FAIRFIELD COUNTY NEWS
TOLD BY CORRESPONDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Black and little daughter, Estell, of Rocky Creek, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Black.

Misses Pixley and Sallie Young spent Sunday with Mrs. J. B. Monahan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Monahan spent Friday with Mrs. T. M. Black.

Mrs. T. M. Black and Miss Annie Black spent the week-end not long past with relatives at Rocky Creek and Great Falls.

There will be a Christmas exercise at the Stover school Friday afternoon at 2:15.

Well Christmas will soon be here. You can hear little ones saying already, "I wonder what Santa will bring me." Not only the little ones but both young and old.

Mr. Douglas Varnadore, of Great Falls, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Black.

Mrs. T. M. Black has been unwell for the past two weeks. We hope she will soon be herself again.

UPPER MITFORD

Revs. W. J. Hunnicutt and J. E. Browne, Messrs. W. R. Witherspoon and J. D. Grady went on a rabbit hunt last week, and the Presbyterians shot the most shell, while the Methodists killed the most game. They took dinner with Mr. J. D. Grady to finish off the day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Keistler entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Grady with a dinner on Sunday.

Mr. Strother Ford motored to Chester with Mrs. W. T. Raines, Misses Janie Ford, Catherine Izleberger and Alma Knight Saturday to get gifts for Christmas.

The Mitford school teachers will entertain their pupils with a Christmas-tree Wednesday afternoon. The School will close on Wednesday for the holidays to open again the 3rd of January.

Misses Catherine Izleberger and Alma Knight will spend the holidays at their homes.

The hot supper was carried out nicely Friday evening. The sum of $30.00 was collected, which will go on an organ for the church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Grady will soon move to their old home, at Seven Spring, N. C.

Mr. Flem Thomasson's family will move to Rock Hill Thursday to be with him as he is a city policeman.

We appreciate the other denominations helping with the supper and the public taking an interest in it by coming out with us.

There has been quite a few hogs butchered to eat. Lots of lard has been made for home use. All farmers should have meat of their own.

Four of the Ku Klux Klan visited Bethesda Methodist church Sunday evening and presented a check for $28.50 to the Rev. J. E. Browne. A note was in the envelope telling him what to do with the money. They walked out as calmly as they came in. That is one good deed they have done.

I wish the Editor and co-workers a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

WHITE OAK

Owing to an outbreak of influenza in Due West, our college boys and girls are home a little early. Miss Belle Dale, of Mexico, accompanied Miss Mary Patrick home for the holidays.

Mr. Fred Ratteree spent a few hours at White Oak one day last week.

Mrs. M. W. and Mrs. K. H. Patrick and Miss Florence Patrick spent Tuesday in Columbia.

We are glad Mr. K. H. Patrick is well again after an illness of nearly two weeks.

Messrs. Young Bankhead and Marion Ratteree visited in Columbia a part of last week.

The White Oak school now has a basket ball court, and the young people are rapidly learning the game. We hope in the near future to have some match games.

All weather signs point to some real winter for Christmas.

Blunders of past years remind us We should shop and mail out snappy. And departing leave behind us All the store and mail clerks happy.
