Unofficial Primary Returns in the County
Candidates without Opposition and District Candidates Are Not Given.

Table with 14 columns (Winnsboro, Wboro Mills, Simpson, Ridgeway, Longtown, Centerville, Greenbrier, Mossy Dale, Horab, Jenkinsville, Monticello, Blair, Feasterville, Shelton, New Hope, Woodward, White Oak, Wateree, Mitford, G. Grove, Jax Creek, TOTAL) and 14 rows (LEGISLATURE, SUPERVISOR, AUDITOR, TREASURER, SUPT. OF EDUCATION, GOVERNOR, LIEUT. GOV., ATT. GENERAL, COMPT. GEN., SUPT. EDUCN, ADJ. GENERAL, COM. AGRIC). Each row lists candidates and their vote counts.

RESULTS OF THE PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY.

With the largest vote polled in the history of the county, unofficially tabulated as 1901, Election Day chronicled many important events in the politics of Fairfield.

At the local polling precinct the congestion was marked, many a voter being compelled to wait in line before casting his or her ballot. This condition, it is suggested, might be remedied by dividing the town into several wards for voting purposes. Winnsboro was the last box to be reported with the exception of two rural precincts, and its totals were awaited with good natured excitement by the crowd that thronged the Court House. Complimentary words are due the managers of the election here who counted zealously the overwhelming tide of ballots. Mr. D. E. Crossland, manager of the local telephone exchange, gave fast and complete service from the rural districts. Their was little hitch in the returns and the dope came in steadily until the closing hour.

The interest taken in the balloting by local women was intense, the feminine voters making their debut in the morning hours at the polls in large numbers.

James W. Hanahan, of Winnsboro, 1030, and A. Mac. Faucette, 1121, of Feasterville were chosen by the voters of the county for the General Assembly. Hanahan was reelected, while Faucette, leading the legislature ticket, enters his first term in the House.

M. C. Boulware, 600 and S. F. Castles, 415, will run a second race for the office of Supervisor.

A second race will be staged over the office of Auditor, J. B. Burley, 780, competing against J. E. Stevenson, 610.

Daniel Hall, 685, and A. Lee Scruggs 710, will again make the race for County Treasurer.

J. L. Brice, 783, will be opposed by W. W. Turner, 629, for the office of Superintendent of Education.

In the State Campaign, Fairfield gave its native sons, Craig and Dove a complimentary vote. Craig received 1219 and Marshall 569, in the Adjutant and Inspector-General race. Dove 1256, present Secretary of State, led Dozier, 569 by a great lead.

Continued tabulation yesterday of returns from Tuesday's Democratic primary in South Carolina brought no material changes from the results as announced yesterday morning.

With 93 of the 1,307 precincts in the state yet to be reported, the total vote counted was 160,670. The outstanding precincts will doubtless not add more than 5,000. This would indicate that the total enrollment of 226,581 cast ballots last Tuesday.

The tabulated vote at midnight last night, for governor: Cole L. Blease, 71,796; Thomas G. McLeod, 61,896; George K. Laney, 20,638; William Coleman, 3,469; John T. Duncan, 1,692, and J. J. Cantey, 1,179. A second race will be run by Blease and McLeod, with the second primary September 12.

On the face of incomplete returns, E. B. Jackson, of Wagner has apparently been nominated lieutenant governor, he having a majority of 2,460 over both his opponents. The tabulated vote in this race was: Jackson, 71,393; Dr. E. C. L. Adams, 34,987; J. K. Owens, 33,496.

R. E. Craig has been nominated adjutant and inspector general over T. B. Marshall. Mr. Craig has a lead of more than 10,000 over his opponent. The vote last night stood: Craig, 83,064; Marshall, 73,036.

A second race will be run for state superintendent of education, apparently between John E. Swearingen, incumbent, and J. H. Hope. The vote for this office was Swearingen, 40,509; Hope, 34,566; Mrs. Bessie Rodgers Drake, 33,790; Mrs. E. B. Wallace, 21,240; C. H. Seigler, 8,401.

Another race in which a second vote may be required for a decision is that of attorney general. Latest returns give Mr. Wolfe a majority of only 597 over his two opponents. The votes counted give: Wolfe, 81,838; Harold Eubanks, 40,356; D. M. Winter, 40,885.

W. Banks Dove was renominated for secretary of state, Walter E. Duncan for comptroller general, and B. Harris for commissioner of agriculture, by large majorities.

S. T. Carter was renominated for state treasurer without opposition.

W. Turner Logan was renominated from the First district for congress, as was Fred H. Dominick in the Third

FORD MOTOR FACTORIES WILL SUFFER COMPLETE SHUTDOWN
SEPTEMBER 16.

Spartanburg Herald. Detroit, Aug. 26.—One hundred and five thousand employees of the Ford Motor company throughout the country will be without jobs after September 16.

In addition, several hundred thousand other workers employed in industries furnishing materials for the Ford plants will be affected.

Henry Ford gave these figures today in announcing that his three big motor plants located in Detroit suburbs and his assembling plants throughout the country would be closed on that date, because of the coal shortage.

The announcement was the most severe blow that industrial Detroit has sustained since the industrial depression of two years ago. It means, according to Mr. Ford, that 75,000 men employed in the Highland Park, River Rouge and Dearborn plants of the company here will be without work.

Thirty thousand others now working in the various assembling plants scattered throughout the country also will be thrown out of employment.

How long the machinery in the Ford plants is to be stilled will depend entirely upon the coal supply of the future, the Detroit manufacturer said. The statement issued by Mr. Ford announcing the proposed shutdown was the story of his loss

OLD SCHOOL BELL FOUND
CORPS OF NEW TEACHERS

In digging the foundations for the new Mt. Zion Institute, an old brass bell was unearthed—relic of some previous building. The bell was undoubtedly the one which hung in the fine building destroyed by fire about 1868. What a tale the old bell could tell! The saintly William P. Dubose, world famous theologian, as a boy responded to its call. It regulated the day for the wonderful teacher, Jacob Hudson—who lies buried just in front of the site that contained the building he made famous. If the roll of boys, who as students listened to this bell call out the hours could be called now, South Carolina would be surprised at the tremendous part that old Mt. Zion has played in the history of state and nation.

The site of the new, modern building now being erected is one of the most historic spots in upper Carolina. Nobody seems to know how many buildings have been on it. Old forgotten foundations of buildings long ago, in the excavating for the new building, appeared in the most unexpected places. Among them was a clearly defined stratum of oyster shells—probably brought from the coast by Charleston people, who largely founded Mt. Zion. Since 1777 this site has been used for school purposes. The old-Ketchin building has been secured, and is now being renovated to use this fall, while the new building is in course of erection. Mrs. Catherine Ladd had a fashionable seminary for young ladies in this building before the War of Secession. Several classes will be taught in the community building.

Supt. G. F. Patton announces the following corps of teachers for Mt. Zion. First grade, Miss Priscilla Ketchin; second grade, Mrs. Agnes Faysoux; third grade, Miss Maggie B. Turner; fourth grade, Mrs. P. M. Dees; fifth grade, Miss Eliza Belle Curlee; sixth grade, Miss Elizabeth Doty; seventh grade, Miss Cooper Walkup; High school; principal, M. M. Stewart; N. M. Huckabee, Camden; Miss Hattie Timmons, of Manning; Miss Elmira Long, of Saluda. The Winnsboro Mills School, first grade, Miss Lida Neil; Miss Nan Neil; second grade, Miss Mary Carlisle Elliott; third grade, Miss Elizabeth Sloan; fourth and fifth grades, Miss Emelyn Macfie; sixth and seventh grades, Miss Mayme Douglass.
