Besides a sumptuous dinner a very interesting speaking program was enjoyed. Among those making addresses were Mr. William Banks, of Columbia; Mr. Sanders, county demonstrator, of Kershaw; Ms. J. G. Woolling, of Winnsboro, and Mr. Howard Lemmon, county demonstrator.

Dr. and Mrs. Funderburk, of Lancaster, recently spent several days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Martin.

Roy Crowder spent last week with his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fee, near Blairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillie Berry and Misses Carrie and Lizzie Berry, of Columbia, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Robt. Martin.

Misses Sallie and Evelyn Sanders, and Mr. George Sanders, of Chester, spent Sunday with Miss Genie Gladney.

WATEREE.

Mr. Tribbler has been in other parts so much of late, that he must try to get his bearings and find out if he is really a citizen of this section.

The dry weather and boll weevil have wrought havoc with the cotton crop. We face the poorest yield we have had in our memory.

Corn is only fair to good. We have seen very little good corn.

Our county commissioner is having the road from Stover to Winnsboro put in good shape. We hear a lot of good things said about Mr. Higgins' work. We passed over the top soil road from Simpson to Rockton and about concluded that the top soil road is to be a rock pile instead of a nice smooth road bed.

Annie May and Emma Carlyle, of Epworth Orphanage, are visiting their grand-mother, Mrs. Emma Carlyle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Crawford, of Chester, spent last week with the latter's mother, Mrs. Isenhower.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER FROM THE WINNSBORO MILLS

This column has been absent for several weeks, while your correspondent was away on a vacation. Glad to be back, thank you. Had a fine time. Drove over 1,000 miles without a puncture or any engine trouble. Reasons? Well we had better roads than Fairfield county can boast; we were riding a Buick automobile, mounted on Royal Cord tires and we were just naturally lucky. That's enough, isn't it? Crops in lower South Carolina are fine, but in Alabama and Georgia they did not look good. Much grain and foodstuff were growing in Alabama and Georgia. Many pastures were populated with splendid cattle and fat hogs. Most farmers with whom we tried had an abundant supply of food for man and beast for the winter months.

Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Gibson and children returned last Wednesday from a several weeks' vacation, spent in Georgia and Alabama. The trip was made thru the country. Miss Kathleen Williams was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gibson on the trip. While away they visited in Atlanta, Lagrange, Hogansville, Geneva, Macon and Warm Springs, Ga., and Opelika, Ala. In Lagrange, Ga., the party were the guests for a week at the home of Mr. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gibson, Sr. All report a wonderful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson and family are away on their vacation. They are motoring their way thru the northern and eastern part of the state. They are expected to return the latter part of the month.

Sunday of Miss Beulah Lucas to Mr. Muller Lewis, of Lexington, S. C. We extend heartiest congratulations to this young couple. We are glad that they are going to make their home in our village.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church shipped a box of clothing Monday weighing 220 pounds to the near east relief depot in New York. The articles were contributed by the good people of the village. Armenia is the final destination of the clothing.

The pastor of the Baptist church was in his pulpit again Sunday night, after being away on several weeks' vacation. The evening sermon subject was "Christian Patriotism or A Volunteer Life for Christ." Those present were touched by the forceful message. The subject for next Sunday evening will be "Giving God a Square Deal." Let the beginning of your square deal policy be your presence at the evening service next Sunday at eight o'clock.

The Baptist Sunday school meets at 10:45 next Sunday. Be on time with a prepared lesson.
